Charlotte was orderly last week; the police made only six arrests.

The receipts of cotton at all ports last week, amounted to 180,000 bales.

Quite a number of new advertisements this morning, to which we invite attention. The Hop Club will meet to-morrow night at the room of Mr. C. D. Enow.

Are any steps being taken to provide for the poor of the city and save them from suffering during the winter!

"Have a snake?" is the latest manner in which to address a friend when inquiring if he will take a drink with you.

The "small fry" are already tooking anxiously and wistfully at the windows of confectionery stores.

We call especial attention to the advertisement of Prof. Naumann, which will be found elsewhere. Prof. N. is a fine teacher and an accomplished gentleman.

After more than a week of cloudy and warm weather, yesterday evening it blew up quite cool, and overcoats were again called into requisition.

A large stock of new and beautiful Furniture, bought since the panic, arriving daily at R. F. Davidson's Furnie ture rooms, opposite Brem, Brown & Co's, dec 13-2t. dry goods store.

Personal.-Under its head of "Personal," the Atlanta Constitution of Friday says: "Col. S. S. Pegram and bride, of North Carolina, are at the Kumball House,"

Price of Apples .- Northern apples now retail in this market at 40 cents per dozen; North Carolina Mountain apples at 15 cents. It will be remembered that we have often expressed the opinion that homemade apples are better and healthier heard to warrant the conclusion than any other kind any way.

Rattlesna - A Gaston county freedman arrived in Charlotte yesterday with some county, products for sale, among it a rattlesnake for which he asked the the modest sum of $8. (He hadn't heard of the panic.) Nobody seemed to have just that much to invest in rattlesnakes, and he left town without having effected a sale. The snake had nine rattles

Curious.-We have lately observed a singular fact-that is that those papers which have the largest number of Charlotte advertisements in the columns, are the papers which are always on the look-out for an opportunity to fling at Charlotte -It is a little curious that such is the case, and if some editors we know of can ever again go to the merchants of Charlotte and solicit advertisements of them, we will ask to be commended to those editors for the quality entitled "cheek."

The Old Cry—Now that there has been another jail delivery, the usual conversation, after each of these events, can be heard, viz: the great necessity which exists for a new jail. Everybody says to everbody, "I told you so?" but soon the escape of Baker will be forgotten and than you will hear, nothing about a new jail until some more prisoners make up their minds that they have stayed in one place long enough, and some pleasant night stroll off

THE PAIN-KILLER manufactured by PERRY DAVIS & SON has won for itself a reputation unsurpassed in medicinal preparations. The universality of the demand to the honest keeping of the pain-killer is a novel, interesting, and supprising feature in the history of this nicidine. The Pain-killer is nown for itself a reputation unsurpassed in medicinal preparations. The universality of the demand to the honest keeping of men whom you know personally or by reputation, instead of trusting to men unknown to you, and who have boasted of the number of Southern policies forfeited by the war, which were more than sufficient to pay all of their own war risks.

O'Hara.-O'Hara, the walkist whose feats in predestrianism attracted so much attention at the Fair of the Carolinas, fairfive miles including half a mile and sixty yards backwards, in 49 minutes and 26 seconds. This beat Weston's time in Raleigh nearly ten minutes, and his own time at Charlotte a little less than two market was firm and steady from the minutes. Our observation of the performances of both leads us to believe that, although O'Hara can beat Weston in a walk of one or two hours, he would not stand TRYON ST. M. E. CHURCH .- Preaching at a ghost of a chane against him in a day's 11 A. M., by Rev. J. Dewitt Burkhead, of walk. Indeed, Weston does not profess to walk very remarkably fast, and only prides himself when his powers of endurance. One of his feats was a little jaunt from Portland, Maine, to Chicago, Illinois.

Races at Wilmington .- Many of the trotting and running horses which were at the Fair of the Carolinas, were out in Wilmington the last week, and it will doubtless be a matter of interest to many of the citizens of Charlotte and persons who attended the Fair here, to know how these horses came out at Wilmington .-We learn from the Star, of that city, that on Thursday there was a trotting race for $400, viz. $300 to winning horse, $75 to second and $25 to third, for three best in five, mile heat. The entries were: Malsey, Spotted Tail, Goshen Maid, Charles Smith. Four heats were necessary, and at the end of the fourth it was found that Malsey was the winner; Goshen Maid An occasional torpedo (sure precursor second and Spotted Tail third. The other horse was distanced in the first heat and

For the running race, C. T. Walker of Charlotte entered Jim Hinton, against Washington Bay and Piney Woods, but was finally won by Piney Wooda in 1.49. Jim Hinton coming in second and Washington Boy being distanced was ruled out. The second heat was won by Jim Hinton, which horse won the race and the full premium, Piney Woods being distanced and therefore ruled out.

Escape From Jail.-Yesterday morning between 5 and 6 o'clock Josech Baker, who was to have been hanged on Friday next, for the murder of Newton Wilfong, colored, effected his escape from the jail in this city. The manner in which he did it, was after this wise: It should be known that the walls are ceiled. the plank put on grosswise, and that either from bad building or contraction of the timbers, there is a space of about an inch between each of the planks. Baker broke his water bucket to pieces, and putting the staves in these cracks, made a ladder, as it were, by which he could easily ascend to the ceiling overhead, Of this he did not fail to take advantage; and with the aid of a small auger or auger bit, which made a hole about the size of one's little finger, he bored there had been no monetary convulsion in his way through the ceiling in one | Wall street. Indeed, there has been no of the corners, into the garret above. After getting into the garret, it was all plain sailing; for there are windows in each end of the garret, through which, with the aid of his blankets, he could easily descend to the ground. He had three blankets and, learing them into thirteen pieces he tied the pieces together and then tied the rope made by them to one of the rafters. The rope reached clear to the ground, and Baker had no difficulty in letting himself down.

This is as much as is known of Mr Baker. The guard at the jail says that, a little after 5 o'clock he went around to that end of the jail from may be dissipated like the mists of mornwhich Baker escaped (the end next ing.

lands; to Australia, and Calcutta, Ran-goon and other places in India. It has also been sent to China, and we doubt if there is any foreign port or any inland ly outdid himself at Wilmington, walking | city in Africa or Asia, which is frequented by American and European missionaries, travelers or traders, into which the Pain-

Killer has not been introduced. The extent of its usefulness is another great feature of this remarkable medicine. It is not only the best thing ever known, as everybody will confess, for bruises, cuts, burns, &c., but for dysentery or any sortof bowel complaint, it is a remedy unsurpassed for efficiency and rapidity of action. In the great critics of British India and West India Islands and other hot climate it has become the standard medicine for a complaints, as well as dyspepsia, liver complaints and other kindred disorders. For coughs and colds, canker, asthma and rheumatic difficulties it has been proved by the most abundent and convincing trials and testimony, to be an invaluable medicine. The proprietors are in possession of letters from persons of the highest character and responsibility, testifying in unequivocal terms to the cures effected and the satisfactory results produced, in an endless variety of cases by the use of this great medicine. That the Pain Killer is deserving of all its proprietors claim for t is amply proved by the unparalled popularity it has attained. It is a sure and effective remedy. It is sold in almost every country in the world, and is becoming more and more popular every year. Its healing properties have been fully tested, all over the world and it need only to be known to be prized.

Cotton States INSURANCE

COMPANY. Principal Office, MACON, GA.

A plea for Life Insurance, and the " COTTON STATES LIFE." Scarcely in the history of the American people has there been a parallel to the general crash and monetary panic through which this country is now passing; and never, in the history of the Southern people, has there been, in consequence, such widespread pecuniary suffering. But recently ruined and devastated by war, disappointed by a series of disasters to their crops, they were just beginning to recover to some extent, when, without a note of warning, they have been overwhelmed by the tidal wave of bankruptcy which has had its source in the North.

Old and reliable banks and banking on the lot is a well and all necessary out information and general adaptation to the houses have been swept away and buried by the rashing tide. Savings institutions, where the industrious and the frugal had deposited the hard-earned surplus of their toil to create a fund for the support of declining years, or to constitute a legacy for loved ones, have been swept away: the fond anticipations of a life, the bright hopes which sustained and cheered, have all been overwhelmed by the pittless storm. In short, every industry and enterprise, every monetary institution of the land has felt the destroying, blighting influence of this terrible upheaval.

It is a note-worthy fact, and one that deserves the serious and sober consideration of every thoughtful mind, that throughout this wonderful crisis no life insurance company has been submerged by this tide of misery and destruction. On the contrary, these institutions stand as firm and stead fast throughout the land to-day as though period in their history which would seem to illustrate so perfectly the statement so long made, "that of all financial institutions a well conducted LIFE INSURANCE company is the strongest and safest."

And surely there has been no period within the history of these institutions which so forcibly demonstrates the great truth, which for years has been impressed upon the people, that there is no stability in human fortunes; that the provision which we may have invested in "stocks and bonds," or in any other species of securities, are liable at any moment to be engulfed in the troubled waters of adversity, and that when we feel most secure in our expectations of leaving behind us a sure support for those who are nearest and dearest to us, the accumulations of a lifetime sessed wealth and competence; are to-day sunk in the depths of poverty. When so licited to insure their lives, they laughed to scorn the idea that their families would ever need such provision. And now they are either too poor to insure at all, or if they do so, it is at a largely increased rate, And now, friends, do you need stronger arguments to induce you to provide a sicre inheritance for those whom you must one day leave behind you? Surely not! We deem it not inappropriate here to advert to the fact that since the war a number of Life Insurance companies have been perfected and organized in the South, which, for lack of confidence, would now have enlarged their sphere of usefulness saving millions for investment Baker's wife had been with him in in our down-trodden South, where capital is so much needed. Strange as it may apthe South have shown too little faith in their own institutions. Yet, there is offered to their patronage as strong a company for its age as any in the land—and in many respects stronger. With a paid in capital of $150,000.00, it has under its charter a deposit of $100,000 00 with the Comp troller-General of the State of Georgia $50,000 00 in like manner, in South Carolina, and a reserve of capital of $350,000 00, which can be legally called in at any time when it may be needed.

Now, when we consider that other companies have their entire capital invested in their business, is it not too much to say that the reserve capital of the "Cotton States" furnishes an element

You have an opportunity, people of the South, to make this the largest and strongest company in the land. Will you not, then, come to our aid? Will it not give you some satisfaction and pride to see, in your own section, a company second to none; an institution in which you will feel
