BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE.

REPRINTED BY The Leonard Scott Publishing Co.,
140 FULT ST., NEW-YORK.

By arrangement with the English Publishers, who receive a liberal compensation.

A NEW SERIES

Was begun Jan. 1, 1873, with entirely new Tales, already embracing Serial and Short Stories by distinguished English, French, German, and Russian authors, viz.,—Lord Lytton (Bulwer), Erechonus-Chairain, Jean Turpin, Miss Thackeray, Mrs. Giffard, Fritz Reuter, Mrs. Parr (author of "Dorothy Fox"), Julia Kazanagh, &c.

During the coming year, as heretofore, the choicest serial and short stories, by the leading Foreign Authors will be given, together with an amount unapproached by any other periodical in the world, of the best literary and scientific matter of the day, from the pens of the above named and other foremost Essayists, Scientists, Critics, Discoverers, and Editors, representing every department of knowledge and progress.

The importance of THE LIVING AGE to every American reader, as the only complete as well as fresh compilation of generally inaccessible but indispensable current literature,—indispensable because it embraces the productions of THE ABLEST LIVING WRITERS in all branches of literature, Science, Art, and Politics,—is sufficiently indicated by the following

OPINIONS.
"Reproduces the best thoughts of the best minds of the civilized world, upon all the topics of living interest."—Philadelphia Enquirer.

"In no other single publication can there be found so much of sterling literary excellence."—N. Y. Evening Post.

"The best of our selected publications."—The Nation, New York.

"And the cheapest. A monthly that comes every week."—The Advance, Chicago.

"The ablest essays, the most entertaining stories, the finest poetry of the English language are here gathered together."—Illinois State Journal.

"With it alone a reader may fairly keep up with all that is important in the literature, history, politics, and science of the day."—The Methodist, New York.

"In view of all the competitors in the field, I should certainly choose 'The Living Age.'"—Rev. Henry Ward Beecher.

"The best periodical in America."—Rev. Dr. Cuyler.

"Has no equal in any country."—Phila. Press.

"Indispensable to every one who desires a thorough compendium of all that is admirable and noteworthy in the literary world."—Boston Post.
