VOL. XI.

CHARLOTTE N. C. SUNDAY FEBRUARY 1, 1874.

No 1,527

LOCAL AFFAIRS:

JOHN P. CALDWELL, Local Editor.

Cotton Market.

SATURDAY, January 31, 1874 6@10
11@12
12@13
13@14
14@15
Market quiet and unchanged.
Sales to-day were rather light.
N. Y. Market. Spots closed dull. Quotations unchanged. Low mid 15.

Churches To-day.

BAPTIST CHURCH.—Rev. John A. Broadus, D. D., will preach in the Baptist Church to-day.
TRINITY STREET M. E. CHURCH.—Services this morning at 11 o'clock a. m. by Rev.
L. L. Hendren, and communion service.
At 7 p. m. by Rev. P. J. Carraway. Pastor.
SECOND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—Rev.
H. T. Sloan will preach to the congregation of the Second Presbyterian Church this evening at 7 o'clock.
ASSOCIATE REFORMED SERVICES.—Preaching at MILLER'S HALL to-day at 11 o'clock A. M., and at 3 P. M., by Rev. H. T. Sloan.

LOCAL DOGS.

There were no cases in the Mayor's Court yesterday.
Go to church to-day and ask forgiveness for the sins of the past week.
The Board of County Commissioners meet at the Court House to-morrow.
January went to yesterday. What about those good resolutions formed the day it came in?
John Watson, of the Rock Hill Grange, the South Carolina home-polisher, "arrive" in the city last evening.
The "Farmers Savings Bank of Mecklenburg Co.," has opened its books, and is now ready for the transaction of business.
The police called yesterday a "throwed in" that is to say a day devoid of any occurrence which they could take cognizance of.
Rev. L. L. Hendren will address the Sunday School of the Tryon Street Methodist Church at 3 o'clock this afternoon.—
The public are invited.
Katie Putnam and her troupe are playing Dickens' "Old Curiosity Shop" in Charlotte. Oh! that the little witch would come this way.
The Raleigh Examiner of Friday says:
Col J. Y. Bryce, Miss Julia Bryce and Miss Annie Jones, all of Charlotte, are at the Yarborough.
The Troupe Dramatic Corps of Charlotte will play Tea Nights in a Bar Room at Miller's Hall on Tuesday night next.
We believe Mr Arthur Butt is directing the affair.

Married.

By Rev P. J. Carraway, on January 28th, Mr. George Stewart and Miss Annie M. Rigler.

Change of Schedule.

On and after to-morrow (Feb. 2nd) the mail train on the Western Division of the Carolina Central Railway will leave Charlotte at 8 o'clock A. M. and return, arrive at 4:10 P. M. This is not a very material change on the former schedule.

Appeals From Mecklenburg.

The Raleigh News says that since the opening of the Supreme Court twenty-five additional appeals have been sent from Mecklenburg county, being the largest number on docket from any other one, or even five counties.

February.

The second month of 1874 commences to-day. The days of the week will be equally divided through the four weeks constituting the month, that is to say four Sundays, four Mondays, etc. Remembering this it will be easy to fix the date of any day of the month.

Cotton.

During January 3,226 bales of cotton were sold in Charlotte. When we say that in any one week of the pas month more cotton has been sold in Charlotte than there was during the whole of January 1873, it will be seen how rapidly our city is improving in its business.

Public Reading.

Prof J. Prescott Eldridge, the recitationist, will read at Miller's Hall on next Wednesday night. His readings and recitations have met with great favor in many of the large cities of the Union, and we hope our citizens will greet him with a full house on the occasion of his appearance here Wednesday evening.

Blandy Engine.

Our friend W C Morgan, agent for the Blandy engine, sold 22 engines in 7 months of last year. He has contracts now for putting up engines at Gastonia, Rock Hill, Newberry, and other points. The highest praise we could bestow upon the Blandy engine is to say that Morgan would not "drum" for an inferior concern.

Personal.

His Excellency, Gov. Caldwell, arrived in this city yesterday morning, and is the guest of his son-in-law, Walter Bream, Esq. The Governor took a drive around the city yesterday afternoon.
His Excellency will leave for Raleigh tomorrow morning.
J. D. Uzzell, Esq. of the Raleigh News, favored us with a call yesterday. He has been at the Hot Springs, Arkansas, for some time, and we are glad to hear from him that his health is much improved.

Kicked by a Horse.

A countryman, whose name we were unable to learn, was kicked by a vicious horse, on College street, in this city, on yesterday. The injuries which he received were on the left hip, and though they were not serious were quite painful.

Charlotte as Seen Abroad.

The Air-Line Railroad has brought a new and extensive trade to the City of Charlotte. Many merchants of Union, Spartanburg and York counties, S. C., are purchasing their goods in Charlotte, and selling their cotton at that point. It is certainly a thriving place.—Lincoln Progress.

Compliment to a North Carolinian.

We learn that Rev. A. M. Shipp, D. D., of Wofford College, S. C., has been elected to a professorship of Vanderbilt University of the Southern Methodist Church, at Nashville, Tenn. Dr. Shipp was born in Lincoln county, North Carolina, and graduated at Chapel Hill University, where he served as Professor about ten years.

Deeds and Mortgages.

During the month which ended yesterday, 90 deeds and mortgages were registered in the office of the Register of Deeds of Mecklenburg county. This is 15 more than were registered for the same month last year. It is no good sign that so much land is changing hands, and that our people are morgaging their property to so great an extent.

Gardening.

House-keepers are now preparing their gardens and planting seed, such as potatoes, onions, &c. This is splendid weather for gardening purposes, and the ground is in excellent condition. Wisdom suggests that hay be made while the sun shines, and that gardens be made while everything is favorable. (The present is also a good time to plant advertisements in the OBSERVER.)

Large Lemons.

Mr. R. G. Clark, who is travelling for the house of Theo. Wilson & Co., Philadelphia, was in Charlotte yesterday. He has recently been in the South, and showed us two lemons he had purchased in Florida. Said lemons are simply immense. One of them weighs one pound in ounces, and the other one pound and a quarter. They are a little ahead of any lemons we have ever seen.

University Trustees.

By authority of one of the constitutional amendments adopted last August, the Senate and House on Thursday went into an election for Trustees of the University of North Carolina, located at Chapel Hill. We see from the Examiner that the names of the following gentlemen were proposed by Col Bennet, of Anson, as trustees from the Sixth Congressional District, and that they were unanimously chosen: Z B Vance, of Mecklenburg.
S H Wakeup, of Union.
James C Marshall, of Richmond.
Walter L Steele, of Anson.
Archibald Purcell, of Robeson.
John F Hoke, of Lincoln.
Paul B Means, of Cabarrus.
W J Ewing, of Montgomery.

Marriage Licenses.

Marrying and giving in marriage has opened briskly with the new year. During the month of January 31 marriage licenses were issued by the Register of Deeds of Mecklenburg county; 14 of the newly married couples are white and 17 colored. The following are the parties to whom licenses were granted: WHITE.
E A A Garrison, Anna Mary Oehler, Wm W Wingate, Mollie Campbell, Wm E Glenn, Sarah J Shaffer, James Bailey, Bettie Richardson, C P Helms, Margaret J Newell, Thos L Warham, Bernice M Potts, Jas B Rankin, Martha M Johnston, James Gribble, Elizabeth C Rankin, William Cathey, Harriet B Alexander, Michael McCoy, Mary Hinkle, Isaac W Fulham, Martha A Stewart, Henry A Cathey, L A Neal, John W Atwood, Mary A Bigham, George Stewart, Annie M Rigler.
COLORED.

Dr. Wistar's Wild Cherry Balsam.

This Balsamic compound has become a home fixture. Let all who suffer, and have in vain attempted to cure their coughs, colds, bronchial or pulmonary complaints, make use of this unequalled remedy. It can be relied upon, the mass of testimony that has been published since its introduction, being ample proof of its efficacy.

A branch of promise has been declared at Fort Wayne. Only one letter was put into the case, but that was conclusive. It was as follows:

"My heart beats only for the, my darling bunny." Valdict for the female damages not stated.

Our Dormant Energies.

Our bodies are not as vigorous nor our minds as clear as they might be. This remark is true of at least two-thirds of civilized society, and of these two-thirds probably one-half is laboring under bodily infirmities of a character likely to shorten the lives of the sufferers. This is melancholy exhibit and furnishes abundant food for reflection. Can the evil be mitigated? It can. Lack of vitality is the primary cause of most of the physical and mental suffering to which we are subjected and therefore a vitalizing medicinal agent is the remedy required. Is there such a medicine? There is. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will rouse and energize the mind and body when the life power of the system is in a comparatively dormant state.
The languid, feeble, desponding invalid is not aware of the latent energies that underlie his debility. He thinks there is no element of vigor left in his frame, when the fact is that his physical capabilities are merely asleep and only require waking up. Let him stimulate and tone his animal machinery and endow it with new motive power, through the agency of this incomparable invigorant, and he will soon feel like a new man, or rather like a man who has received a new lease of life, and the requisite health to enjoy it. Many business men suffer from chronic languor and depression caused by too close application to business. Hard students are often oppressed with melancholy from a like cause. Mechanics, and those who are affected in the same way as a result of over-labor. To all who are in this condition, from whatever cause, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will prove a signal blessing. It is a perfect panacea for physical debility and mental gloom. It strengthens the body, clears the mind, and calms the nervous system; while as a remedy for indigestion, biliousness, constipation, rheumatism, and intermittent and remittent fevers, it takes precedence of all other medicines.

Carolina Military Institute.

Devoted to the Humanities and the Industries, under the influence of Military Training
CHARLOTTE, N. C.

The advantages of this Institute, with its departments, Preparatory and Collegiate, are presented to the public. It is now in full and vigorous growth, with an increasing corps of Cadets from the Carolinas and other Southern States, affording the means of general education, and containing new and original features, and is abreast with the times in which we live. An Annual Encampment, with its practical exercises, near one of the Mineral Springs of this section, is one of the features of the Institute. It is also proposed to have scientific lectures for the benefit of the Cadets engaged in the study of Chemistry in its application to agriculture. The undersigned is ably assisted.
