LOCAL AFFAIRS: Prof J Prescott Eldridge will give the people of Charlotte an intellectual treat at Miller's Hall to-night. We hope he will have a full house.

Charlotte Gentlemen in Raleigh.—The Raleigh Examiner, of Monday, has the following personal mention of two of Charlotte's citizens: Capt. R A Springs, of Charlotte, Receiver of the Atlantic, Tennessee & Ohio Railroad, switched off at Raleigh yesterday.

N. C. Railroad.—We learn from a passenger on the train coming south yesterday morning, that the Richmond & Danville train failed to make connection, and that the telegraph poles are down in great numbers along the line.

Just So.—The local editor of the Wilmington Journal, in that paper of the 2nd inst., says: An Altiwuch den 4ten dieses monats wird ein anderer's boener Deutscher Ball in der Mozart Halle stattf. Alle Deutsche sind freundlich eingeladen.

"Ten Nights in a Bar Room."—The "Theatrical Dramatic Corps" undertook to get through with this play at Miller's Hall last evening. Each actor knew his or her part perfectly well, and talked it off like a school-boy delivering himself of his first declamation.

A LIVELY CASE. The Amours of a South Carolina Law-Maker. Monday evening M. S. Miller, Esq., arrived in Charlotte, and registered at one of our leading hotels.

In the United States Senate on Monday, a resolution was introduced by Wright, directing the Finance Committee to inquire into the expediency of abolishing the Internal Revenue office, and imposing the duties of that Bureau on the Treasury Department. Agreed to.

Bishop Cheney's trustees have stolen the march on the orthodox Episcopal claimants to his sanctuary. The church was to have been sold at auction a few days since, because of non-payment of interest on a mortgage of $25,000, held by the Chicago Presbyterian Theological Seminary.

From New York. Cuban News—Heavy Fire—A United States Minister Insulted. NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—The Cubans in this city have received, by mail, particulars of the capture and execution of Col. Mautaner, a Spanish commander. The Colonel was with six hundred men, conveying a train which was attacked and captured.

eyes until she finally consented to again return to his bed and board. The wayward daisies has despised all his entreaties; she has mocked at his sickness and sighing for her.

WISSBORO, S. C., Jan. 28th, 1873. My DEAR DARLING CARRIE: I was very badly disappointed in not receiving a letter from you this morning.

Dr Wistar's Wild Cherry Balsam.—This Balsamic compound has become a home fixture. Let all who suffer, and have in vain attempted to cure their coughs, colds, bronchial or pulmonary complaints, make use of this unequalled remedy.

Our Dormant Energies. Our bodies are not as vigorous nor our minds as clear as they might be. This remark is true of at least two-thirds of civilized society.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Janania and the Isthmus continue in a state of tranquility. The Kansas Legislature is balloting for a United States Senator.

It has been ascertained that in addition to the $500,000 of bonds, Alexander D. Hamilton, the ascending City Treasurer of Jersey City, has also stolen thirty-three thousand dollars in cash belonging to the tax account.

Upon arrival there, Mike Healy (for he was the officer) found that Miller was there. That dignitary proposed to stop proceedings at once, and to that end paid the cost in the case which he himself instituted; whereupon the officer was satisfied and left.

Now we have striven diligently to bring out all the facts in the case, and to us they appear to be about as follows. Miss Carrie had been taken from Charlotte to Columbia by Mr. Miller. She tried of the legislator, however, after a time, and returned to Charlotte. The law-maker seems to have been infatuated with her charms, and used every means in his power to reclaim the wandering sheep.

to the headquarters of Gen. Gamble, who at once ordered him to prepare for death, and soon afterwards he was shot. Mautaner was recognized as especially severe to Cuban prisoners. News has also been received of the shooting of Spanish soldiers captured near Puerto Principe.

Yesterday at South Jarwalk the "old well" hotel, a summer resort of Hopkins, a livery establishment including carriages and 16 horses, and the News office with most of its contents, were burned.

At Bargaota, the resident minister of the United States, Mr. Scruggs, while in the presence of the religious procession which was passing, refused to take off his hat and thus became exposed to some insulting treatment by some of the boys in the crowd, who regarded Scruggs' refusal as a deliberate insult to the religion of the people.

Dr Wistar's Wild Cherry Balsam.—This Balsamic compound has become a home fixture. Let all who suffer, and have in vain attempted to cure their coughs, colds, bronchial or pulmonary complaints, make use of this unequalled remedy.

Our bodies are not as vigorous nor our minds as clear as they might be. This remark is true of at least two-thirds of civilized society, and of these two-thirds probably one-half is laboring under bodily infirmities of a character likely to shorten the lives of the sufferers.
