LOCAL DOTS.

There is a hop on the tapis for Monday night.
Night don't come near so soon now as it used to did.
Things were unusually dull in trading circles yesterday.
Chasing hags occupied a good deal of public attention yesterday.
Fires were dispersed with yesterday; warm enough without them.
More Irish men than a few walking around with lugged-up eyes.
Building operations will open briskly with Spring, from present appearances.
The festive moth has begun its motherly labors, even before the nipping nights are over.
Mrs. L. Pressley has opened a boarding house on Church street. See advertisement.
William goats walk the streets with done to molest on make afraid. Why not kill them?
The Mani Grass excursionists were to have arrived in New Orleans yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock.
The Davenport Brothers, who were in Charlotte last fall, were to have given seances in Atlanta last night and to-night.
This is St. Valentine's Day, and post of free people will no doubt be kept busy by answering the question: "Anything for me?"
Last night was severe on pedestrians after the street lights were extinguished. The rain fell in torrents, the wind blew, and the blackness of darkness prevailed.
What may end in being a very serious case was before Mayor Davidson, yesterday, he lecturing in his magisterial capacity. The alleged offender was committed to await trial. We do not deem it wise to make a statement of the case, as it will, no doubt, come before the courts.

Sublime.—Gen. Johnston Haygood has published a pamphlet on farming, in which appears the following sentence: "A Chester white hog, mangy and sway-backed, rooting for a living in an old field pasture, is a spectacle to make angels weep!"

This is growing poetical on pigs, and recalls Henry A. Wise's paeany on the average Virginia "poor farmer," who "chases a half starved, stump-tailed steer through a ten-acre lot to get a bad beef steak for breakfast."

Picking up an Overcoat.—Mr. Wm. Smith, of Pineyville Township, was in the grocery story of Burwell, Grier & Co., yesterday, doing some trading, and laid his overcoat down. When he went to get it it was gone, and he set out to look for it. In about an hour he spied the overcoat on the shoulders of a man named Warmouth, who was arrested and taken before the Mayor. His Honor fined him the cost in the case, and held him in his own recognizance to appear at the next term of the Superior Court.

Runaways.—Two runaways occurred yesterday near the Air-Line Depot. The first one was that of two mules which became frightened at the train, and dashed off. Their driver, a Mr. Williamson, was thrown out, but he did not learn the extent of his injuries if, indeed, he received any. The mules ran on until they had made a perfect wreck of the buggy.

The second runaway occurred in the same way. A horse, hitched to a wagon, was frightened by the blowing of the engine, and ran off. We did not hear what damage was done in this instance.

What with the everlasting whistling of engines and running of trains along the track at the foot of North Trade street, it is a matter of wonder that more runaways do not occur in that end of the city than do.

A Queer Case.—A countryman named Bradford was in town yesterday, slightly under the influence of liquor. He and another countryman were sitting on the window-sill of the store of Mr. Berryhill, on Tyon street, when Bradford, in some way or other, broke out a pane of glass.—Mr. Berryhill, very naturally wanted pay for the glass, and Bradford went to Marshal Erwin and induced him to have the other man arrested and taken before the Mayor. Of course the case went against B., and the Mayor told him if he would pay for the glass and pay the cost in the case ($35 in all) he might go. This he declined to do, and announced his intention to appeal. The Marshal told him very well, to file a bond with the Mayor for that purpose, but told him at the same time that that would in no wise release him from paying the cost in the case, which was $25. The last we saw of him was in charge of a policeman, looking round for some one to go on the bond. The other man was not satisfied with getting off scot-free, but thought he ought to be paid something for his attendance at the auspicious occasion. As a matter of course he didn't get paid, and, in consequence, off half mad.

All in all it was a funny case.

Union Passenger Depot.—The necessity which exists for a union passenger depot in Charlotte, is something which is self-evident. It is one of Charlotte's great needs, and something which every citizen of the place would be glad to see built. We have now five roads centering here, and the depots are scattered in three parts of the city, at long distances from each other. The Carolina Central Depot, for instance, is at least three quarters of a mile from the Air-Line, the N. C., and the C. & A. R. R. Depots, while the two latter are half a mile distant from the Air-Line. This is very inconvenient to travellers who land at Charlotte on one train to take another. In addition to the inconvenience of going so far from one train to another, the accommodations for ladies at every one of the depots, are notoriously deficient, and if the train, on which they propose leaving is not standing at the depot when they arrive, or if to be there ready, and the coaches locked up, they are subjected to the cold of winter or the heat of summer, with no protection from its violence.

When it is raining, this, of course, makes the matter worse. First impressions are lasting, and strangers are apt to form their opinions about a place from its depots and hotels. For this reason the people of Charlotte are interested in a union depot which will do credit to the city.

Charlotte and Hickory.—The Piedmont Press notes the fact that 47 emigrants from Mecklenburg have settled in Hickory since the 1st of November last, and looks forward to the time when Hickory shall absorb Charlotte. The Press thinks the Hickory Southern, Daily and Daily Observer would sound elegantly. The Press says: "We have selected building sites in East Hickory for all the Charlotte editors."

The associate editor of the Press will please sell our site and send us the money for it. We would prefer, just now, a sight of money than a site for building, for it is more than likely it will be several centuries after Hickory has absorbed Charlotte before we will have enough money to build a house the size of a medium grocery store on the site selected for us. Who bids and how much for our site?

Save Your Doctor's Bill.—When Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry will cure coughs, colds, bleeding at the lungs, and arrest the fell destroyer, consumption, it does more than most physicians can do. The use of a single bottle, costing one dollar, will satisfy the incredulous that they need look no further for the required aid.

A Brilliant Record of Cures.
An American humorist tells us that if he had been a money in his pocket, if he had been without a stomach, and then proceeds to figure up the cost of a chronic dyspepsia, to which he is a martyr, and which he says is impossible to cure. In this point, "Josh Billings" (for he is the party referred to) is mistaken. Unless his stomach differs from all other dyspeptic stomachs, Hostetter's Bitters will cure him in less than three months. This it would be safe to guarantee under any penalty. There are a few very few, actual specifics for disease in existence, and Hostetter's Stomach Bitters may be set down as one of them. In cases of indigestion it never fails. Persons who had suffered for many years almost every conceivable species of torture from this agonizing complaint, have been permanently cured with the Bitters in six weeks. Hundreds of such instances are on record, authenticated by the testimony of prominent men in every walk of life, eminent physicians among the number. But this celebrated vegetable preparation is something more than a stomachic and is also an alternative of wonderful virtue. It is also a complaint its effect is as direct and immediate as that of calomel or blue pill, and far more salutary; and in all diseased conditions of the bowels, notably in case of constipation, its regulating properties are in the highest degree serviceable. The new settlements in the west and all hilly tracts of country infested with malarial exhalations, so fruitful at this season, of the various types of intermittents, should be always well stocked with this incomparable chologog, which will cure any case of fever and ague in a period varying from three days to three or four weeks, according to the violence of the complaint. Nervous disorders which are always aggravated by the adulterated liquors usually prescribed by physicians, are readily cured by a course of this admirable combination of herbs, in which the properties of a stimulant, a tonic and a cathartic are happily blended.

PARSON BROWNLOW ON CIVIL RIGHTS.—KNOXVILLE, TENN., February 12.—The Daily Chronicle, of this city, publishes a long letter from Senator Brownlow to-morrow on the civil rights bill. He decidedly opposes the mixed school feature of the bill, and says it would destroy the free schools in the South. He advises the colored people to tell Congress that they do not want mixed schools. He also favors the issue of more currency.
