During the argument of this case the Court, adjourned to meet again on yesterday.

Protoging Against the Tux .- Some time ago the people of Steel Creek Township held an election under an order of the Board of County Commissioners, on the question of a fence law for the county. A majority of the votes cast were in the favor of a fence law, and the tax to build the fence has been levied. Quite a number of the citizens of the township hold that the election was illegal, and say they will not pay the tax until forced to do so by law. A petition is being circulated for signature, asking that the election be annulled, and it is possible that it may lead to I tigation: The County Commissioners have declared the election legal, and, we suppose, the imperior Court the proper tribunal to take action on the matter.

Gov. Vance on the "scattered Peaple."-We suggest to the many worthy Hebrew citizens of Petersburg, that the in- Boston, New York, Philadelvite Gov. Zebulon B Vance, the distinguished and eloquent orator of North Carolina, to deliver here his lecture on the "Scattered People." Its delivery in Paltimere was attended by a large audience of the formost people of the city; and was highly praised by most competent critics. Such a performance would have special nument, of course, for the descendants and numbers of the race of which the Governor speaks; but for all classes of intelligent hearers as well, it would be vested with attraction, entertainment and instruction. Let the Governor be solicited to deliver his lecture here. The occasion, we feel certain, would prove a great suc-
