Churches To-Day

TRAYON STREET M. E. CHURCH.—Services to-day at 11 o'clock, by the pastor, Rev. P. J. Caraway, at 7 1/2 P. M. by Rev. E. L. King of South Carolina.
SECOND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—Services at the Court House to-day at 11 a. m. and at 4 p. m., by Rev. W. S. Plumer, D. D. Communion after the morning service.

Today is Easter Sunday, and is celebrated as the anniversary of the rising from the tomb of the Saviour of the world. The services in the Catholic Church will be highly grand and impressive to-day.

The oldest inhabitants think the peach crop was not materially injured by the heavy frost of Tuesday night. If this be true they are not likely to be hurt this season and a large crop may be expected.

The Street in front of the Mecklenburg House, is filled with rubbish, caused by the tearing down of the front of the house. A new front will be built, corresponding with the old one.

Notary Public.—The Raleigh News says: "Gov. Caldwell has appointed Chas. N. Vance, Esq., a son of Hon. Z. C. Vance a notary public at Charlotte. Mr. Vance is teller of the new Commercial Bank of that city."

Kind Words.—We have been in regular receipt of this daily paper, for a short time. It is very ably conducted, new and spicy, and afforded at the low price of Six Dollars a year. Johnstone Jones, Esq., Editor, The Weekly Observer is also a first class paper, published at the same office.—Salem Press.

Cotton.—Sales this week fell more than 400 bales below those of last week, there being 1,000 this week against 1,426 last. Prices, however, have advanced a little this week, and yesterday evening the market closed firm at 15 to 15 1/2 for low middling. There is a prospect that prices will keep well up for some time.

Dry.—In accordance with an act of Assembly, the people of Shelby, we learn privately, voted on Thursday, the 2nd inst., on the question of "liber" or "no liquor." The "no liquor" ticket carried largely, and hence, no more licenses to sell ardent spirits can be issued.

Personal.—Prof. L. Von Meyerhoff, formerly Professor of music in the Charlotte Institute for Young Ladies, arrived in this city yesterday morning.

Volcanic Whiskey.—Fink has what he claims to be the last run of whiskey made in Bald Mountain. He says that just after making this run, the mountain growled and so frightened the distiller that he destroyed his still and professed religion. This whiskey being on sale in Charlotte, accounts for the way they put the invitation now: "Let's volcanize."

Joseph D. Elliott.—This young man, who recently slew Chas. T. Neal at the St. Charles Hotel, in Statesville is still imprisoned in the Statesville Jail. His health and spirits are both excellent, and he has no fears for the final result of his trial. The case will be called at the next term of Trevel Court which convenes on the last Monday in May. Elliott was visited last week by Rev. Father Hands, of the Roman Catholic Church of Charlotte.

Going to Court.—This morning three of the five United States prisoners, now confined in jail in this city, will be taken to Greensboro to answer in the United States District Court which meets there this week, the charge of dealing in counterfeit money. William Bryant of this city, is one of the men who go to Greensboro to-day. The remaining two (for there are five of them confined here on the same charge) stand their trials at Asheville, where the Federal Court meets the last of this or the first of next month.

Not True.—A rumor has been in circulation in this city for several days, to the effect that Miss Jennie Taylor, a young lady well known in this city, a daughter of A. A. N. M. Taylor, Esq., of Greenville, S. C., was run over by a train on the Air Line Railroad and killed. We are glad to pronounce this story false in toto, all without foundation. It was, perhaps, intended for an "April fool." It was a very cruel hoax, if so, and caused much pain among the many friends of the young lady in this city.

Good Friday.—Good Friday, the day of the crucifixion, was solemnly observed in the Catholic, Episcopal and Lutheran Churches of this city. In the former there was no mass (the only day in the year in which there is not), but what is called the mass of the presanctified. The host is consecrated on the preceding day. The priests and attendants are robed in black, the kiss of peace is omitted in detestation of the sin of Judas.

Good Friday is a day now in England and Catholic countries, and in New York, we believe, and no business is transacted.

Disparatory.—Notwithstanding the suspension of the Observer for two or three days in order to straighten out things, this office is yet in a semi-chaotic state, and the work on this paper has been done amid all manner of noises. The whole establishment, though, will soon be in a ship-shape, and after that time the public can better judge than now what manner of paper the new administration propose to furnish.

More Immigrants.—A party of about fifteen immigrants, consigned to Messrs. Graham & Nash, of this city, left New York City last evening, and will arrive here, perhaps, on Tuesday next. These men are getting up a considerable amount of enthusiasm among the farmers, who thus far in their endeavors to inquire foreigners to locate among us and settle on our lands, has been very considerable.

Never Idle.—These insurance agents are never idle. A few days ago a gentleman of this city received calls from two of them, and leading them to a rear room in his office seated them and then himself walked out, locking the door behind him. When he returned late in the evening they were still in there, all by themselves, each had hold of the lapel of the other coat, and they were preaching to each other the advantages of the ten-year life and the non-feeble plan—each trying to insure the life of the other. Shipping an insurance agent and putting him on a desert isle of the sea, and he will insure somebody's life in less than half a day.

Fair of the Carolinas.—The Board of Directors of the Fair of the Carolinas, met yesterday at the Bank of Mecklenburg. It was decided that, in view of the heavy indebtedness of the association, the trustees, Thos W Dewey, Esq., make advertisement for thirty days offering the grounds, buildings, &c., for sale at the expiration of that time.

The Directors have exerted themselves to the utmost to keep the Fair in operation, and that it is now found necessary to sell the grounds is no fault of theirs. It is a thing which will be missed in Charlotte, bringing as it did a large number of visitors, and a large amount of business and money to the city. We hope the Grangers will take hold of the Fair and see if they cannot make a success of it.

Arrest of a Deserter.—Yesterday morning policeman Blackwelder observed a strange man, whom he took to be a deserter from the United States Army, wandering about the streets, and took him under arrest. The policeman charged him with being a deserter and the man finally acknowledged that he was. He gave his name as John Harrington, and said that he belonged to Col Black's regiment, the 18th Infantry, which is stationed at Columbia. Officer Blackwelder telegraphed Capt Lloyd, to whose company this deserter belongs, asking if he would have him detained. He received a reply telling him to send the man back and promising to pay a certain sum for his safe delivery in Columbia. In accordance with this the deserter will be sent back to Columbia to give account to his superiors in rank for his conduct in deserting.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.—Quite a large temperance meeting was held yesterday at Steel Creek Church, in this county. The meeting was addressed by three young gentlemen from Charlotte—Messrs. F. Brevard McDowell, Geo. E. Wilson, and Capt. R. A. Spowell, of the Southern Home. All of the speeches were well received and quite a number of additions were made to the lodge. An excellent dinner was spread, and everything passed off in the most enjoyable manner. The speakers were introduced to the assemblage by Maj. S. Watson Reid.

We are glad to learn that this lodge is in a flourishing condition, and numbers among its members some of the best and most influential men of the neighborhood. We are always glad to hear of the success of the temperance cause, and believe that its success would be greater than it is, were not so many of its leaders brainless fanatics, who think that they only are the elect, and that men who do not belong to a temperance lodge have no rights which they are bound to respect.—Such fellows as these will do more harm than good to any cause, they espouse.

[COMMUNICATED.]
The People's Candidate for Mayor.
The name of Gen'l John A. Young is presented for the office of Mayor of the city for the ensuing term.

Announcement.
Mr. Editor: At the earnest solicitation of a large number of our citizens, I offer myself as a candidate for re-election to the office of Mayor at the approaching election in May.

I have endeavored during the past year to discharge the duties of my office so as to promote the general peace and prosperity of our city, and if elected again, will devote my whole time to the office, as heretofore, and will do equal justice to every person, without favor or partiality.

W. F. DAVIDSON, Mayor.

Although Father Hearby prays for peace, it is not to be expected that he will be able to do much for it. He is a good man, but he is not a politician. He is a man of God, and he is a man of peace. He is a man who is not afraid to stand up for the truth, and he is a man who is not afraid to stand up for the poor. He is a man who is not afraid to stand up for the weak, and he is a man who is not afraid to stand up for the oppressed.

Dark clouds are gathering over the South. The people are in a state of great anxiety. The Government is in a state of great difficulty. The people are in a state of great distress. The Government is in a state of great embarrassment. The people are in a state of great despair.

Renew my faith, O Father, in Thy healing power. Bid sin's alluring charms depart. Forbid despair, blind passion's check. Now is the time to get thee straight. To wisdom's law my thoughts direct. In faith as deep, as week and midnight. Safe lead me, through these "Border Lands," By tranquil streams, beneath cooling palms, O, let me feel Thy healing power. O, Holy Father deign to bless! Me wandering through the world's unrest. Lest dire remorse my pulses chill: Mould me to Thy benignant will.

THE GUANAHANI GUANO
UNADULTERATED AND GENUINE.
THIS IS A GENUINE GUANO WHICH IS TAKEN FROM THE Guanahani Island, (one of the Bahama Group) and bids fair to become one of the most popular fertilizers offered for sale. It is put up in sacks in the same condition as when taken from the caves, and no manipulation or grinding is required.
It is recommended by Prof. F. B. WILSON, of Baltimore, who is regarded as one of the best analytical chemists in the country.
Our State Geologist, Prof. W. C. KERR, also recommends it as entitled to a place among the standard fertilizers of the country. The analysis shows it to be richer in plant food than the great majority of fertilizers, which in connection with the moderate price at which it is sold, are strong inducements for every farmer to use it.
Full supplies now on hand and for sale by BURROUGHS & SPRINGS, General Agents.
