LOCAL DOTS.

Again yesterday there were no cases in the Mayor's Court.

The Board of County Commissioners meets at the Court House again to-day.

A good many of our citizens are absent from the city, attending Federal Court at Greensboro, and Superior Court at Monroe.

Yesterday was the dullest day Charlotte has known in a long while. There was next to no business in town, and tradespeople whittled sticks and looked pitiful.

Those who take part in the Memorial entertainment on Friday night are rehearsing regularly now. A rehearsal was held at Miller's Hall last evening.

Stenhouse, Macaulay & Co., have in store a lot of the most beautiful flour ever seen. It is not often that such is found in this market. Housekeepers should examine it.

Messrs. John A. Young & Son greet the public this morning with a new advertisement. They have a large and elegant stock of goods on hand. Go and examine their stock.

Sixteen men, all from Caldwell county, passed through this city yesterday to go to work on the Carolina Central Railway. Twelve of the party were white men and four colored.

A well known contractor of this city tells us that there will be more building done in Charlotte this Spring and Summer, than during any building season since the war.

A pair of silver cased spectacles, almost new, have been found on the street, and left at this office. The owner can get them by calling at this office and paying the dues.

The very latest styles of silk, fur and beaver hats; also the latest novelties in scarfs, scarf-rings, bows and ties, have just been received at 1-1t E. Shrier's Temple of Fashion.

TO THE LADIES.—The latest novelties in boys' sailor's suits, also boys' and youth's dress suits, have this day been received, at E. Shrier's Temple of Fashion. The ladies are especially invited to call and examine them.

Letters Held for Postage.—Letters are held for postage in the post office of this city, addressed as follows: L. W. Harris, Harrisburg, N. C.; J. P. Sweney, Georgia; M. Sweegan, Charleston, S. C.; Q. L. Broadway, Augusta, Ga.; A. K. Walker, Wilmington, N. C.; Thos. Branch & Co, Richmond, Va.

Spring Chickens.—Hens which have been sitting for weeks on a dozen or fifteen eggs, are now "coming off" with one chicken. Hence, many sitting room hearths are encumbered with baskets, over which are neatly spread pieces of old bags, said bags covering the aforesaid chicken with which that degenerated hen "came off."

Committee of Immigration.—The Committee of the Board of Immigration meet in Raleigh to-day, to take further steps to induce immigration. Appeals will be made to the different railroad companies running into the State, to reduce their rates as to immigrants to the end that they may have an additional inducement to come to North Carolina. Col. Wm. Johnston, of this city, a member of the committee, left last evening for Raleigh.

No Luck.—None of the people of Charlotte who had tickets in the Louisville Lottery, drew any great big fortune. So far from it, no one, as far as we can learn, realized five cents on his investment; and yet we are told by one of the ticket-holders, who had good reason to know, that not less than $5,000 was put in tickets in this Lottery by gentlemen in Charlotte.

Marriage.—Mr. John W. Sample, of the boot and shoe firm of Sample & Alexander, of this city, was married yesterday at the residence of the bride's father, in Hopewell Township, to Miss Ida, daughter of Rev. J. C. Williams. The marriage ceremonies were performed by Rev. G. D. Parks. The newly married couple arrived in this city yesterday evening.

Carolina Military Institute.—A new flag has been obtained for the Institute, and on Monday evening, it was, for the first time, given to the breezes. It is a large and beautiful affair, and adds immeasurably to the appearance of the Institute. On it is the sign of the pen and the sword, and the words, "Carolina Military Institute," together with the date of the establishment of the Institute under Col. Thomas. In addition to this, a handsome weather vane, indicating the points of the compass, has been placed on the top of the Institute.

In this connection, we may mention that Rev. R. H. Griffith, of this city, has taken a Professorship in this Institute, and now has charge of the department of the classics.

Run Off.—Yesterday afternoon the mail train on the Atlantic, Tennessee and Ohio Railroad, going to Statesville, ran off the track before getting outside the corporate limits of Charlotte. The run off took place near the Air-Line Railroad engine house, at the "frog" where the two railroads meet. Owing to the defective condition of this "frog," which had been worn away by the flanges on the cars' wheels, the engine when crossing here jumped the Statesville track and ran up on that of the Air-Line road. A part of the train was thrown upon the ties, and was with difficulty replaced upon its proper track. No damage was done but the mishap occasioned a delay of two hours and a half.

Burglars Enticed.—Yesterday morning the kitchen of the Capt. Rufus Jones, who lives on College Street between Fifth and Sixth, was entered by a thief who stole from it all of the provisions contained therein. In addition to the bread, meat, &c., the thief took a quantity of flour and a small sum of money, $1 or $2, from the dress pocket of the cook who was asleep in the room. The room was entered by raising one of the windows, and when the burglar left he left the windows and doors all open. A candle which had been left on the table unlighted when the cook went to bed, and which was then about half its original length, was found yesterday morning burned deep down in the socket, and on the floor was found the stump of a cigar. This would seem to indicate that the thief had lighted the candle, the better to enable him to find what he wanted, and had proceeded to enjoy a smoke while gathering together his spoils. Strange to say the cook heard none of the noise, and was not aware that the house had been entered until after daylight.

These burglaries which have been perpetrated in Charlotte recently are of an anomalous character. The fact that the burglars seem to have no other object than to get something to eat, leads one to conclude that they are hungry negroes or low whites living in the city, but their usual style of entrance and the deliberation with which they proceed, would seem to warrant the belief that they are experienced hands at the business. If they are amateurs they certainly bid very fair to become accomplished in that particular line; if they are professionals it seems strange that they rarely take money, jewelry or silver, but only something to eat.

No Name.
 Many, many people suffer from they know not what. They are not sick—they are not well. There is no name for it. It is simply weakness—a breaking down of the vital forces. Whatever its causes (and they are innumerable), its symptoms are in the main the same. Among the most prominent are extreme lassitude, loss of appetite, loss of flesh, and great mental depression. Indigestion and a stomach cough are also frequently concomitants of this distressing state of body and of mind. The common remark in relation to persons in such a condition is, that they are consumptive. Now, what these unfortunate really want is vigor, vital strength; and as certainly as dawn succeeds darkness they can recuperate their systems and regain perfect health by resorting to Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters. It is as clear that a life-reviving tonic is required in such cases, as that the dying flame of an empty lamp requires to be revived by a new supply of oil. Perfectly pure and innocuous, containing nothing but the most genial vegetable extracts, and combining the three grand elements of a stomachic, an alterative, and a genial invigorant. Hostetter's Bitters are suitable to all constitutions, and are as applicable to the diseases and disabilities of the feeble sex as to those of men. No words can do justice to its marvelous properties. It stands pre-eminent among the health restoring preparations of the age, and every year adds to its fame, not only in this country, but throughout the civilized world.
 From April 21 to 24th.

THE GUANAHANI GUANO

UNADULTERATED AND GENUINE.

THIS IS A GENUINE GUANO WHICH IS TAKEN FROM THE Guanahani Island (one of the Bahama Group) and bids fair to become one of the most popular fertilizers offered for sale. It is put up in sacks in the same condition as when taken from the caves, and no manipulation or grinding is required.

It is recommended by Prof. P. B. WILSON, of Baltimore, who is regarded as one of the best analytical chemists in the country.

Our State Geologist,
Prof. W. C. KERR,
 also, recommends it as entitled to a place among the standard fertilizers of the country. The analysis shows it to be richer in plant food than the great majority of fertilizers, which in connection with the moderate price at which it is sold, are strong inducements for every farmer to use it.
