LOCAL DOTS.

There is a "plentiful lack" these last few days of anything out of which local can be manufactured.

Subscribers failing to receive their papers will confer a favor by notifying us of the fact at once.

The County Commissioners met yesterday The proceedings are crowded out this morning, but will appear to-morrow.

Col Davidson reports that the Grange interest is constantly on the increase, and he is organizing new granges every week. It takes a clear headed man to know the hours of the arrival and departure of the trains on all the different railroads running into this place.

The weather yesterday was as coquettish as as any girl, and like a girl shed upon us her smiles and her tears. Rain and sunshine alternated each other and at late hours of the nightthe rain fell very heavily.

New Store House.-Dr. T. J. Moore is now making preparation to build a store on Trade street, between the stores of Sample & Alexander and Wittkowsky & Rintels. The new building will be quite large, and will be an ornament to the locality where it is to be erected.

Old Tombstones .- In digging the excavation for the new store of D. Parks Hutchinson, Esq., on Tryon street, the workmen day or two ago found two tombstones embedded deep in the earth. They were of the old fashioned soapstone kind, and had no The inhabitants are still in a pious frame of marks or inscription upon them. They give evidence of being very old, but how old no · man knoweth.

Scroll Work .- A specimen of the scroll work done at the planing mill of F. W. Wing, of Columbia, was on exhibition yesterday at the Central Hotel. The work is handsomely executed, and attracted considerable attention. C. F. Harrison, Esq., is the agent in this city for this planing mill.

Death of an Old Negro,-A negro man named Cæsar Williams, died in this city Sunday morning, at the age of 112 years .-He was formerly a slave of H. B. Williams, Esq., of this place. The wife of "Uncle Cæsar," as he was commonly known, died a short time before last Christmas, at the age of 104 years. We suppose that both of them died from the excessive use of tobacco.

This store will be three stories high, and perhaps the most elegant building of its kind in the State. It will hardly cost less than $20,000.

Gen Johnston's Book,-The narrative of 182, J W Houp, W L Dunlap, J C Turner, military operations during the late war, written by Gen. Joseph E Johnston, has been issued from the press. It is a fair and graphic statement of the operations of the Confederate troops in the bloody and neverto-be-forgotten contest, and will go far to establish the truth of history. Head Found .- Yesterday when the laborers were working on the excavation for the store to be built by Dr Moore, on Trade st., one of them came across the skull of a man,

hid beneath the chimney of a small wooden house which they were moving out of the way. The top of the skull was missing, but the face had been preserved intact. The front teeth were missing, but the jaw teeth
