LOCAL DOTS.

There are candidates and rumors of candidates.

Sale at the late residence of P. M. Brown, deceased, to-day. See advertisement.

The brightest, neatest-looking weekly paper in North Carolina is the Lincoln Progress.

Correspondents, to insure the publication of their communications, must not write on both sides of the papers.

The moon was "lying on its back" last night. This promises fair weather. So the farmers say.

Wheat, oats, clover and indeed every growing thing, is in a flourishing state and looking green and beautiful.

The Board of Aldermen last night held their last regular meeting for the present term of service. We will give the proceedings hereafter.

There was much time lost yesterday in running up and down and across the streets after hats which had been blown off by the troublesome winds.

A number of our citizens, among whom was Governor Vance, left yesterday afternoon for Statesville, where Federal Court is in session this week.

Weather.—Yesterday was a real April day—composed of alternate smiles and tears—sunshine and shower. Old Boreas came to the front, too, and it seemed as if March was trying to elbow April out of her shoes.

Suppression of Illicit Distilleries.—On Saturday last revenue officer T D McAlpine seized three illicit distilleries in Gaston county. One of these distilleries seemed to have been running all the time since the war without interruption. Great and successful is McAlpine among the whiskey smellers.

The Rains.—The recent heavy rains have swollen the streams in this section to a very considerable extent, and damage has no doubt been done the farmers in the washing away of fences, &c. They have been set back a good deal, too, in their farming operations.

Absorbed.—At the meeting in Lincolnton last week of the District Council Friends of Temperance, the Committee on the condition of Councils reported that Charlotte Council, No 125, F. of T., had very probably been absorbed by the Good Templars. If we mistake not the lodge of Friends of Temperance in this city has disbanded entirely,—and more's the pity.

Memorial Exercises.—The ladies of the Memorial Association of Charlotte, and others, will celebrate the 10th of May as is their custom, by placing flowers upon the graves of the Confederates buried in the cemetery here. It is understood that there will be no oration delivered this year, but the simple memorial services will be read, and the wreaths of flowers and evergreens placed upon the graves.

Tax Collection.—Uncle Samuel demands a special tax from those who deal in tobacco or "spirits."

Dr Mott the collector of this district, as will be seen in another column, will be in in Charlotte on the 4th, 5th and 6th of May, to attend to the collection of the same and may be found at the law office of F B McDowell, Esq., at the Court House, for those three days. See the advertisement and govern yourself accordingly.

The Iris Social Club.—This society will convene this evening at the residence of A. B. Davidson Esq. The entertainment for the evening will be a "Literary Mosaic," to which each member is expected to contribute and no one to occupy the floor over five minutes.

Personal.—A B Wrenn, Esq., of Atlanta agent of the Western and Atlantic Railroad, arrived in Charlotte last evening and stopped at the Central Hotel.

Thos B Keogh, of Greensboro, arrived in Charlotte yesterday.

Capt Plato Durham, of Shelby passed through this city yesterday afternoon on his way northward.

Col L D Childs, of Columbia, was at the Central Hotel yesterday afternoon, and passed down the C. C. & A. R. R. on his way home.

Immigrants.—A party of six immigrants arrived in Charlotte on Sunday morning consigned to Messrs Graham & Nash. These last received are all Americans and Englishmen. Fivothers are on the way and are expected to reach Charlotte to-day. All those yet arrived are stout, healthy looking fellows, and appear to have any quantity of work in them.

It is due Messrs. Graham & Nash to say that the men who were disorderly on the streets yesterday afternoon, were not immigrants ordered through their agency.

Contributions of Excelsior Lodge.—The following is the monthly report of the Committee on Contributions from Excelsior Lodge, No 261, to the Oxford Orphan Asylum:

Cash, $9.25; one Sewing Machine; two pairs of shoes; two hats.

In addition Mr. Wittkowsky gives a list of other contributions, amounting to ten dollars. All of the above was turned over to Mr. Mills, the Superintendent of the Asylum.

Pension to Mrs. Thomas.—The Columbia Union-Herald says: "The House Committee on Pensions have agreed to allow Mrs. Josephine Thomas, widow of Capt Evan Thomas, 4th Artillery, a pension of $30 per month. Captain Thomas served gallantly in the late war, and was killed by the Modoc Indians in the recent disturbances in Oregon. The late Capt Thomas was well-known in this city and Charlotte, where he had been on duty shortly before his assassination."

Church Notes.—The rain poured in torrents nearly all of Sunday, and its fall was particularly heavy about the time services began in the different churches. In consequence of this the congregations were very small everywhere.

In the Episcopal Church services were conducted by Rev J A Oertel. In the First Presbyterian Church Rev. A. J. Morrison preached morning and evening.

In the Court House, where the congregation of the Second Presbyterian Church worship, Rev Mr Mickle, of Newberry, S. C., preached in the morning, and Rev Dr Plumer in the afternoon.

All the other pulpits of the city were filled by the pastors.

Death of a Well Known Lady.—The Baltimore Sun contains the following notice of the death of a charming lady and one of rare accomplishments, the daughter of one of North Carolina's most distinguished citizens:

Mrs Eliza G Graham, about 47 years of age, consort of the late George Wm Graham and daughter of the late Judge Wm Gaston, of North Carolina, died of pneumonia at her residence near the village of Upper Marlboro, Prince George's county, on Monday evening last. Mrs Graham was well and widely known for benevolence and charity, and her death will be generally lamented and especially felt by the community in which she lived. Her funeral took place at Upper Marlboro' yesterday morning at St Mary's Catholic Church, where mass was celebrated, Archbishop Bayley and others from this city being in attendance.

Camden Journal.—This paper, of last week, has the following:

"THE CHARLOTTE OBSERVER, in its issue of the 11th instant, under the head of 'South Carolina News,' says: 'There are several new cases of small-pox in Camden.' And again: 'Canvass Hunter is to be hung in Camden to-morrow, for murder.' In answer to the first statement we would say that we have not now a single case of small-pox in our town, and have had only four cases with the last twelve months. In answer to the second statement we would say that no one has been hung in this county since the war; nor is there any one in jail awaiting execution. We do not know Canvass Hunter. Will our friends do us the justice to make the necessary corrections?"

Certainly, we will, and in explanation will say that the first item we got from the local column of the Lancaster Ledger, and the second from the Columbia Phœnix, we think Hope this is satisfactory. Don't shake your gory locks at us, neighbors, for thou canst not say, after this explanation, that we made those objectionable items out of the whole cloth.

The Rural Carolinian for April.—The April number of this invaluable Magazine comes to us in good season, brimful of that class of practical and instructive reading matter which has characterized every issue from its first inception to the present time, and which has won for it a deservedly high reputation among the agriculturalists of the country. Both publishers and editor merit the warmest thanks of that large class of the industrial community of the South to whose interest and elevation it is chiefly devoted.—We hope their efforts will be liberally rewarded by an annual increase in their subscription list until the beneficial influences of its practical lessons and high-toned teachings shall be felt on the farm and at the fireside, throughout the length and breadth of the Sunny South. The terms are $2 per annum, with liberal club rates. The publishers also give the choice of two beautiful chromos to all subscribers, at prices astonishingly low. Address Walker, Evans & Cogswell, and Wm L Daggett, Publishers, Charleston, S C, who will send specimen copies free, if desired.

Incorrect.—The Camden (S C) Journal says:

"The CHARLOTTE OBSERVER, which, by the way is a very close observer of passing events comes to us enlarged in size and presenting an attractive appearance. Mr Johnstone Jones, the former editor and proprietor, has resigned his position to Messrs Jones & Pendleton. We regard the OBSERVER as one of our most valuable exchanges."

As the Journal has corrected us we will now correct it. Mr Johnstone Jones has resigned his position as proprietor of the OBSERVER, but not as editor. He still occupies the chair editorial. We thank our friends for their kind words for us.

New York South.—The contents of the North Carolina number of the New York South are interesting. It is devoted to North Carolina, exclusively. Among other things we observe an article on the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence, by Maj. Dowd; the Piedmont Air-Line, its resources and attractions for colonists, by Gen. Haupt; a cut of the Atlantic Hotel, Beaufort; and the mineral resources of North Carolina, by Prof Genth. It contains also an excellent engraving of the U. S. Branch Mint at Charlotte. The number is one which will prove of great interest to North Carolinians.

This number of the South was gotten up by Mr. W J Woodward, himself a native of North Carolina, and a gentlemen who still takes pride in the State of his nativity.

Falling over a Cow.—Sunday night, it may be remembered, was particularly dark. This being the case, a young gentleman of this city did not see a cow which was lying across the pavement when he was wending his way down street, and his first intimation that there was a cow in the path, was when he found himself elevated in the air on its back, and thrown backwards, revolving a couple of times in the air before he struck the ground. He broke his umbrella and was very much surprised on awaking to the perils of the situation, but was not hurt. Having the umbrella broken and getting his clothes muddy was the extent of the damage sustained.

This is the land of the free and the home of the brave, and of course cows have a perfect right to lay down on the pavements, in people's beds or wherever else they please.—Verily, the cows enjoy a large liberty in Charlotte.

Drunk and Disorderly.—The streets wore a lively appearance yesterday afternoon, and the spirits of "ye local" grew lively too, for awhile, as he observed a big white man hatless and coatless, with an open knife in his hand, pursuing a darkey, frightened out of his wits, down Trade street. The affair drew crowds of people upon the streets, everybody wanting to know what it was about and nobody seeming to know. It seems that a number of foreigners, engaged at the mills of P. S. Whisnant & Sons had unfortunately become drunk and were in the vacant lot in rear of the bar-rooms which face on Tryon street, between the Central Hotel and the post office, when they became involved in a difficulty with some negroes, and were proceeding to go for them in the most approved style when the negroes ran. The foreigner who chased his man through the streets was the only one arrested, and he was lodged in the calaboose until he could sober up. He is a Frenchman and was very drunk.

We learn that the foreigners were all together talking their own language, when the negroes being amused at the odd sounds they make, began laughing at them, and this make the foreigners mad.

Newspapertorial.

MESSRS. JONES & PENDLETON:—Your issue of Sunday morning undoubtedly shows signs of the prosperity of the City of Charlotte; and you are laboring for its good with a zeal and energy, which, to say the least, is praiseworthy. As your paper is the only daily west of Raleigh, it deserves, and should receive, the undivided support of the business portion of the people of Western North Carolina, for you are laboring for their welfare and prosperity, and unless a first-class daily is well-patronized in this section, the interests of every one is jeopardized by its downfall. I do not have the least fear that you will not succeed, for I have seen enough of energy and perseverance in your former enterprise, to [illegible] that you know no such word as fail. (This is no gammon, but it is what I verily believe.) It requires a good deal of labor and experience to run a first-class daily, and the outside world, unconnected with newspaper life, know very little about the expenses of a printing office—they would be astonished if they were told it took as much to successfully run a good printing office, as it does to run a good cotton factory.

Charlotte is the most important point in the West, with five railroads running into it, and a prospect for more. It is the most prominent cotton market in the State; and the liberal manner in which its business men make known its advantages, by advertising, proves conclusively that this is now, or will soon be, the Queen City of the State.

We have three first-class weekly papers in the city, viz: WEEKLY OBSERVER, Southern Home and Charlotte Democrat, which are ahead, I believe, of any other publications in the State, in point of ability, appearance, and, I believe, I can say in subscription lists, and Charlotte is proud of them. And now, gentlemen, labor on, as you have commenced, and you will, at no distant day, build up the leading daily paper in North Carolina. I am an admirer of good, spicy and ably edited papers, hence this little tribute.

Yours respectfully,

M. QUAD.

The Star says that a report reached Wilmington on Thursday that a rape was committed in Union Township a night or two since on the person of a respectable white married lady, the perpetrator of the outrage being a white man.

THE GUANAHANI GUANO

UNADULTERATED AND GENUINE!

THIS IS A GENUINE GUANO WHICH IS TAKEN FROM THE Guanahani Island (one of the Bahama Group) and bids fair to become one of the most popular fertilizers offered for sale. It is put up in sacks in the same condition as when taken from the caves, and no manipulation or grinding is required.

It is recommended by

Prof. P. B. WILSON, of Baltimore, who is regarded as one of the best analytical chemists in the country.

Our State Geologist,

Prof. W. C. KERR,

also, recommends it as entitled to a place among the standard fertilizers of the country. The analysis shows it to be richer in plant food than the great majority of fertilizers, which in connection with the moderate price at which it is sold, are strong inducements for every farmer to use it.
