Convention. By order of the Executive Committee of the 7th Congressional District, a Convention of the Conservative Party of this District will be held in the City of Charlotte, on Thursday, the 20th day of May, 1874, to nominate a candidate for Congress, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before it.

our citizens are generally satisfied with our not heard one word of complaint against him, so well has he discharged his duties .-From a statement in the OBSERVER a short. time ago, we learned that the present Mayor has not been out of his office one whole day since he was elected in May, 1873. He has been present at every meeting of the Board of Aldermen during his term, and has paid more than half his salary by the fines imposed in his Court. He has inspected nearly all the improvements and work done by the Street Commissioner's force, and has give n the whole of his time to the duties of his office, and we always knew where to find him when his services were needed. Such full and constant attention to the duties of any office is very rare, and we hope our citizens will show their appreciation of our present Mayor by re-electing him by a large vote. MANY CITIZENS.

MR. EDITOR :- Mayor Davidson says in a card in your paper of the 24th inst., that after a careful examination he is satisfied there is no law that will enable him to enforce the ordinance of his Board of Alder men instructing the Marshal to garnishee a man's wages for city taxes. His Honor may be correct, but it is not probable his Board of Aldermen would have passed the ordinance unless they believed the power to enforce it did exist, and it was due to them that the law. and the Mayor's construction of it, should have been published with his card. Furthermore, the finances of the city, tain, feel many serious apprehenit is believed, are in a condition to need assistance from all lawful sources, and the tax payers are interested in the decision of this

Then is it right that it should be disposed of so summarily as the Mayor proposes? Besides there is an election at hand in which His Honor feels an interest, and it is due to himself that he should show the reasons which lead him to those conclusions .-

BALD MOUNTAIN!

TERRIBLE SHAKING ON FRI-DAY, APRIL 17th.

OLD FORT GREATLY EXCITED.

GREAT ALARM

[Asheville Expositor.]

On last Friday at Fifteen minutes past 5 o'clock, p. m., the people of Old Fort and many other places in the vicinity of Bald Mountain, were greatly startled at the terrible shaking in this Mountain. Everybody in the village of Old Fort was roused to the the following gentlemen of unquestioned varacity :

Col. J. C. Whitson, the Depot Agent at Old Fort, was sitting in a chair within the depot at the time. He heard a terrible, heavy, rumbling noise-says the house shook very considerably and that the glass in the windows in the depot building rattled continuously for some seconds. S. Wortnen heard a terrible noise at the same time, was in the house and felt the house quiver in every part—the sound was like a heavy body of snow sliding off the house-ran out of the house and called attention of others to the same.

J. C. Haight, a merchant in Old Fort-was sitting on the counter at the time-felt the counter move and house shake—the string of tin-wire hanging above the counter vibrated like a pendulum for several secondsseveral spoke at the same time, all very much startled. One man said "What is that?" Another said, "Is not that an earthquake?" The sound was like a heavy blast, then appeared to die away making a noise like a heavy wagon running over plank.

A. Dalton, who lives on the side of ness to withdraw my name. I would the Bald Mountain, says the shock was terrible, so much so that he could not tell whether the sound was over him or under him. He says the shaking was more fearful than in Februa-

J. W. Halford who lives on Rock Creek, near Stone Mountain, was alarmed at the same hour by what seemed to be a heavy blast, or a very large bumb bursting-the noise and Conservative Congressional District quivering of the earth more severe than ever before-lasted longer than usual-the boards on a little house were heard to rattle like quick showers of hail falling-felt the carth jar beneath his feet says all the people have become quite serious, and are much alarmed. The same noise, but less terrible, was heard by many persons at about ten o'clock the same

R. L. McBrayer-lives five miles from Bald Mountain-heard the same at the same time of the day-was plowing in the field-his horse became alarmed with fright-it appeared to he a rolling sound under the ground like distant thunder-says the people are again greatly alarmed with frightit appeared to be a rolling sound unpresent Mayor, W. the vicinity. James Burgin, who lives on the read of Crooked Creek-had been plowing, but was sitting on a very arge rock and everything perfectly quiet with his back to the Southwest and his face to the Northeast-the rumbling began under and behind him, and at the time it passed under him it appeared most intense and severe—the noise appeared like a huge rock rolling on and going downward all the time, where it appeared to have a resting place—the sound was calculated to produce great distress and alarm. W. P. Wright, who resides five miles east of Bald Mountain, on the head waters of Cane Creek, says the noise appeared like distant thunder. and seemed to get nearer to himshook his house very much, and lasted several seconds. This was between 4 and 5 o'clock

The same noise and rumbling was also heard at Marion, a distance of twenty-four miles but not so severe. On Friday evening at Old Fort everything wore the aspect of seriousness, and the people here, at the distance of twelve miles from Bald Moun-

DEATH OF A CONFEDERATE OFFICER. Colonel William Harvey Sellers of the once famed fifth Texas regiment of the Confederate service, died at Galveston, Texas, April 8, aged 47. At the second battle of Manassas he commanded the left wing of Hood's division.

Says the Danville (Va.) Times Many of the colored people who are excited on the subject of religion, are carrying on in a very curious style. A man named Klan Price stripped of all but one article of clothing and walked the house top and sat upon the chimney. One negro woman, in giving her experience, stated that she had been to hell and saw Spi Ross there.

THE FLOOD IN ALABAMA. - SELMA, April 24.—Immense rain has fallen in the past two days. The streams in every direction are greatly swollen. The Alabama river is within two feet of the high water mark of 1852. The country below is overflowed, and an immense damage done to the crops, making gloomy crop prospects.

MISCELLANY.

The insurance on the mills of Haxall & Crenshaw, Richmond, Va., amounts to $160,000. They have a Judge in Florida who was arrested and put into the calaboose for drunkenness. While in confinement., he endeavored to issue a writ of habeas corpus requiring the sheriff of Manstee Co. to seize his body and bring it before himself, in order that he might inquire into the legality of said confinement. It was a brilliant idea but it wouldn't work.

The latest name for a red-headed man is a struwberry blonde. The ladies of Bilbon, according to the Imperial, have decorated a barricade there with damask, on which is worked in letters of gold a mosto which may be thus translated: As long as cats will on black pudding sup, The unconquerable town shall not give us. Father Kyan, the poet-priest, has been lecturing to enraptured audiences in New York. Gov. Kemper has sent in a message to the Virginia Legislature suggesting the necessity for a thorough amendment of the Constitution.

At a public meeting in Macon, April 15, this resolution was adopted : hesolved, That we regard our railroad interest paramount to all other considerations. Speeches were made by Col. J. R. Love, of Jackson county; Dr. W. L. Love and J. L. Robinson, LITTLE ROCK, April 24.—Affairs are in statu quo. Brooks, in addressing the troops, said he was determined to hold the State House in spite of everything.

Margaret Black, of Falls River, Mass. has recovered $15,000 against a druggist who sold her aconite for pricna, by which she was dreadfully poisoned.

The Atlanta Herald nominates Hancock and Gordon for President and Vice-President of the United States. Hon. B. H. Hill has become the owner of one-ninth interest in the Kimball House, valued at $10,000. In speaking of President Grant's veto of the finance bill, the Richmond Dispatch says: We take it that the veto does one of two things: First, It shows that General Grant has no hope of a third term; and, second, that if he has, there is no chance for him to be elected.
