LOCAL DOTS.

Last night was a perfect "beauty." Maybe local news wasn't scarce yesterday! The elections, Judicial, county and muni- prison for a number of years. c pal, are fearfully "mixed." And so April, "with her alternate smiles and tears," leaves us to-day. The Mozart Musical Society meets this eveing at the residence of Dr J H McAden .full attendance is earnestly desired.

Very considerable damage was done the metery walks by the heavy rains of last reck, but nearly all of this has been repair-

The streets are now looking beautifully. the trees have put forth their leaves abunlantly, and the pavements are almost enirely shaded with the heavy foliage.

The business in cotton has been experiencing quite a dropping off for the past month, and is not now near so much of it on the market as there "used to was."

Last night was very cool, almost cold. We were out of wood, the Spring being far dvanced, but happening to have a few cosies of the Congressional Globe on hand, and the city. There is no trouble to get men to having a good stove, we didn't freeze.

Lincoln Court adjourned last Friday morning, all the business of the Court having een disposed of before the end of the first week. Next week Judge Logan holds Court n Gaston, after that in Mecklenburg.

little snow fall in Statesville.

Tax Listing .- The tax list had been open or lifteen days up to yesterday evening, and to that time 276 persons had listed their taxable property. Last year there were on the list the names of 880 pers ms, and supposing that the number of tax payers in the township is no greater this than last year, there yet remains 604 persons to make their returns in the next Iwo weeks.

E ratum. - We said, in yesterday's poper, that the Luiies of Cherbate ha", by a concert in the Spring, raised $100 and sent it to the Orphan Asylum. The concert to which we had reference was given by the Mozert Musient Society, which is composed targely of ladics, and the amount sent to the Asylum was about $50. The first error was one of inadvertency; as to the anti-craft sourcer are had been mistaformed.

Mee ing in Madard Creek Township .-We learn that a meeting of the people of Mallard Creek was held on Morelay last and that the meeting aconinate a Hon Z B Vanze for Congress, Hon W M Shipp for Judge and Col H C Jones for Societor. We learn that the delegates to the county convention were instructed to vote, but who all were suggested for the various county offices, we have not been able to learn.

> Picked in the Eye .- There is a citizen of this place who has been lying quite sick for some days, and a day or two ago, while in bed asleep his wife went out of the room for awhile, leaving him all alone. During her absence a chicken walked into the house and jumping up on the bed gave the man an able-bodied pick right in one of his eyes. 15 a 18 The injury is quite painful and his eye is all 41 a 4.60 swollen up. It was not put out, though, and there is no danger of its going out.

> > THE WEEKLY OBSERVER, now one of the State, is only two dollars per annum. Specimen copies free.

Statesville Court .- From a gentleman who arrived in Charlotte last evening from Statesville via Salisbury, at 9 o'clock, we learn that the Federal Court adjourned yesterday. The Grand Jury has not yet been dismissed and will not likely be until to morrow, and the Judge and Solicitor are still there. The cases of the counterfeiters were continued with one exception-that of Milo Hall, colored, of Rowan, who was acquitted. Some of the men were released on bail, the bonds required being very heavy, $8,000 or $10,000. William Bryan, of this city, was among the number who were remanded to prison.

Among other cases tried was that of a negro for retailing liquor. He had sold one pint, and for this was convicted and sent to

Painful Accident.-Yesterday after noon a young man, Jurand Stone, job pressman in this office, sustained a very painful accident. A cloth which is used for covering one of the job presses had been hung on a of the hand between the thumb and forefinger, and penetrated to considerable depth, the sharp tin out of his hand and went to Dr J M Miller, who bound it up.

Mr Stone is one of the most efficient of our force, and we sympathize with him in Declining Positions .- We regret having to publish cards from so many gentlemen, good, sensible and wide a wake men, declining to become candidates for positions on the Board of Aldermen. True, the office does not pay anything and is rather a bother than anything else to those who hold it. but still, when gentlemen see that their fellow citizens desire their services in the capacity of Aldermen, they ought, we think, be willing to give up part (and it is but a small part) of their time to the interests of fill the places, but to get good men and men who have the welfare of the city really at dates for Aldermen on Ward No 4, Gen'l heart, is an object not so easily attained. It Rufus Barringer, M L Barringer and D H is necessary to have safe financiers and progressive men on the Board of Aldermen, for to the hands of the Aldermen are the destinies of the city entrusted. We hope, therefore, in view of these facts, that we shall not be called upon to publish the declinations of any more men of the kind named, whose friends and neighbors desire to trust their interests to them.

Fire in Lexington .- A friend and subscriber, in Lexington, writes us under date of the 27th inst., as follows, concerning a fire in that town on Monday morning:

EDITORS DAILY OBSERVER-Dear Sirs :-About 4 o'clock this morning fire was discovered issuing from the ware house of Col C F Lowe, on Main street. The fire, when discovered, seemed to have been burning for some time in the inside of the building and had gained such headway that it was found impossible to stop it until the entire lowing gentlemen: S P Smith, S M Howell, building was consumed, with all its contents. One part of the house was occupied by Mr T M Harrison, as a bar-room. His entire stock, fixtures and all, were destroyed, estimated at some $100, no insurance .-Col Lowe's loss is supposed to be some $600 exclusive of building; no insurance. The fire was evidently the work of an incendiary, as no fire had been kindled in the house since Saturday, the 25th inst. The belief here is that the house had been entered by thieves and part of the goods stolen out and then fired to conceal the theft. Judge Cloud last week at Salisbury sentenced two Lexington negroes to the Peni-

Snow -There was a light fall of snow in tentiary for five years each, and I have no this city yesterday morning a little while doubt the people of Lexington would sleep after day light. It came accompanied by a sounder at night if about a half dozen more little of both hall and rain, and melted as it | were sent from here to keep them company, fell. We hear that there was a right lively | and a few whites thrown in would not be missed much by the good people here. Respectfully. CITIZEN.

COMMUNICATED. Reply to the Citizen.

MR EDITOR: I have just rend a communication in your issue of the 28th, over the signature of an "Old Citizen," and I ask through your valuable paper to reply to our "Uni (itizen."

I think "Old Citizen," as he signs himself would like to take advantage of the order passed by the Board in regard to the collection of poll tax, to injure Mr Davidson in the coming election.

Why, sir, is it, that you place yourself be-(w en the Board of Aldermen and the Mayor? Are not the Board who passed the order the proper ones to see to its enforcement if they so desire? Now, sir, I desire to assure you that Mr aviason fully understands that the Board does not wish him to carry out said order; and our reasons for not insisting on the enforcement of said order is, that since its passage we have had doubts as to whether or not we have the right to enforce such an order. In fact, from the best information we can get, we believe it conflicts with the laws of our State. Futhermore, the Board of Aldermen were not aware that the costs on collecting the poll tax would exceed the amount to be collected. So that, under the existing circumstances, we think that to enforce the order would at least be very inconsistent with our duties. And, sir, I desire to inform you and those who read your communication, that the part you have pretendedly taken in the business of the Board of Aldermen, was unsolicited and unthankfully received. Nay, we understand it all, and your communication will not have the effect it was intended to largest as well as the best papers in the have. The tenor of your communication reveals all.

You may have voted for Mr Davidson, but you were not a friend of his or you would not be so eager to grasp at the order passed by the Board of Aldermen to injure him in the coming election.

Now, sir, I never was a friend of Mr Daidson, and never did vote for him. But I believe he has filled the office of Mayor to the general satisfaction of the people, and I believe that the majority of our people wish endorse him by re-election, and I am with

Now, sir, you have accomplished nothing thus far. And if you are an "Old Citizen," you should be a good one. And it may be that you can impart such knowledge in your next as will be of interest to your city and your people, and your name added in full fully compete with all other houses. will likely have its weight.

As eternal vigilance is the price of liberty, so is continued vigilance, honest, fair and apright dealing necessary to success in busness. thus giving to the trade a strictly "Whole sole Establishment," where they can make their selections from a Stock purchased for that trade only, thus avoiding coming in contact with a Retail Stock and Retail Buy ers. The advantages of such a House are too obvious to need further comment.

To give the general reader a better conception of the colossal dimensions of our two Houses we state that we will have upwards of thirty thousand feet of superficial floor room; or if a lane of ten feet wide were formed of our stores, it would reach considerably over half a mile. At the same time we inform our numer-
