FOR SALE.
As agent for the owners, we offer for sale that valuable tract of land belonging to the heirs of Allen Gill, deceased, consisting of 1600 acres, more or less, situated on the waters of Rocky Creek in the northwest corner of Iredell, in the northeast corner of Alexander county, and also partly in Wilkes county, all of which is one tract and supposed to contain valuable minerals, such as lead, plumbago, and silver. On the tract is a good mill site, at a place known as Drip-Off, with plenty of water and a shoal of rocks which lets the stream fall 60 feet in a short distance. Also other shoals on Grape Vine Branch, for two sites for over shot wheels. The whole tract is yet in forest timber and well suited for a sheep farm, having a very fine range. Title indisputable.

Balance in pine field and original forest. On the premises is a FINE, TWO-STORY DWELLING HOUSE, nearly new, containing seven rooms, with a splendid well of water in the yard, stable, and all necessary outbuildings, good orchards, good neighborhood and convenient churches and school.
This plantation would make two good farms, and the land is well adapted to the growth of tobacco, wheat, corn, oats, &c.
Title indisputable.

FOR SALE.
We offer for sale that valuable tract of land, consisting of
SEVENTEEN HUNDRED ACRES of good lands as can be found in the county of Iredell, on which John Young Esq., now resides. On the tract is a GOOD MILL SITE,

A SPLENDID DWELLING HOUSE

This tract of land lies nine miles south of Statesville and across the line of A. T. & O. R. The dwelling house is a short distance from a station on that road.
The tract will not be divided unless enough purchasers can be found who will purchase all, and so it is in such a manner as to be easily converted into a number of small farms, it would be extremely desirable for a small colony.
On the plantation is about one hundred and fifty acres of

TO THE PUBLIC!
As eternal vigilance is the price of liberty, so is continual vigilance, honest, fair and upright dealing necessary to success in business. Having from the outset (18 years ago), appreciated these facts, and acted upon them, we find ourselves today rewarded by the countless anxieties, vexations, and the loss of hours of rest by seeing our long-cherished hopes realized, of making Charlotte a Wholesale Mart, and ours an exclusive
Wholesale House.
In order to be more explicit, we have the pleasure of informing the mercantile world that we have leased the superb store, adjoining our present, (heretofore occupied by Messrs. Brem, Brown & Co., as their Dry-Goods Store), which we will occupy by first of September next for the retail trade only, and will use our present elegant and commodious store for an exclusive thus giving to the trade a strictly "Wholesale Establishment," where they can make their selections from a Stock purchased for that trade only, thus avoiding coming in contact with a Retail Stock and Retail Buyers. The advantages of such a House are too obvious to need further comment.
To give the general reader a better conception of the colossal dimensions of our two Houses we state that we will have upwards of thirty thousand feet of superficial floor room; or if a lane of ten feet wide were formed of our stores, it would reach considerably over half a mile.
At the same time we inform our numerous friends that Mr. Birtels is now again North by buying our second stock this season, and owing to the decline in goods, will again place us in a position to successfully compete with all other houses.
Very respectfully,
WITKOWSKY & RINTELS,

Proposed Sunday School Excursion.—It is now proposed that the members of the Sabbath School of Tryon Street M. E. Church go to Spartanburg, S. C., next Saturday on an excursion, leaving here in the morning and returning in the evening.
Invited to Lecture.—Gov. Vance, of this city, has been invited to deliver an address before Atlantic Council Patrons of Husbandry at its next quarterly meeting to be held in Goldsboro on the 18th inst. It is not yet known whether or not the Governor will accept.
Personal.—Col. James Anderson, of Columbia, arrived in Charlotte last evening.
Col. Wm. Johnston, Gen. Rufus Barringer, H. W. Guion, Esq., and J. M. Wilson, Esq., of this city, left last evening for Raleigh to attend the Federal Court at present in session in that city.
Crops.—This weather, though it makes humanity wild, is splendid for growing crops. Farmers tell us that it has been many years since there has been so fine a prospect for wheat at this stage of the season. Cotton is also looking well, and is growing finely. Oats, it is thought, will yield much more than an average crop, and all in all, the husbandman has cause for complaint on account of crop prospects.

Rabbits as Kittens.—A gentleman who lives in the southern part of Iredell county, told us that a neighbor of his had a cat which is now raising three kittens and four young rabbits. She furnishes food for the rabbits and cat's kittens (these, just as if they were her own children), and the whole family live together on terms of the most perfect concord, the old tabby and the kittens making no discrimination against the rabbits on account of "race or color." This is a rather curious state of affairs, but the facts are true.

LOCAL NOTES.
Sunday didn't fall a bit short of a hot day. Notwithstanding the intense heat, large numbers of people attended church services.
The new schedule of the Carolina Central Railroad went into effect yesterday. The train now arrives in Charlotte in the morning at 10 o'clock, and leaves in the afternoon at 3.
As the campaign advances and people grow more anxious to have all the news, the subscription list of the Observer is still increasing. "They will have it." Everybody subscribes for it.
Did W. C. and A. H. H. Stock. The Wilmington folks say:—"The time set for the exchange of the stock of the Wilmington, Charlotte & Rutherford Railroad for stock in the new company, the Carolina Central Railway Company, has been extended, owing to the absence of the officers of the company."

Rev. Dr. Plumer.—This gentleman who has been ministering to the spiritual wants of the members of the Second Presbyterian Church, of this city, for some time, will be absent from his charge for three months to come. The pulpit of the church will be supplied next Sabbath, we learn, by a distinguished divine from a neighboring State.
Mayor's Court.—Yank Magill and Sewell Gillespie, two colored worthies who are not unknown to the police, were before His Honor the Mayor yesterday on a charge of vagrancy. They were required to give bond to go to work or go to jail, and so the occupancy is likely to soon be rid of them. Frank Cuthbertson, who was up, a few days ago for being a vagrant and a general nuisance, has planned down to hard work, and others still of the same kind of cattle are likely to go in the same manner. The Mayor and police are moving earnestly in this matter, and they are entitled to the thanks of the decent and working part of the community for the steps which they are taking to rid the city of this class of persons who live—nobody knows how.

"The Blind Man Eloquent."—Rev. W. H. Milburn delivered two sermons in the Tryon Street M. E. Church of this city on Sunday. His sermon in the morning was preached from the text found in Hebrews, chap. IV, verse 16: "Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need." At night his sermon was from a deable text, Ecclesiastes, chap. xii, verse 8, and the same book, chap. XI, verse 1: "Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher, all is vanity." "Cast thy bread upon the waters; for thou shalt find it after many days."
Both of the sermons were preached to large and delighted audiences. Mr. Milburn is one of the remarkable men of the age—Few men, with all their faculties unimpaired, ever attain the degree of learning and eloquence which this blind man has acquired, while the beauty and grace of his oratory is a real marvel. All those who listened to him either as a lecturer or a minister, while he was here, will surely bear him should he ever pass this way again. Mr. Milburn left Charlotte yesterday morning, and was to have lectured last evening in Salisbury.

A Love Sick Swain.—At least one student in this city has had a severe attack of "puppy love," as the following will show.—It is a letter which was written to one of the young ladies of this place, who is just bordering upon "sweet sixteen." The letter was found by a friend of ours and given us for publication. We feel sorry for this poor, love-sick boy, we declare we do, and we feel sorry to see him publishing the letter, but it is altogether too good to keep. Listen to his tale of love and his piteous wooing. We print the letter verbatim et literatim, only suppressing the names:—
Dear _____: I received your cool hearted note. You are not fully convinced that I love you, at least you talk like it.—Believe me, I do love you with all my heart and again I ask your love in return. You say it makes you happy to know that someone loves you; now you are happy while I dwell in sadness. You could make me the happiest boy in the world if you would, but you are bent on making me unhappy, which you are not doing, and why do you not make me happy? I do not ask your friendship, I ask your love. I think love is the most noble thing that a boy can bestow upon a man, and I do wish you would bestow it upon me. I will always give you more than friendship, and that is, the strongest love.—I pinned the piece of cedar on my coat, and in your next note if you say no, when I find I want to fade with it. You don't only come in my mind but in my dreams. I sometimes dream I see you, the one that I love most. If we part I will call God to witness that I will remain the same. Oh! the pain that it gives me to read the note which you sent me. Write soon to the one who loves you most.

gracefully acknowledged, amidst a burst of applause.
"After a very brief but pertinent preface he announced the subject of his lecture and commenced by referring to that mighty and mysterious current, the Gulf Stream, an ocean river with its source in the Gulf of Mexico and its mouth in the Arctic Sea, flowing forever northward in a majestic and undiminished volume, with a current more rapid than that of the waters of the Nile, the Amazon, or the Congo, and though moving through the vast and unathwartable waters of the great deep, yet returning to mingle with the sea, preserving its line so sharply defined that they can be easily and distinctly traced. This he declared to be a simile of the Jewish nation. With its origin in the remotest ages of antiquity, and its destiny hidden in the unknown future, it has ever been a distinct and peculiar people, preserving through dispersion and persecution for eighteen hundred years its nationality. The religious and its nationality.
"The speaker then gave a very interesting description of ancient Palestine, embracing climate and productions of the Twelve Tribes of Israel and their forms of government, their wars and defeats, their dispersion, their persecutions in more modern times, the three great classes into which they are now divided, and the countries they respectively occupy, together with a vast amount of curious and instructive statistical information. He then closed by referring to the national and religious persecution and to the peace, prosperity and happiness they now enjoy in our glorious Republic.
"The lecture was a most brilliant effort and entirely worthy of the fame and talent of this distinguished gentleman. Our Hebrew citizens, who were largely represented, listened throughout with the most earnest attention and showed their full appreciation of the lecture. Before the audience dispersed Col. J. W. Hinton announced that Gov. Vance would lecture to-night on "Wit and Humor." We expect that an immense audience will be present, and advise those who wish to secure choice seats to go early."
The Landmark, of Friday, says of "Wit and Humor":—"Ex-Governor Zebulon B. Vance delivered his second and last lecture entitled "Wit and Humor" before a large, appreciative and delighted audience at the Opera House last night. The subject afforded him ample scope for his display of his rare powers as a humorist, and the almost continuous laugh and frequent applause full of merriment and amusement were heartily enjoyed by his auditors. Col. J. W. Hinton, in a very neat speech, introduced the speaker, who, in his usual happy way, announced the subject of his lecture, and then proceeded to analyze and illustrate the different degrees of wit.
"These degrees he classified as mimical, sarcastic, ludicrous, benevolent and epigrammatic wit, illustrating each class with sparkling anecdotes, related in his mirth provoking style.
"He claimed that poetry abounded with the very essence of wit, and that every true poet was master of this peculiar talent. Even the holy scriptures he declared were filled with numerous instances of the wisest wit, though not of a facetious character.
"The entire lecture was most brilliant in conception and admirable in delivery.
"As his close Col. J. W. Hinton arose and approached Gov. Vance, bearing in his hand a magnificent bouquet, which he presented to him, speaking in substance as follows:—"Governor Vance—The young ladies of this city, both Jewish and Gentile, have delegated me to perform the pleasing task of presenting to you this beautiful bouquet, as a token of their esteem and admiration. Your name and fame became known to them under far different circumstances, and as they, your courage and patriotism evoked their deepest respect and admiration, so now, when your lyre is strung to a different tune, their appreciation of your talents but stimulates and intensifies the same. Last night you taught us charity and forbearance, to-night you have presented us with a feast of mirth and joy. In behalf of our Jewish and Gentile maidens, in the name of the dark Redcoats and blue-eyed Rowan's, I tender this beautiful token for your acceptance."
"Governor Vance accepted the gift, and replied in a very appropriate and pleasing manner, his remarks fairly scintillating with wit and humor."
A CARD.
To the Conservative Voters of the 9th Judicial District:—
As I may not be able to meet you all before the election, I desire, by this means, to present my claims to you as the Conservative nominee for the Judgeship of this District.—
"My nomination was regular" and in accordance with all the precedents of the party. The Conservative party was first organized on the 30th day of April, 1868, by a State Convention at Raleigh. And in every convention of the party, from that time until now, whether State, Congressional, Judicial or County Conventions, the candidates have been nominated by the majority vote and not a two-thirds vote. In nearly all the Conventions—I believe there are only two exceptions where the numerical strength was adopted—the vote has been taken by representative votes; that is, each county casting as many votes as it has members in the House of Representatives of the State. By both of these rules, numerical and representative, I was fairly nominated in the Convention at Lincolnton, on the 13th of May.
By the numerical strength I carried—
Cabarrus, 1161
Lincoln, 903
Gaston, 927
Cleveland, 1099
Folk, 224
4314
While my opponent, Judge Shipp, carried:—
Mecklenburg, 2511
Rutherfordton, 727
3238
Giving me a majority of 1076 votes.
There are eight Representative votes in the district I carried:—
Cabarrus, 1161
Lincoln, 903
Gaston, 927
Cleveland, 1099
Folk, 224
4314
While my opponent, Judge Shipp, carried:—
Mecklenburg, 2511
Rutherfordton, 727
3238
Giving me a majority of 1076 votes.
I will observe here that the Representative vote plan was adopted by the Convention and that it was advocated by Col. Hoke in two articles written for the Lincoln Express, in which he contended that it was the only fair plan, and that it was according to the usage of the party. I was nominated by this plan in the Convention by a vote of 56 to 8.

I was also nominated by a majority of counties, having carried 6, while my opponent carried 2.
I was the only candidate who carried some strength in every county in the district, Judge Shipp carried none strength in Cabarrus, Mecklenburg, Rutherfordton and Folk counties. Col. Hoke carried some strength in Folk, Rutherfordton and Cleveland, 3 counties. I carried strength in all seven of the counties mentioned.
I carried a majority of counties in the district and will show:
I carried in
Cabarrus, 10
Lincoln, 10
Gaston, 10
Cleveland, 10
Mecklenburg, 10
Judge Shipp carried in
Cabarrus, 3
Mecklenburg, 12
Col Hoke carried in
Cleveland, 2
Maj Dowd carried, 1
Tie vote, 1
RECAPITULATION:
Shipp, 14
Hoke, 2
Dowd, 1
Tie, 1 18
Majority over all, 11
In Rutherfordton and Folk no township meetings were held. In the County Convention of Rutherfordton the vote was, Shipp 25, Hoke 10, Schenck 7.
In Folk the vote was, Schenck 30, Shipp and Hoke 6.
So I received a majority of counties, a majority of Representatives, a majority of townships and a majority of the numerical strength of the Democratic party in this district. If this is not a fair nomination I cannot see what constitutes fairness.
In this district the Conservative majority in 1872, by great effort on our part, reached 1184 votes.
If we divide our party by voting for Col. Hoke, it will weaken us and give Logan a correspondingly easier task to defeat us. If Col. Hoke carries 1200 Conservative votes from the nominee, it destroys our majority and elects Logan. It is for you, fellow-citizens, to say whether Judge Logan shall be Judge of this District for eight more years; whether your lives, liberties and property are to be entrusted to him for that long period. Read what even Republican lawyers swore in regard to him:—
Gen. Barringer said: "His great vanity and wonderful obstinacy make him the worst possible Judge."
Judge Dymon swore "That he was essentially incompetent and incapable of discharging the duties of a Judge."
Wm. H. Bailey, Esq., swore that "He is incapable of understanding or appreciating a legal argument. The judgments of his court do not carry with them any appreciative weight."
I submit these facts to you, my fellow-citizens, for your serious and calm deliberation. The question is an all-important one and you should weigh it well before you cast your vote.
Respectfully,
D. SCHENCK.

ANNOUNCEMENT.
