Disease of the nerves are more numerous and afflictive now than at any former period—a result due to the luxurious habits of the age, and to the excitement which the struggle for wealth and position kindles and inflames. Almost every individual one meets in society, of either sex, is troubled with some nervous affection or other. Among the various medicinal agents recommended by the profession or recognized by the general public as nerviness, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters occupies the foremost place. Physicians of eminence concede to it very extraordinary tonic properties, and its popularity as an invigorant with all classes of the community is indicated by a demand for the article which has distanced competition, and is still continually increasing. We had a call last Wednesday from Mr W J Duncan, who is traveling for Sample & Alexander, manufacturers and dealers in boots, shoes, hats, trunks, leather, shoe findings etc, etc, Trade street, Charlotte, N C. Mr Duncan is a gentlemanly young fel-low, and showed very conclusively to many of our merchants that the articles he proposes to sell, can be bought very cheap in Charlotte. Colonization,-It is known to some of our readers that the people of South Carolina have been making efforts of late to induce a good class of emigrants to settle in that State. During this year the Palmetto State Immigration Agency, under control of Tilman R Gaines, has settled several bundred families in that State, most of whom are pleased and well to do. Like many others the people of our sister State have con-cluded that the only kind of immigration which will pay is that which comes, chiefly, in family ties.

Friday night a small colony of select Eng glish, Scotch and German people, in charge of the Agent, Mr Gaines, were lodged at the Central Hotel, in our city, and are to be settled along the Air-Line Railroad, in the upper part of South Carolina. They represent about forty persons in all, and their wives and children will come on as soon a these locate. They are men of some mean and mostly mechanics. A number of our public spirited gentlemen made their acquaintance and encouraged them by friendly greeting. We learn that a much larger few weeks. Mr Gaines, we are informed has been invited to visit various places at the North and address the working people on the advantages of the South, which he proposed to do on his return to New York.

Another Candidate. There is a Repub lican candidate for Congress in the field in this district. Col Nat McLean, of Robeson, we learn, announced his candidature at Lumberton, on Thursday. His chief argument is that he will have more influence in tiemen on whom has develved the duty of raising the amount yet necessary, and they hope to have no difficulty in obtaining the subscriptions. Certainly our citizens not such a lunatic as to suppose for a moment that he will stand in the way of Mr Ashe's election, and what his object is in becoming a candidate, we do not understand, unless he wishes to gain the honorable distinction of being a martyr in the cause. This martyrdom may get him into some well feathered nest at a future time.

THE REPUBLICAN MEETING YES. TERDAY.

County Nominating Convention-A Partial Ticket Put Out-Some Squabbing in the Meeting, and Some Dissatisfaction Since.

Yesterday was the day for the Convention of the Republican party of Mecklenburg county to meet in Charlotte, to nominate candidates for sounty offices—and it met; met in the Mint Street (colored) Methodist Church Delegates were present from all the townships except Providence, which was represented by proxy. The meeting was organized by calling on Prince Brown (colored) to be temporary Chairman, and appointing J M Turrentine Secretary. At a subsequent stage of the game, some trouble sprang up and a breach becoming imminent, Prince left the chair resigning it to R R Rea, who, upon the permanent organization was superceded by Post Master R E McDonald. The committee to bring out the names of candidates for the consideration of the convention wouldn't allow, so we learn, ex-Post Master Frazier to have a say in the committee, though he was appointed one of the committee for Cherlette Township at the close communion meeting held about the last of June. This was because Mr Frazier is not thoroughly "in accord" with the party in some of its recent measures.

The committee reported the following names to the Convention, and the parties were unanimously made the candidates of the Republican party of this county:

For Congress ---" Judge GW Logan. Solicitor J L Carson, Solicitor W

For Clerk Superior Court-R R Res.

" Cheriff ---

" the Senate-Dr Wm M Kerr. " Members of the House-E H Bissell (Other Commoner not yet named.

" County Commissioners-T L Vail W R Myers, R M Oates, Thos Gluyas, Eli Hinson. It will be observed from the above that there are several Conservatives in the list of county commissioners; and also that no nominations were made for Congressman. Sheriff, Treasurer, Register of Deeds, Surveyor or Coroner. There was some discussion, we understand, in the committee, about the propriety of endorsing E C Davidson for Congress, and W H H Houston for Sheriff, and there being opposition to both of these propositions, the matter was left open, it being understood, however, that the policy of the party is to support anybody to beat the nominees of the Conservative party Hence, while the party did not order its ad herents to vote for Davidson and Houston, they will be likely to do so to a considerable extent because the party suggests it. No candidates will be brought out for Treasurer, Register, &c. but it is the understanding that if any in-dependent Conservatives come out for these offices, they can depend on the support of the Republicans. J M Turrentine, route agent on the North Catolina Railroad, is, we believe, the father of the ticket which was put out yesterday. It is unacceptable to some of the Republicans, and they do not hesitate to express their disapproval of it. One of the lights of the party, one who had done perhaps more work for it, and spent more money for it, than any other Republican in the county, being asked how he liked the ticket, replied briefly, "Oh, hell!" which elegant phrase showed as plainly as his countenance, that his party has prepared one dose, at least, which he cannot swallow without making a face. The above facts concerning the meeting are reliable. We made application a day or two before hand to be admitted in our capacity as reporter for the OBSERVER, but the request was refused, and our information has been picked up wherever it could be found. We have it indirectly from several parties and the statement of each person tallies with that of the others.

The Business of Charlotte.-Under this head our cotemporary, the Charlotte On SERVER, has recently been publishing some admirable and valuable articles upon this growing city of our State, some of which we have already published.

In a short time, we sincerely hope, our Mountain country will be connected with Charlotte by rail, and it will be well for our people to keep posted about this "future London." for it is our Charlotte, too. Asheville Citizen.

Mayor's Court .- Mr Jas F Davidson was before the Mayor yesterday, for whip ping a little boy of Mrs. Moses Cruse. The evidence was such as to induce the Mayor to impose a fine of $20 upon the defendant. John Davidson, colored, was up for stealing a pocket-book, containing $40, from Mr Davis in the Five Points. In default of $200 bail, he was sent up.

Improved.—We are gratified to learn, as we do by a private letter received in this city, that Judge Pearson, who is at his home in Yadkin county, has improved very much since leaving Raleigh. He is out of bed and is, apparently, as well as usual. We have several of the State papers, to the effect that the Judge was ill of Bright's disease of the kidneys, is an error.

HON. THOS. S. ASHE.

The Speech of Our Congressional Se ince Yesterday, il would

Pursuant to previous notice our candidate for Congress, Hon Thos S Ashe, of Anson. addressed a portion of the people of Mecklenburg at the Court Honse in this city yes- ling. When a Southern member of Congre terday. The speaking began about 2:30 in the afternoon, and did not much excede an hour in length. Mr Ashe began by referrcumstances of his nomination two years ago. He was, until the day of that convention, under political disabilities, and it was only on the day that the nominating these disabilities had been removed. The pected to him and he had considered for him to accept it. But he did so, and, in two thousand of all the votes cast.

Not less flattering was the re-nomination which he received at the hands of the convention which assembled in Charlotte on that nomination that he appeared here now did before. as a candidate for Congress.

Mr Ashe alluded to the fact that he had two opponents-Mr E G Davidson, of this long, a gentleman of good character and of but who had no party affiliations, and Mr

Mr McLean came to the speaker at Lumberton on Thursday, a short time before he was to have addressed the people, and asked for a division of time. Upon inquiry I learn ed for the first time that it was his intention to announce himself a candidate in opposition to myself, and I told him that would grant him all the time he wanted. Mr McLean told the people that a dark cloud (the Civil Rights Bill) was now impending over the country; that something should be done to avert the threatened evil, and that, the Republicans having a majori ty in Congress, none but a Republican could have any influence in saving the country from a great calamity. This was the amount of his argument. Mr Ashe al Inded to a charge made by McLean upon him in regard to the bill which was introduced in the House to strike out the appro priation to the U S Branch Mint at Char lotte; and explained that he was at his Spring Court in Anson, as he was in honor bound to be, when the bill came up in the House. But Col Wheeler induced Mr Cobb. of the 1st District, to make a little speech in opposition to striking out the appropriation, and the bill failed. This was, by the by, the only occasion when the speaker had absented himself from Congress since his election to a seat in that body.

Mr Ashe then passed on to a review of the Civil Rights Bill, and here took occasion to reply to McLean's charge that Democrat had no influence in Congress: saying all that kept the bill from passing the lower house during the last session was the fact that the Democrats stood shoulder to shoulder in opposition to it, and, with the aid of a few Republicans, kept it from being taken from the calendar. The whole object of this bill is to humiliate the South It was framed by Sumner that he might wreak vengeance on the South for the caning which he received before the war from Brooks, who thrashed him with his stick on the floor of the Senate until he actually large man as he was, took refuge under desk. Dying, the Massachusetts Senator left it in the hands of his friends, begging that they would not allow it to perish.

The speaker read the first section of the bill and discussed it. He expressed the belief that the bill is unconstitutional, and made an able argument in support of his position. For whose benefit do they want it passed? For the benfit of the moneyed men of the North and East; they think that by the passage of the bill they will-gain a stronger hold on the negro vote, and be thus enabled to continue managing the government as they choose,-Granting, though, that the bill is constitutional, what advantage will it be to the negro? None. The government has given them freedom and suffrage, and the better and more intelligent of the race do not want more. The anecdote, "De pervisions, Josiar," was told with very marked efno doubt that the statement published in plause. The passage of the odious measure reasoning, - Tobacco Leaf and Cotton Plant. would be a great calamity to the negro and the poor white man. It would destroy our system of public schools, and the children of the poorer classes of whites, and of the ne groes, would grow up in ignorance. And all this to accomplish a political purpose! Some of the Southern Radical politicians gun. The citizens have been quite liberal are trying to dodge this question, saying that it is not a party measure. It is the great party issue of the day, and the Radicals should be made to bear the odium of it.

Mr Ashe passed from this to the corruption and extravagance of the government.

The extravagance of the government came in for a share of its just condemnation Mr Ashe said that the expenses of the government last year were $3,9,000,000, and affairs will never be any better under the prosent administration.

What is the remedy? The coalition wh prang up between the South and the Northwest on the currency question is pro wants a favor he goes to a Northwestern member, and it is granted. A feeling of kinship of interest has sprung up between ing to his candidature, and spoke of the cir- them, and if this coalition is formed there is hope for the country yet.

Mr Ashe apologized (which was not necessary) for detaining the audience, thanked those present for their attention, and conconvention assembled in Charlotte that a cluded. In the above brief synopsis we telegram was received here stating that have, of course, not embodied all of the points upon which the distinguished speaknomination was most flattering and unex- er touched, but bave only presented a rough outline of his speech.
