LOCAL DOTS.

It has been observed that yesterday was a dampbad day. Mr. Thompson, Lecturer of the National Grange, will speak in Statesville next Saturday and a special train will be run on the A., T. & O. Railroad that day, leaving Charlotte at 7:40

Thos. Ledwell who keeps a store down in "California," knocked his wife down on Sunday because she complained to him of certain very reprehensible conduct of which he had been guilty. They compromised the matter yesterday.

· About sixty new subscribers to the Weekly Observer are informed that last week's edition is exhausted, and that we send the daily Observer to them this morning in its stead. We shall make our weekly visits regularly hereafter. Thanks for this substantial endorsement.

We are told that some of the peaches in this section have been injured by the bees, which eat into them before they are fully ripe, causing, them to rot and fall off. This is something of which we never heard before. We do not know to what extent the damage has extended.

A Model Commissioner,-The Southern Home of yesterday has this to say of a matter to which we have referred: "We have taken the trouble to examine at the Court House the record of Eli Hinson, whom the negro party has nominated for County Commissioner. The Grand Jury of Mecklenburg have found true bills against him for frauds in cotton packing on three different occasions. He was tried for watering a bale of cotton sold to L. W. Sanders, Esq., found guilty, appealed, got out a new trial and finally got out of the scrape by paying costs. The other two presentments (were for plaiting cotton and Eliget out of the scrape by submitting and paying costs. With a Radical Judge, there was no difficulty, but a jury of his countrymen have pro-nounced him guilty in these three tases and so presented him for trial.

This is the fellow the negroes propose to make a County Commissioner!

Schedule Changed.—The Schedule of the North Carolina Railroad underwent a slight change on Sunday. The mail going North now leaves Charlotte at 7:45 p. m. instead of at 7, and returning arrives at 6:22, a. m., instead of at 6:30. The day express between Charlotte and Greensboro, leaves at the same hour, 8:35 a. m., but re-turns an hour and five minutes later at Mayor's Court.-Jack Brawley, colored was before the Mayor yesterday morning for assault and battery upon Lucy Crump, also colored, on Sunday. He was fined $3.50 After leaving the court room, some words took place between the parties to the suit, when Lucy volunteered the information to Jack that he was a d-d liar. Not relishing this, he struck again, and was carried back and fined $3.50 more.

Klutz's Chill Cure:-We direct attention to the advertisement of this excellent specific for chills, fever and ague. It has been three or four years since this medicine was put before the public, and in that time it has achieved a reputation which is now giving it sale over a territory extending from New York to New Orleans. Its proprietor does not claim for it that it cures everything; but that it is a sovereign remedy for chills, fever and ague is shown by thousands of testimenials in his possession. It is recommended and prescribed by some of the leading and most learned physicians of this and other States, and is well worth a trial. It has grown in popularity until prietor, and as its merits are daily becoming better known, its sales are increasing in eyery part of the country.

Fish Ponds and Cider .- Mr. Robert Grier, who lives in the South Eastern portion of Mecklenburg, not content with being one of the best farmer's in the county, has two beautiful fish ponds, which are stocked with the most delicious specimens of the finny tribe. We believe he is the only man in the county who gives any attention to pisciculture. Why are there not others? Is Mr. G. to have all the good things, to say nothing of his having the best cider in the world?

Mr. Carson and the Observer. -In last Saturday's Observer, we stated under the head of "which King Benzoni," the substance of a letter received from Lincolnton stating that Mr Carson had "attended a negro meeting, with Judge Logan, on last Wednesday at or near Lincolnton." This Mr. Carson denies, and we give him the benefit of such denial, which we are always ready and willing to do. In this instance, however, we consider our information of undoubted authority. We acknowledge the receipt of a letter from Mr. Carson Saturday morning in which he says "answer though the post office," demanding the name of a "republican' who stated in this office "that the disaffection was brought about, by the extraordinary course of Messrs. Durham, Lee and Carson all seeking office, though one of the vilest combinations ever known in American politics." We have refused thus far to give our author, but we have no hesitation in saying that the author will be forthcoming whenever it is deemed necessary. We decline to publish Mr. Carson's letter, because it is couched in such language as to make it beneath the dignity and respect of this journal. and we would respectfully suggest to Mr. C. that he had better write promptly refused, thereupon the following hereafter in terms more becoming a candidate for a public office of trust

[COMMUNICATED.]

We hear from good authority that Joseph L. Carson (who says he is like a bob tail bull in fly time) is having tickets printed with Schenck and Carson on them, in order to deceive the unsuspecting and thereby get his name run with Mr. Schenck's. Remember fellow citizens that

WILLIAM J. MONTGOMERY is the reqular Conservative nominee, for Solicitor and see to it that you vote Schenck and Montgomery on your ticket and not Schenck and Carson. This man (who says he is like a bob tail bull and which everybody concedes is true) is now the regular nominee of the Civil Rights negro party and is running on the ticket with G. W. Logan. Remember Carson is the friend of Logan and trying by trickery to defeat the Conservative nominee.

WATCHMAN. [COMMUNICATED.]

The Conservative Candidate for Solicitor of the 9th Judicial District.

Mr. Editor :- When a man becomes a canthe people, his private as well as his public character becomes a matter of public comment. It is often through this instrumeniality that good men are rewarded for noble actions, and probably as often that men of bad or infamous character are prevented from getting into offices of trust or emolu-ment through unscrupulous measures. It is often the case that "bread cast upon the waters may be gathered op after many days, and it is frequently pleasant for one to know that a noble action, done in charity, without reward, or the hope of reward, often brings its own recompense.

Maj W J Montgomery, of Cabarrus county, is before the people of the 9th Judicial District as the candidate for Solicitor. Being the regular nominee of the Conservative party, he has special claims upon the voters of that party for their support, and I hope and believe the party will give him an undivided support as its nominee, but there are other and higher reasons why all the good people of this district should support bim, over and above party considerations.

In the first place I take occasion to say that he is an able lawyer, and I, at least, feel sure that the interests of the State will never suffer in his hands as her prosecuting officer.

Again, he is a man of unimpeachable integrity. A man whom no bribe could tampt, or who could be induced to swerve the least lots from the point of duty, in the equal and exact administration of justice. according to the laws of the land. I desire to say further that he belongs to one of the best families in the State, and that he possesses an enviable record as a Southern man, a gentleman, as well as a lawver, of the best talents.

But over and above all these considerations, I desire to commend him to the favorable consideration of the voters of the 9th Judicial District for an act, or, more properly, a series of acts of kindness rendered to me in the year '67, at a time when he could have acted for no reason except from the very purest motives. I mention this because there are some who might think that his kindness to me was not done through that innate feeling of kindness, that is his by birth and inheritance, and lest some one might say he did it hoping to be some day benefitted by it.

But to the point: In the year 1867, at a time when the proud old State of North Carolina was under the military satrap, Gen ERS Canby; when justice hung on the side of anything but the right, I was indicted for an alleged violation of the Internal Rev-enue Laws, a crime of which I was inno-cent, under a sworn affidavit of one Wm M Colman, then by the license of rascality and corruption one of the attaches of the Raieigh Standard, a paper known throughout the length and breadth of the State for its war upon the people of the State, and its notorious defamation of the women of the land. I was arrested and carried before J T Deweese, a carpet-bagger, who was, subsequently, by virtue of unbridled corrup tion, a member of the 4th Congression'l Dist't, and at that time United States Commission50 to 100 per cent below their real value. We er. I was bound over before him on this trumped up charge, in a bond of two thousand dollars, to answer at the Federal Court, at Raleigh. As an evidence that the charge was totally groundless, the Grand Jury, with all its corruption, failed to find a true bill, and the matter passed out of the recol lection of all, probably, except myself.

Out of this unwarranted and uncalled for persecution grew a personal difficulty between myself and Colman, subsequently Attorney-General of the State, and at that time in "full accord" with Holden and his coadjutors in the prostitution of the powers of the State Government under and upheld by the bayonet.

Having been at one time in the power of Deweese and his crew, my friends informed me when a warrant for my arrest arrived, and, acting under the advice of Maj Montgomery, I went to Canada, and became a refugee from my native State, through the persecutions and machinations of men whom I do not consider worthy to unloose my shoe lachets. Throughout this whole affair Major Montgomery acted as my personal and legal friend, all without pay or charge, nor has he charged me to this day. Called suddenly from my home by the imperative force of circumstances, I felt it necessary to put my business into the hands and care of some true friend, and that friend was William J. Montogmery. I rut $2,500 and all my business into his hands, and it is with real pleasure and gratitude that even at this late day' when the Major is a caudidate for the suffrages of our people, that I can bear unsolicited testimony to his faithfulness and friendship for me. Through lettters of introduction and recommendation to Dr Crottrell, of East Tennessee, from him, I was made welcome at the house of this true Southern gentleman, since dead, and with whom I passed three weeks of my exile, and whom I shall eyer remember with the deepest gratitude, not forgetting the true, tried andtrusted friend through whose kindness and favor I was able to gain an acquaint-These lines have been penned out of no desire to injure Maj Montgomery's compet-itor, or anyone else, but they are written out of regard for one of my earliest, best and most trusted friends, and with the hope that I shall in some measure help him to gain the favor and support of the people of this dis-trict, by informing them of his virtues, and his unmerited kindness toward me and

In closing this communication I desire to state that Maj Montgomery has no know-ledge that these facts are given to the pub-lic through the public press, and that my only desire is writing what I have, is to let the people know the hidden or private character of the man whom I hope to see Solic-iter of this judicial district for the next four Very respectfully,

G. L. GIBSON. Charlotte, N.C. July 27, 1874.
