EXPLANATION OF THE ## Scheme And Rates.

IN THIS VERY POPULAR SCHEME, purchasers choose their own numbers, and they are decided by the draw of a ball of any Combination Lottery. All drawn numbers are equal in the Supplementary, no difference in what order they come.

Purchasers can select a 4 number ticket, Also, a 3 number ticket, Also, a 2 number ticket, Also, a single number ticket.

Choose their own numbers, and at whatever price they are proper to pay for their tickets. The Prizes are paid accordingly. To elucidate the matter supporting a 12 ball number in the Combination Lottery is to be drawn—any person can go to a vendor's office and select for example, a four number ticket at one dollar, in any class choosing his own numbers, and the vendor will give him a certificate of them. The vendor will enter the same numbers upon the Manager's Register—and purchasers will be careful to see them entered upon the Register, as the Managers are responsible for that only. If, after the drawing takes place, the purchaser's four numbers are drawn in that class (no difference in what order they may have come), he would receive for his one dollar, $200. If three of the numbers only were drawn, $15. If he purchased a three number ticket, say one dollar, in the same ball, and the three numbers should be drawn out, he would receive $120. If two of the numbers only were drawn he would receive $2. If he purchased a two number ticket, say for one dollar, and the two numbers should be drawn, he would receive $12. If he purchased a single number ticket, and the number be drawn he would receive 4 for one.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

The Observer is the only paper published in the State West of Raleigh which gives the latest telegraphic dispatches every morning. Business men will please make a note of this.

"Free from that venality which corrupts the conscience or that plying which corrupts justice."

Another Attempt to Muzzle the Press.—Rumors were current on the streets yesterday that Gen D.H. Hill, of the Southern Home, had been arrested in South Carolina for libel. The fact was, however, that he was arrested in New York, in the 18th infantry, stationed at Yorkville, went to Bethel Church, in York county, one day last week, to arrest Gen Hill, he having understood that the General would deliver an address at Bethel on that day. Gen Hill had no appointment at the place for that occasion, and, besides, was sick in bed at home when Benner went with his posse to arrest him. The alleged libel was certain comments in the Southern Home upon the presentment of the Grand Jury of York, of Lieut Benner, for various offences, and particularly for a gross insult offered by Benner to a daughter of ex-Judge of Probate, S.B. Hall.

The articles in question were written, we are informed, by Capt. E.A. Shotwell, the associate editor of the Home, who has notified Benner of their authorship, and who claims all responsibility in the matter. Benner is the notorious Ku Klux hunter, of whom many of our readers have heard and read.

Fatal Accident.—A colored boy, aged about 13 years, sustained a very painful accident yesterday morning about 11 o'clock, in Second Ward, on Hill street, if we are not mistaken. The name of the boy is Charles Long. He was riding a horseback and while going along the street in a rapid, jolting trot, the mane suddenly shied, and threw the boy to the ground. His left shoulder was dislocated, and the left side of his face and head were bruised and scratched a good deal. At least accounts the youth was resting tolerably easy, and it is hoped he will soon be well as ever.

Police Arrest.—Yesterday afternoon a negro boy, aged about 16 years, came up with a smaller specimen of the same race in a public road near this city, and, observing that he carried four chickens in his hand, seized on them, and, by main strength, bore them off. The police captured the thief, and at this writing he reposes in the lock-up.

Gov. Vance Speaks in Goldsboro.—Gov. Vance left this city yesterday, and arrived in Goldsboro at half past six. A large audience was soon collected. The longest for so short a notice since the war, and the Governor gave them one of the "best he had in the shop," amidst the greatest enthusiasm. The Democracy of Wayne are aroused, and there is good ground for believing that their entire ticket will be elected.—Raleigh Sentinel, of Tuesday.

LOCAL NOTES.

Most remarkable weather for July. You can't register on election day. A awful quiet on the streets last night. It's a mighty long time between circuits. The Good Templars will elect officers to-night. Nobody is so poor as to be unable to buy a watermelon.

The election is only one week from to-day. Have you registered?

The Board of county commissioners will meet next Monday.

There is still no clue to the negro who shot another in "Five Points" a few nights ago.

We call attention to the advertisement of J. N. Williams, manager of the beneficial association.

The lecturer of the National Grange Patrons of Husbandry, speaks in Charlotte next Monday.

College street between Trade and Fourth, looks like a sea of mud—just like it does in the dead of Winter.

Ye local historian perambulated the streets and alleys through the mud and rain to but little purpose yesterday.

Der Deutsche Gesang Verein-Harmonia wird ein Picnic nachstem Montag den 3 ten August, in Parks Grove nahe Wiseham's Mill, abhalten.

Our candidate for Congress speaks to-day at Big Lick, Stanley county. He concludes his campaign next Monday at Mt. Gilead, Montgomery county.

Notwithstanding the dog law, there are countless hordes of worthless pups in this city. In the name of humanity we ask, will not somebody please start a sausage factory?

It is to be regretted that Mr. Jetton could not find himself able to take part in the campaign which closed yesterday, but sickness in his family precluded the possibility of his doing so.

The wholesale and retail drug establishment of W. R. Burnett & Co., Charlotte, N. C., ranks with the first of the city in its line.—They do a large business, and sell at extremely low prices.—Lancaster Ledger.

Marriage.—Our townsman, Josiah Asbury, Esq., was married on Tuesday morning to Miss Mollie Farrow, of this city. The marriage ceremony took place at the residence of the bride's mother, and was performed by Rev. P. J. Carraway, of Tryon St. M. E. Church. Mr. Asbury left at once with his bride for a stay at the Warm Springs.

Arrest of Five Pointers.—Policemen Healy and Taylor made a raid on the Five Points last night and arrested five women. They were committed to the lock-up. We do hope the authorities will make war upon this iniquitous den until those who assemble there are forced to observe at least a partial decency.

The Speaking Yesterday.—The candidates for the Legislature, and Col. E. A. Osborne, our candidate for Superior Court Clerk, addressed the people at the Court House yesterday. The crowd present was much larger than was expected, and the discussion passed off pleasantly. The speaking was opened by Dr. Kerr, the independent republican candidate for the Senate. His speech did not amount to much. He declared himself opposed to the civil rights bill, and in favor of the settlement of the public debt on the most equitable terms possible. This is the Democratic platform, but Dr. Kerr said he was an independent republican, and inveighed against the Conservative party. He twitted the Conservatives for having supported Horace Greeley, and thought he used a great many words, the above of which he said.

Capt. Waring followed Dr. Kerr, and if there was anything left of the doctor's speech when Capt. W got through, we don't know what it was. There are few gentlemen in the State more thoroughly posted on the political topics of the day than Capt. Waring, and his defence of the Conservative party was a masterly one. Dr. Kerr made a feeble attempt at a reply, and after he had finished, our candidate again knocked him out of the ring. Dr. Kerr is but a child in the hands of his opponent.

Col. Osborne was next called for, and a little forward. He spoke at considerable length, and urged the necessity for united action in the coming battle. His appeal to the people to stick by the nominees, was a very effective one, and the speaker was frequently applauded during the course of his remarks. Col. Osborne is a most efficient and accommodating public officer, is popular with every one with whom he is thrown in contact, and will, of course, be re-elected to the office which he now fills with so much credit to himself and with such acceptability to the people of the county.

J. Sol Reid, one of the nominees for the House, was next called to the stand, and made an excellent speech. He reviewed the course of the Republican party, since it has been in power, in a scathing manner, and his arguments in favor of a change in the administration of public affairs, were conclusive. Mr. Reid is a man of excellent sense, is a fluent speaker, and will make a useful legislator.

Personal.—Our young friend, W. A. Moore, Esq. of Asheville, arrived at the Central Hotel last evening, with his bride, late Miss Cary Moore, of Athens, Ga. They were married in Athens on Tuesday evening, and will proceed this afternoon to Statesville.

D. J. Carter, Esq. editor of the Lancaster Ledger, is in the city. He's a good fellow, and it's a pity he had to publish a paper.

Rural Carolinian.—We have received this excellent monthly for August, replete as usual with valuable information for all classes, more especially for farmers. No farmer should be without this magazine.—There is no single number which does not contain one or more valuable articles, worth more to farmers than the two dollars which they have to pay for a year's subscription. Walker, Evans & Cogswell, Charleston, S. C., Publishers. Send for specimen copies.

Mayor's Court.—Jennie Martin and Jennie Wallace, two soiled doves, were before His Honor yesterday morning, on a complaint from the former that the latter had made a most unwarranted assault upon her. The evidence sustained Jennie Wallace's statement, and the other woman was fined $12.50. Jealousy was at the bottom of the affair. Jennie Wallace was bent upon the head and banged upon the eye, until she looked like she had been struck by lightning.

Direct Mail to Unlovelyville.—In accordance with instructions from the post-office department, a regular daily mail will henceforth go through from Charlotte to Union Court House, S. C. Route agents on the Air-Line Railroad have been instructed to make up mails for their trains for the place named, and in five hours after leaving Charlotte, mail matter will arrive at Union over the Air-Line, and Spartanburg & Union Railroads.

[COMMUNICATED.]
The Atlantic, Tennessee & Ohio Railroad.

Meas. Editor.—It may be expected that I answer the note of Mr. Guion, attorney for M. Childs, of this morning, in that he makes a direct issue between Col. Childs and myself in our interview of the 18th instant.

The day after my election, as President of the A. T. & O. R. I, addressed a letter to Col. Childs, at Columbia, S. C., asking time and proposing to execute individual notes with ten per cent interest, notes fully guaranteed, which he declined, but would compromise, he wrote, with "full indemnity." In answer I inquired of him the full scope and significance of the indemnity required, to which he gave no answer. On the 18th, at his room, in the Central Hotel, I stated to Col. Childs that, as President of the road, I did not have a dollar to offer him for his judgment, and, indeed, the road was still in the hands of the Receiver; that I would not assume the duties of President unless some satisfactory arrangement was made looking to a controlling interest in his judgment, and my purposes in interviewing him at that time, was in the interest of the gold bond holders, and took that occasion to formally tender him and through him to formally represent, the cash value of his judgment, demanding a transfer of his claim to the rights of the gold bond holders, which he promptly declined, saying that he "could do better." In reply I informed him that I should take the necessary steps to enforce his compliance.

This is a plain, unvarnished statement of facts, and I, therefore, an unwilling to believe that Col. Childs is a party to the special pleading of his attorney. The question arises, why this hitch? Mr. Guion inquires is there a ring in the matter? I reply, there is a ring of the friends of the A. T. & O. R. to save it from those who would devour it, and would ask is there a lawyer on the fence?

Yours, &c,
W. R. MYERS,
President.

STATE NEWS.

The Supreme Court expects to adjourn this week.

The Roanoke News learns that a little daughter of Capt. J. M. Grizzard, of Halifax, was accidentally cut by an axe in the hands of a boy who was chopping barrel hoops on Thursday evening. She was said to be severely injured.

Hillsboro Recorder: The still-house of Dr. James F. Cain situated eight or ten miles from town, was burned one night last week. There were ten or twelve barrels of whiskey in the house, whether that was destroyed with the building or handed off previous to the burning, is not known. The fire was clearly incendiary, as the still had not been in use for some time.

Speaking of Governor Vance the Raleigh News of Tuesday says: This popular orator was in the city yesterday, leaving yesterday afternoon for Sampson county, where he will speak to-day, reaching Greenville, Pitt county, Thursday morning at which time and place he is billed for a speech, and we doubt not he will startle the Cobles considerably. He has gone to Pitt with a view of helping Major Yeates, our gallant standard-bearer in the First District. Governor Vance will return to Concord on Saturday, where he will speak on that day. It was his intention to speak at Fayetteville at the mass meeting this week, but mistaking the day, he was necessarily compelled to disappoint the people of that section, or miss the remainder of his appointments during the week.

The assistant pastor of Plymouth church reports Mr. Beecher as being quite jolly. This was to have been expected. The man who wouldn't be jolly at the thought of being the chief proprietor of the most beautiful and extensive scenery of the age, must say a skin as thick as the epidermis of a rhinoceros.—Courier Journal.

News of the Day.

Among the recent examined candidates for admission to Harvard College were seven young ladies.

Steamers for Europe now leave the port of New York every day in the year except Friday's and Monday's.

Since the recent action of the New York Legislature in awarding the prize for the best invention of a steam canal boat, steam is rapidly superseding the horse as a motor upon the Erie Canal. One transportation company alone has four of the new boats running and four under way.

Tree planting on the grass prairies of the Western States has for some time been successfully conducted.—Besides the encouragement found in the advantage of timber growing, the planting of trees is also directly fostered by the United States and State laws, and in some cases direct bounties are offered the tree planters. It was at one time supposed that trees would not grow on the prairies, but this idea was long ago exploded. We are told that out of four million trees planted on the lands along the line of a Western railway, only three per cent, (or one in thirty-three), have failed. This is doing very well indeed.

Social Equality

PITTSYLVANIA, C. H., July 27.
Last evening as Mr. Hutchings, of Lynchburg, Va., was walking down the streets here, with an umbrella over him, a negro deliberately walked up and passed his arm through his and proposed accompanying him. Mr. Hutchings jerking loose, demanded an explanation. The negro answered by the inquiry: "Hill haven't you heard the civil rights bill is done passed?" Mr. Hutchings thereupon struck him with the umbrella. The negro made for a rock, but Mr. Hutchings was too quick for him, and picking up the rock knocked him down with it. The scoundrel then retreated.

Mr. Beecher, it would seem, if Mrs. Woodhull and others are to be believed, has long been a free-lover, but was afraid to say so. If, at the very start, he had said so, and Mrs. Beecher had everlastingly snatched him half-headed for the say-so, he would have been a much happier man to-day than he is.—Courier Journal.

It is with the greatest exertion only that we can harbor a doubt that all the parties involved in the Brooklyn scandal are guilty.—One may perceive, even with the naked eye, that the trail of the serpent is over them all.—Courier Journal.

Mrs. Woodhull seems to be anxious to be mixed up with Beecher Tilton scandal. Her presence in it is about all it wants to be made the dirtiest piece of business that ever rose or reigned or fell.—Courier Journal.

A Regular Habit of Body

Is indispensable to health; yet few disorders are more common than costiveness. By this term is implied a sluggish condition of the bowels, which causes them to retain their contents longer than is consistent with health, and renders the act of evacuation difficult and painful. Headache, dizziness, feverishness, a sense of fullness in the head, loss of memory, incapacity for continuous mental effort, and a general feeling of oppression in the abdominal region, are among the accompaniments of this complaint. The specific for it is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It is a famous stomachic and alternative acts beneficially upon the three principal organs connected with the processes of digestion, secretion and excretion, viz: the stomach, the liver, and the intestines. Torpidity of the liver is in most cases the immediate cause of constipation. Bile is moderately aperient, and if its regular discharge into the upper bowels be interrupted, obstruction accumulates and harden in the intestinal canal, and purgation becomes necessary. The Bitters, being anti-bilious as well as a tonic and laxative, soon restore the derelict liver to a natural condition, as well as relieve and tone the bowels. The result is the permanent establishment of a regular habit of body. No disorder of the stomach or its dependencies, no affection of the nervous system, no ailment involving physical weakness and mental despondency, can resist the renovating, regulating, purifying operation of this famous alterative.
July 29-1874.

An accident such as we trust may occur often happened recently at Nashville. Retributive justice visited a baggage smasher. He dropped a box in the manner of these gentry, and the nitroglycerine that it contained to contain spoke for itself. He now repents in bandages. It is all very well to say the explosive had no business there. But if it will be there occasionally and will teach them to handle baggage gently, we shall overlook the offence of the sender.

WELL, uncle Jerry, I have not heard anything from you in a long time, about the cheap cash business. What the matter? I'll tell you Bill; I have been waiting for some of the "Crushed Wheat" that you had ordered, and now I can give you and all others information that will be valuable to you. I got a two pound paper, Bill, for 25 cents, and packed one half of it according to directions, and it made a full meal for my whole family of ten. I went home hungry, and did not eat a mouthful of anything but "Crushed Wheat" for several days. I did not get more than my share. Well, uncle Jerry, you surprise me. You are right, Bill, for I could hardly believe my own self, but my appetite improved me. Well, uncle Jerry, I will go and try it, for I fear it's so good and cheap, it will soon all be gone.
