Free from the dotting scruples that fetter our free-born reason.

CONSERVATIVE NOMINEES

For Superintendent of Public Instruction, STEPHEN D. POOL, of Craven.

For Judge, In the Ninth Judicial District, DAVID SCHENCK, ESQ.

For Solicitor, In the Ninth Judicial District, W. J. MONTGOMERY, ESQ.

For Congress in the Sixth District, Hon. THOMAS S. ASHE.

Democratic Conservative Nominees FOR MECKLENBURG COUNTY.

For the Senate, ROBERT P. WARING.

For Representatives, J. SOLOMON REID, J. SUTTON.

For Sheriff, MARSHALL E. ALEXANDER.

For Treasurer, CAPT. F. E. BELK.

For Superior Court Clerk, E. A. OSBORNE.

For Register, WM. MAXWELL.

For Surveyor, J. E. MOORE.

For County Commissioners, THOS. L. VAIL, THOS. GLUYAS, R. L. DEARMOND, W. E. ARDREY, H. M. DIXON.

THE PROSPECT AT HOME.

Now that the decisive hour is almost upon us, and the contending parties are all in position on the political battlefield, a brief glance at "the situation" will be profitable.

Mr. Ashe will poll nearly the full strength of the Conservative party in Mecklenburg. There being no square-out Republican candidate for congress in the field in this District, Mr. Ashe will get a number of Republican votes, a sufficient number to counterbalance the few Conservatives who will cast their ballots for Davidson, the Independent.

Mr. Davidson will get a few Conservatives, mostly his intimate personal friends, and some of his relatives. Beyond that he has no strength in Mecklenburg. The Republicans are neither united nor zealous in his support. The more sensible and intelligent among them, black as well as white, can see through the thin disguise he wears, and are too smart to be fooled by any such half and half man. So we confidently expect to chronicle his overwhelming defeat.

The Pool and Funnell ticket has hardly been a subject of discussion. The vote here will be according to the strict party lines. Pool will run abreast with the regular party nominees. Neither of these candidates are much known to the people, except through their public records.

Schenck will poll nearly the full Conservative strength of the county. In the county he will lose a few scattering votes; and perhaps a corporal's guard of Conservative gentlemen in Charlotte. These votes—amounting perhaps in all, to twenty-five, will be counterbalanced by the Republicans, who, through the influence of General Barringer, will vote for Schenck in order to beat the infamous Logan. Logan's strength is almost entirely with the negroes. Only a few white men will vote for him.

Montgomery will run square up with Schenck. There were a considerable number of Conservatives in Mecklenburg who were disposed to vote for Carson. But it was under the impression that he was a good Conservative. Since the mask of hypocrisy has been stripped from his face, and his shameful double-dealing exposed, he stands not the ghost of a chance with the honorable men of this county.

As to the county ticket, the recent canvass shows that the party is closely united, and will vote the regular ticket almost solidly, from Senator down. The decisive triumph of all our nominees is almost an assured thing; there is hardly room for the shadow of a doubt.

But we are very doubtful on one point. That is as to the result of the vote for Coroner. The contest between McConnell and Stewart is close and exciting. And although we should delight to witness the signal triumph of that earnest, active, patriotic and unswerving Democrat, who has had the honor to be a justice of the peace in noble old Ireland, and who bears a banner inscribed with the underlying principle first promulgated to the world by "the elder Adams and the immortal Jefferson," yet we apprehend that Mr. Alexander, of Steele Creek, has been marked out by the hand of fortune as the winner of the race. McConnell led off in a way that presaged victory, but Alexander it seems is rapidly gaining on him on the home stretch.

IMPORTANT TO WHITE FOLK.

Senator Morton, of Indiana, has delivered a significant speech on the issues of the hour. Among other things said, he denied "that President Grant sympathizes with the Southern Democracy upon the subject of civil rights, and will differ with Northern Republicans upon that question." He said further:

"In his December message he expressly recommends the enactment of a law to better secure the civil rights which freedom should secure but has not effectually secured to the enfranchised slave, and I repel with indignation the suggestion that the President will prove false to the principles of the Republican party."

Morton is Grant's right hand man. Morton knows him well. So here it is plainly seen that Grant will not veto the Civil Rights Bill.

That bill is sure to pass the next Congress. There is hardly a reasonable doubt about this now—unless the Democratic majority in Congress is considerably increased this Summer and Fall.

We may calculate upon having social equality forced by law upon us next year. Such a law is pregnant with evils for the South. It is then of the very greatest importance to every decent white man, woman and child in North Carolina that we have a Legislature, a Superintendent of Public Schools, Congressmen, Judges, Solicitors, and County Officers, who are not in open or secret affiliation with the negro party. White Republicans are as much interested in this as white democrats, unless such Republicans stand on the Sumner-Bissell platform.

Carson, The Independent

Solicitor Carson claims to be a Conservative. "I am a Conservative!" he bombastically exclaims. Yet he acts with the Republicans, conspires with Logan, and obtains a nomination at the hands of the Republicans. None but the most wretched double-faced politicians do this way. His actions—his sneaking after Republican support, gives the lie to his professions. He is no Conservative. He is a Radical at heart, and if he does not act openly with the Republican party hereafter, it will be because he has changed his mind.

Carson claims to be an independent. He is so independent that he would not submit his selfish claims to office to a convention of white men; but in an under-handed way, through private letters, sneaks before a convention of negroes, mainly, and begs the nomination at their hands! That is Carson's independence! Carson's independence means opposition to the white man's party, and secret, sneaking, under-handed affiliation with the Radicals—the negro party.

And to conceal his shame, he tried to lie out of it. We have never in all our experience known such a case of brazen-faced effrontery, and deliberate falsehood. We doubt if a more thorough and consummate political hypocrite was ever before unmasked since the world began.

The best thing said at the Radical pop-wow yesterday was uttered by a negro speaker. He denied indignantly that Mr. W. H. H. Houston, Independent candidate for Sheriff, is a Democrat; said that he had come out as an independent, and that whenever a man does that he just as much as puts up his flag and says he surrenders. That is, he surrenders to the Republicans. Truer words were never spoken.

"Logan is the man for Judge." This sentiment coming from any other source than the Rutherford Star and Record would astound us, except from the mouth of Solicitor Carson. We were surprised to hear that as respectable a colored man as Burwell N. Johnson, had declared himself for Logan.

Joseph L. Carson is not an independent candidate any more than Kerr and Bissell. He is the Republican nominee for Solicitor. That nomination was solicited by him; and obtained by an infamous, under-handed, sneaking combination with Logan and the Republicans.

Says G. W. Logan, "If the people think I deserve to be sustained and re-elected, I will be thankful for their support. If not, I will bow to their will." Prepare to make your bow, Mr. Modesty. The people have not the remotest idea of electing you.

The Bynum referred to in Schenck's communication yesterday, is W. S. not Hon. W. P. Mr. W. S. Bynum was at the time he defended Abernethy a mere sprig of the law, and of course his opinions were not worth much.

The carpet-bag Governor Grant to send him troops. Election day is coming on. Grant positively refuses to grant the scoundrel's request.

Everything we hear from the various counties this Judicial District tends to strengthen our confidence in the decisive triumph of the Conservative nominees.

The Conservative party in Gaston county is said to be a unit for the nominees. Gaston is always on the right side.

CLEVELAND, RUTHERFORD AND POLK.

The prospects of Schenck and Montgomery in the upper counties are good. A private letter from Capt. Borders, of Shelby, to a friend of the OBSERVER, says, he had consulted quite a number of public men in Cleveland county; and there were various opinions as to the probable majority for the Conservative nominees for Judge and Solicitor. The lowest estimate made was 500—the highest 800.

Old Sheriff Green, who has canvassed the whole county, and been at every tax-gathering, says 800. Capt. Borders puts it down at 600.

Whatever it may be, it is very certain that the majority in Cleveland will more than offset Logan's majorities in Rutherford and Polk.

The prospect in Rutherford is brighter than was at first anticipated. Those who seem most capable of judging, assert that Logan will certainly run behind Caldwell's majority in Rutherford.

The friends of Schenck and Montgomery, and party organization in these counties are enthusiastic in the support of the ticket, and are working with that zeal and earnestness that is almost a sure presage of victory.

The Cabarrus County Conservatives will present, on Thursday, an almost unbroken line for Ashe, Pool, Schenck and Montgomery. Cabarrus is one of the most spirited Democratic counties in North Carolina. She always toes the mark.

[COMMUNICATED.]

Closing of the Canvass—Speaking at Dallas.

EDITOR DAILY OBSERVER: To-day the Canvass in Gaston county was concluded. The appointment of Messrs. Schenck and Montgomery brought together a large assembly of the best people from all parts of the county, and it is gratifying to know that they went away not only satisfied with our nominees, but also enthusiastic in their support.

Maj. Montgomery opened the ball with a most excellent and effective speech, that pleased everybody (except the royal family), and won for himself a host of admiring friends. Maj. M. has made a thorough canvass of Gaston, and having heard all of his speech we testify to that which we do know in saying that no stranger could have gained a stronger hold upon the affections of the people of this county in so short a time. His manly defence of Conservative principles has endeared him to the Conservatives, and his fair treatment of his subject won for him the respect and confidence of the honest Republicans. The Conservative party owes much to Maj. Montgomery and he richly deserves the reward he will most certainly receive next Thursday.

Maj. M. was followed by D. Schenck, Esq., in a speech perfectly aglow with eloquence. It would be impossible to do Mr. S. full justice in a mere pen sketch of his speech, and we will only say that his appeals for a return to our former standard of judicial excellence and purity were felt by all who were present, and his arraignment of Logan was a specimen of sublime invective.

Col. William Johnston, at the conclusion of Mr. Schenck's speech, entered the audience with several well conceived and well delivered remarks on general politics, which were listened to with marked attention, and made a decisive and lasting impression upon the minds of his hearers. We regret that time and space will not admit of an extended report of Col. Johnston's speech, so full of practical thought and good sense.

Gaston county is all right. We will give Pool, Ashe, Schenck and Montgomery a rousing majority next Thursday.

In the contest for the Judgeship and for Solicitor, the conservatives of this county are entirely united, and it is highly gratifying to all lovers of good order and in harmony of material, and to many true Republicans will give to Schenck and Montgomery a cordial support.

Everybody is anxious to assist in driving Logan into his former insignificance, and all desire that the "bob-tail bull" shall gorge at will in the green pastures of the "Mountain Deestrick." So mote it be! GASTON.

Carson and Montgomery.

Carson, the skeleton candidate for Solicitor, paid our county a flying visit last Saturday. He hired a horse and buggy, and spent Sunday in the neighborhood of Gold Hill.

Rumor says, that he was down in that part of the county, to get certificates, that Maj. Montgomery dispensed money to defeat the Conservative party in Hurley's election, and to attempt to prove, that the Major was a Bolter. Our people will remember that Carson made these charges in his "Bob Tail Bull" speech, to which, Maj. Montgomery gave the lie direct, and demanded the author. Carson swallowed the lie, but refused to give his author.

Our friends in the remote western counties, must be on the lookout for certificates, and will do well to remember that Carson did make these charges, and that Maj. Montgomery give them the lie direct, that Carson swallowed the lie and refused to give the author. Carson will be sure to make these charges if Maj. M. is not present to give him the lie, and we take this method of informing our friends as to the facts in the case—Concord Sun.

The Fayetteville Gazette pertinently says: "The 8th of August belongs to the country, the district and the State. Let every Conservative go to the polls, and vote and work—and watch his enemies. Let nothing stop you from the performance of this great duty on election day."

From the Petersburg Index and Appeal.

North Carolina. The gallant Conservatives of North Carolina who have been so hard at work for the past six weeks have fought not as men beating their air, and now that the decisive day of battle is at hand, it is gratifying that the aureole of victory is visibly hovering above their heads.

In the fight which closes at the polls next Friday, the advantages are all on the Conservative side, and unless the independents have done more damage than it ought to lie in the power of such creatures to accomplish, the victory of the party of Reform and Honesty is as certain as the rising of the sun on election day.

It is needless to remind our brethren across the border that Virginia is watching their battle with eager and expectant eyes, and with a heart charged with sympathy and with prayer. Side by side have the Carolinians and Virginians fought many a stout battle; and the bones of their fathers are mingled on the plains of the war of the Revolution, as the later heroes of Gettysburg and the Wilderness, of the Crater and the Retreat, and of a hundred nameless but deathless fields—some unhappy though adorned—are the near and dear kindred between whom there lay nothing even in life, save that imaginary line which divides Princess Anne from Currituck, and Greenville, and Northampton. So should our political fortunes be associated, and each regain and retain the liberties which lie under eclipse wherever Radicalism lifts a victorious banner. Confidently do we count on glorious news from the front on the 6th of August; and the glad report will convey no more sincere joy to any citizen of Raleigh than to the citizens of Petersburg and to the citizens in general of Conservative Virginia.

Day of Judgment. Of course no man can go to heaven who cheats and defrauds his fellow man by neglecting or refusing to pay what he owes, no matter what sort of excuse he puts forth. If the inability to pay is caused by laziness, carelessness of business, extravagance, or meanness, it makes no difference, the Devil will take such a defaulter just as quick as he will take the common thief and liar. The Raleigh Christian Advocate very properly remarks:

"There is too much looseness in these days in men's ideas about the sacred nature of their obligations to pay what they have contracted to pay. They measure their moral by their legal obligations and, escaping by the technicalities of law from the payments of debts, consider that they are released from all liability. Because the Sheriff, confronted by the exemptions which the law in its mercy allows for the good of the debtor's family, returns his execution with 'nothing to be found,' they think conscience will make the same return of 'nulla bona' to the moral forum, and that there the power of the moral law is exhausted. Because the Bankrupt Court after allowing its liberal exemptions, gives a full discharge from all legal liability for debts previously made, they consider that Heaven's Register grants a like acquittance. They forget that Heaven has no Bankrupt Act and no Homestead law."

READ, READ, READ. GREAT DISCOVERY.

Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint, MADE FROM Pure White Lead, Linseed Oil and Zinc, and Always Ready for Use.

READ THE FOLLOWING TESTIMONIALS:

From Prof W G Simmons, Wake Forest College, N. C., October 4, 1873. Mr C P Knight—Dear Sir: We have for several months been using your Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint on our College Building, and are well pleased with it. Through its use I have been able to save a large sum of money. It is superior to any other pigment offered in the market. W G SIMMONS.

From Messrs Englehard & Saunders, Editors and Proprietors "Journal." WILMINGTON, N. C., Dec. 26, 1873. We desire to call special attention to the advertisement of "Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint." We can recommend it from a knowledge of its merits. Some of the employees of this office having purchased some of this paint from Mr C P Knight, of Baltimore, have used it, and speak in the highest terms of it after a trial of several months. While it is as durable as ordinary paint, it has a much finer finish, and its cost and convenience will recommend it to all in need of paint.

From S Mc Gill, M. D. THE PLAINS, FAUQUIER CO. VA, Feb. 6, 1873. Mr C P Knight—Sir: The paint came safe to hand as ordered, 2 kegs, 5 gallons each, and 3 buckets, 1 gallon each. As practice was slack, I did the job myself. Two weeks (not counting) work, completed the house, two coats. I like the job myself. It is now generally conceded, that for "enamel," like hardness, and body and harmony of colors, there is not a handsomer job in the place. I saved sixty-five dollars by the operation—which is an item just now with the "Southern people." It should be generally adopted in this State. Any country lad can apply it. I have never doubted in such stock as "testimonials," but I feel so forcibly the great adaptability of your "Enamel Paint" to the wants of our people—in excellence of material, in beauty of color, and in the fact of its being "ready mixed," that I give you permission (if it is desirable to you) to make what use you think proper of this letter. Very respectfully and truly, S MCGILL, M. D.

From R W Rayne, of the Firm of Bartlett & Rayne, 48 Carondelet Street. NEW ORLEANS, January 29, 1874. C P Knight, Esq—No 93, West Lombard Street Baltimore—Dear Sir: It affords me much pleasure to advise you how well satisfied I am with Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint, having used all I bought of you in painting a large cottage (new) at Ocean Springs, Miss., and having found it to cover and work so admirably, and very far superior to ordinary metal paints, and colors not subject to fade, besides being decidedly cheaper. It is my purpose to send you another order for more very soon. Yours respectfully, R W RAYNE.

Always ready for use and easily applied. Sold by the gallon. One gallon covers twenty square yards, two coats. Specimens and Price List Furnished Gratis. Liberal inducements to the trade. C. P KNIGHT, Sole Agent, 93 West Lombard Street, Baltimore. July 23—6m
