Any information concerning him will be thankfully received by his distressed family. State papers please copy.

Hillsboro Recorder On Sunday week a gentleman was crossing a bridge across New Hope creek, in his carriage drawn by a pair of mules. In the carriage were his wife and two daughters. Upon rising the abutment, the mules became alarmed at the ricketty condition of the bridge, and began to back, bearing the carriage against the railing. The railing gave way, and carriage, riders, mules and all went over, fortunately catching in the tops of some low trees close by the bridge, which prevented material damage to person, mules, or carriage. The young ladies escaped with some slight contusions and much fright.— Grand Total 20,000 Gifts, all cash, 2,500,000 riage, and alighted safely on the

In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various orrans, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J.
