

JONES & PENDLETON, Proprietors. Sunday August 16, 1875.

A PROVERBIAL VERITY. Thomas A. Hendon, of the first district, has been elected to the office of Judge of the Superior Court.

THE AUSTIN WAR. The troubles in Austin county, Mississippi, is another of those unfortunate episodes of race which add fresh shame to the American Government.

Col. Rufin, it is said, was encouraged by Gov. Caldwell, to come out as an independent candidate for Judge, with a view of his being speedily elevated to the Supreme Court Bench.

John Pool has started a paper in Washington called the "Tocsin." Its object is to abuse the administration of Grant.

Most certainly the Independent candidate business has been a success in the part of North Carolina.

Let the lash of scorn fall upon the backs of such office-seekers who attempt to do more than the people are willing to give.

Had Mr. W. H. Houston, Independent candidate for Sheriff of Mecklenburg, been a general forger?

FAIR. Fights take place every day, but none of deeper significance than that which was fought in North Carolina.

Walton, however, was not to be tried. This affair always had spirit among the negroes.

Colored men have a right to vote as they please. It is very wrong, and very impolitic, for Radicals to attempt by violence to control voters.

The death of Col. Signer H. Rogers creates a profound sensation among the members of the legal profession of North Carolina.
