There was a beautiful trotting race on the Fair Grounds track yesterday evening, between J F. McLaughlin's "Shooting Star," and W J Black's "Cricket." The race was a mile heat, and was won by "Shooting Star," by 8 seconds-time, 3:01. The track was in bad condition.

Fight in a Saloon. He jabbered around right smart in Central Saloon last night, about half past ten o'clock, and wound up by insulting an Mr. J. G. Gaffney, of Gaffney's Station, on Irishman. Paddy popped him, one time on the Air Line Railroad, relative to the recent all there was of the fight. Nobody seemed to know the name of either.

He thinks see breeze as had been the chief mover in securing the delightful as the mountain air, and tatching conviction of Gaffney; we did say, without delightful as the mountain air, and tatching blue fish more exciting than catching moun-tain trout. Seventh District.

A friend in Statesville has sent us the official vote of the 7th Congressional District as counted by the Sheviffs of the several counties. The count shows that Robbins received 11,372 votes, and Cook 6,999-leaving a majority of 4,373 for Robbins. If we are not mistaken this is a gain of over, 2,500 for Mai Robbins, Improved.

The negro man, Gaddy, who was struck in the head with a rock in the Western part of the city on Friday night, was a good deal improved resterday. It is thought that his skull was not fractured, and if it was not, there is a likelihood that he will recover soon. His assatlant, Smith, who fied, im-mediately after throwing the rock, has not yet been arrested.

Pemperance Lecture.

Our townsman, Dr. T. J. Moore, has received an invitation to deliver a lecture on the subject of temperance in Statesville on the 3rd prox., and has accepted. The people of that town may prepare themselves for an unusually interesting and withal sensible address. Dr. Moore has his heart fully in the temperance cause, but he is not fanatical on the subject as some are. He appeals to men's reason and not to their fears. Thus his converts are genuine ones, and not those who backslide so soon as they get over their scare.

A stranger in Charlotte the other day remarked that he was surprised that a place the size of this had no better post office building. We have been of the opinion for some time that Charlotte is entitled to a better post office than she has. Wilmington has just had a new and elegant one built for her, one is soon to be built in Raleigh, and why not the Government build Charlotte a new one? The post office is now in an unsightly house, and one too small for the purpose. The postal business here is heavy, and we are as much entitled to a decent building as any other place. We suppose union passenger depot is.

A Curious Circumstance. One of the most singular things that ever fell under our observation, occurred in the OBSERVER job office yesterday. The pressman was running off a job on a power press. and the press being in rapid motion, one of the sheets slipped as he put it in, and missed Among the speakers at the Democratic | the form of type. When pulled off the roller, around which it wrapped itself, it bore the impression of a landscape, in some parts perfectly, with here and there broken ground, was perfectly plain, as were also the clouds which flecked the sky. This is one of those singular occurrences for which no one can account. It is certainly a curiosity, and can be seen at this office by those who doubt the story or are curious on the subject.

Street Fight. A fight occurred yesterday evening about sundown, in front of the furniture store of R F Davidson, on Trade street. The diffi-culty was between Sam'l Pettis and Jos Prim on the one side, and Wm Wedlock and George Herron on the other. The knocking was quite lively for a time, and a large crowd was attracted by the disturbance. No serious injury was done any of the belligerents, and they were parted before the fight had proceeded far. All the parties engaged were bound over to appear before the Mayor to-morrow morning. The origin of the difficulty, we learn, was the bringing up of a grudge which has existed for some time between Pettis and Wedlock.

Thief Arrested. The police yesterday evening succeeded in everhauling the man who, on Thursday night, entered the shoe shop of Mr E H White, and stole boots and gaiters therefrom. Some of the property was found vesterday evening in the possession of Austin Laue, colored, and other in the possession of John Davidson, also colored. They reported that they bought the goods from a white man named John W Williams, for whom a warrant was promptly issued. He was arrested and carried before Justice A H Martin, after dark. Bail was fixed at $500, and Williams being unable to give it, went to jail.

the jaw, and laid him out flat, and that was conviction of his son, of robbing the mails. We publish this letter only at Mr Gaffney's urgent request, not that we feel that we have done the young man any injustice or in any way misrepresented the case. The letter, however, contains a misstatement which it were well to correct: We did not report Mr. McDonald as having said that he his arrest."

The Warm Springs.

A correspondent at the North Carolina Warm Springs, writes a highly interesting letter to the Atlanta News, concerning a fancy dress ball which took place at the Springs on Friday night the 14th inst. The The crowd below. Springs on Friday night the 14th inst. [COMMUNICATED.] The Matter of Young Gaffney. GAFFNEY'S, August 21, 1874.

MESSRS. EDITORS :-I hope you will pardon me for trespassing on your time in a matter in which you have no interest, but one of vital interest to me and my son, now incarcerated in the Greenville jail. I saw a notice in your yesterday's paper saying that you had been informed by your postmaster, Mr R E McDonald, that he had been the chief mover, in the conviction of my son. Now, sir, I wish you to understand that he was convicted on circumstantial evidence entirely (protesting his innocence all the, time,) and greatly to the surprise of every one present. When the case was given to the jury there was but one opinion in the Court House and that was that he was innocent of the charge and could not be found guilty, and when the verdict was read out every one was taken by surprise and showed the greatest indignation Women wept that never knew him before and even the stern old Judge shed tears in passing sentence on him and advised his counsel, before he left the bench, to appeal to executive clemency which he did at once. Every one of the jury signed the petition and I am confident His Honor Judge Bryan has done so before now. Gentlemen that knew nothing of him voluntarily offered to sign the petition. I have no hesitency in saying that he could get five hundred signers to the petition in the city of Greenville alone. Every one present says it was a great shame, and that he ought not to have been convicted.

In conclusion I will say that he is not the oost master at this place but was only acting for the post master. He is a mere boy unacquainted with the ways of the world, and of a very frank open nature, and very liable to be imposed upon by the unscrupulous and designing. I hope you will publish this in vindication of his character, which I don't think has been the least sullied by this unfortunate circumstance as and best of the I refer you to Mr. McDonald for the truth of these facts and as I think he is an honorable gentleman I think he will endorse Inviting Sickness. A belief that violent purgation is the urest remedy for every human ailment prevails to a lamentable extent among classes of the community. It might be thought that the languid, the debilitated, the depressed, would know instinctively that their systems need toning, invigorating and regulating with some wholesome stimulant and alterative, and that a fierce cathartic is as unsuited to their condition as a strong dose of active poison would be to a man already laborate under the effects of some deleterious poring under the effects of some deleterio ablest living contributors to periodical litera-Hostetter's Stomach Bitters should be promptly resorted to by the invalid. Debility is often the foreruner of an atck of some acute disease, and to prostrate he strength still more by scouring the bowels, with a drastic evacaunt at such a juneture is to invite the immediate onset of the mpending disorder, and render the system incapable of contending with it.
