CITY INTELLIGENCE.

The Observer is the only paper published in the State West of Raleigh which gives the latest telegraphic dispatches every morning. Business men will please make a note of this.

"Free from that venality which corrupts the conscience or that pith which corrupts justice."

CITY BULLETIN.

Please hand in church notices to-day.

People who have time to sleep must have enjoyed last night.

Apples are very scarce. You rarely ever see any in market these days.

Summer visitors are passing through, getting back to where they left their flannels.

The so-called "express robbers" turn out to be a party of stone cutters, as was intimated in these columns yesterday.

Some folks had on their over coats yesterday afternoon, and some had fire burning in their houses. Et tu August!

"What is more unpleasant than always expecting to be dunned?" asks an exchange. Being dunned, we think, is.

Excavations for the foundation of Smith's new store is about completed, and the laying of brick will commence at once.

Mr. F. H. Ahrens has presented us with a bunch of eight tomatoes, in several stages of maturity. Rip, half-ripe and green, all being on the same stem.

Cotton is not so badly injured as some seem to think. One of our best farmers told us yesterday that an excellent crop will be made.

Mr. Adam Sier had his left leg, painfully hurt just below the knee, on yesterday, by a winch being tilted over on it by some men who were assisting him in carrying it.

We desire to have it understood that our editorial staff is not responsible for the poetry which appears in the advertising columns of the Observer.

We have heard the rumor in the past day or two that the Richmond and Danville Railroad Company will no longer term, surrender its lease of the North Carolina Railroad. We give this only as a rumor.

The new store of Alexander, Seigle & Co., it is said will be the store of Charlotte in point of architecture. We have been shown the design, prepared by Mr. Geo. Welch, and it is perfectly splendid.

A new postage stamp, to be issued to post-masters, for the purpose of affixing them to newspapers under the new rates, which goes into effect the first of next year, will shortly be forthcoming.

Excursion trains for colored people will be run to-morrow, on the C & A Railroad, from Columbia, and on the A, T & O Railroad, from Statesville, to the camp meeting now in progress at Biddle Institute.

To-morrow we hope to give a full description of the proposed 2nd Presbyterian Church. It is to be a beautiful building, an honor to the members, and will add much to the ornamentation of that part of the city.

We hear on the streets that the city authorities are taking steps to have the houses numbered. This is right and ought to have been done long ago. John Smith can now write No. 409 Trade Street, after his name with a feeling akin to pride.

Progress.

In 1800 the population of Charlotte was but 3,000, in 1863 it had increased to 6,800, and to-day it reaches considerably over 12,000, nearly doubling in four years. We believe there is no city in the South, which can boast of the same ratio of increase.

Making Clothes for Cadets.

Mr. J. S. Phillips, of this city, has the contract to furnish a number of suits of uniform for cadets at Horner & Graves' School in Hillsboro. There was no tailor in Hillsboro who could do the work and it was sent to this city.

Legal Tenders.

Postmasters are instructed that copper and nickel coins are a legal tender as follows: One and two cent pieces to the amount of five cents; three cent pieces to the amount of fifty cents, and five cent pieces to the amount of one dollar.

New School.

As will be seen by an advertisement in another column, Miss Hattie Moore and Misses Helen and Lily Long will open a select school on the 16th September in the building lately used for City Graded School. These ladies are all competent teachers, and we hope will receive the patronage which they deserve.

The Improvements.

There are eleven stores in process of construction in this city now, and even, with these the demand for business houses will not be satisfied. Two men are actually carrying on their business in tents, in consequence of the lack of better places. More store would be built this season but for the fact that workmen and material cannot be had.

Death of an Old Citizen.

Mr. Jacob Oldiron, one of the oldest citizens of Charlotte, died at the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. Jonas Rudisill, on yesterday morning at 6 o'clock A. M., and will be buried with Masonic honors this morning. Phalanx and Excelsior Lodges, A. F. and A. M., having been summoned to pay the last sad tribute to their deceased worthy brother.

Mr. C. was born in the year 1790, and was consequently at the time of his death, seventy-five years of age. He has been a resident of Charlotte for a number of years, and had become one of our ancient landmarks. Peace to his ashes.

Grange Pic Nic.

The senior proprietor of the Observer acknowledges himself under obligations for an invitation to be present and address the people at a picnic to be given at Caldwell Church, in this county, on the 3rd prox., by Graham Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, and the Sunday School and the pupils of Mr. Sollenberger's School.

Arrested for Beating a Woman.

The notorious Milt Bartlett was arrested by the police last night, for beating a woman named Mag Rice, in a brutal manner, at her own house in California. He was bound over in the sum of $50 for his appearance before the Mayor this morning to answer for the offence. The woman is considerably bruised up about the head and face.

North Carolina Railroad.

H. W. Fries, of Salem, has been elected to fill the vacant Directorship in the North Carolina Railroad. John R. Harrison, of Raleigh, and John A. McDonald, of Concord, have been elected to serve on the Finance Committee. These elections took place at a meeting of the Board of Directors at Company Shops several days ago.

An Embryo Beneficial Man.

A small boy had a "wheel of fortune" in operation at the corner of Tryon and Fifth streets yesterday. It was liberally patronized by the other small boys, who invested pins and lost them. When night came the youth who ran the machine had pins enough to fix up all the buttonless shirts in town. The Beneficial men ought to indict him for infringing on their charter.

Mayor's Court.

Thomas Klutz, colored, was before the Mayor yesterday, for drawing a pistol on another freedman, and giving evidence of an intention to shoot him. The Mayor imposed a fine of $12.50 upon the offender. This thing of drawing pistol, razors, &c., on the slightest provocation, has become altogether too common among the colored population. Every one convicted of the offence should be punished to the limit of the law. This would soon stop it.

Charlotte Institute for Young Ladies.

We could not comply with the polite invitation of Dr. and Mrs. Chapman to attend the soiree at the Charlotte Institute for Young Ladies on Thursday evening. We understand that the entertainment was of a highly pleasing character, and that the music rendered by Miss and Madame DeCastris elicited the warmest encomiums. For the reason that we were not present, we cannot make such a report of the occasion as it is entitled to at our hands.

MARRIED.

In Salisbury by Rev. David K. Bringle, Mr. Robert Barringer to Miss Latria Gaither of Mocksville, N. C.

"There's a bliss beyond that all the minstrel had told.

Where two that are linked in one heavenly tie.

With hearts never changing and love never cold.

Love on through all ills, and love on till they die."

Funeral Notice.

The friends and acquaintances of Mr. Jacob Goldiron, and Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Rudisill are requested to attend the funeral services of the former at the Tryon Street M. E. Church this morning at 10 o'clock.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Ready Mixed Paint.

We call special attention to the excellent testimonials of Mr. C. P. Knight, in reference to Ready Mixed Paint. Not having used the paint we can speak from experience, and we feel sure it is to the interest of all our customers, who desire painting, to test the same.

Inviting Sickness.

A belief that violent purgation is the surest remedy for every human ailment prevails to a lamentable extent among classes of the community. It might be thought that the languid, the debilitated, the depressed, would know instinctively that their systems need tonic, in invigorating and regulating with some wholesome stimulant and alternative, and that a fierce cathartic is as unsuited to their condition as a strong dose of active poison would be to a man already laboring under the effects of some deleterious drug. In all cases of physical weakness, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters should be promptly resorted to by the invalid. The operation of this inestimable vegetable restorative is three-fold. It revitalizes and reinforces the depressed nervous system, while at the same time it regulates the digestive and secretory organs and keeps the bowels free. Debility is often the forerunner of an attack of some acute disease, and to prostrate the strength still more by scouring the bowels, with a drastic evacuant at such a juncture is to invite the immediate onset of the impending disorder, and render the system incapable of contending with it. On the other hand, a course if the Bitters, commenced as soon as the symptoms of general debility manifest themselves, will in nine cases out of ten prevent the threatened attack and thoroughly restore the bodily strength of the patient. The cases of dyspepsia, liver complaint, constipation, dysentery, diarrhoea, rheumatism and periodical fevers would be comparatively few if this unequalled invigorating and regulating medicine were always resorted to as a cure for the bodily weakness and loss of vital energy which usually precede these complaints, and are, indeed, as a general rule, the precursors of nearly all acute and dangerous disorders.

Resigned his Position.

We learn with regret that Rev. J. B. Boone has no longer any connection with the City Graded School. We regret this because we know his place will be hard to fill. He was the father of the enterprise in this city, and by his ability and indomitable energy pushed it, last session, to a success which was gratifying to its friends. We hope, though, that the school committee will make an earnest effort to secure another Superintendent; and that, too, at as early a day as possible. We should esteem it a public calamity should this school be forced to a suspension, and we trust the committee will not allow it to go by the board.

Personal.

Col. T. M. R. Talcott, of the Richmond and Danville Railroad, registered yesterday at the Central Hotel.

Gen. R. Barringer left the city last evening to resume his duties on the Indian Commission, West of Asheville, and may be addressed for ten days or two weeks at Waynesville, Haywood county.
