CITY INTELLIGENCE

The Observer is the only paper published in the State West of Raleigh which gives the latest telegraphic dispatches every morning. Business men will please make a note of this.

CITY INTELLIGENCE

The moon did not rise last night until after 11 o'clock.

Campuses and watermelons are rapidly disappearing from the market.

CITY INTELLIGENCE

The street sprinklers, after a long rest, went out on the 29th inst.

Smith & Forbes greet our readers with an attractive advertisement this morning.

CITY INTELLIGENCE

Dr. S. J. Alexander, was married yesterday at the residence of the bride's father in Steele Creek Township, to Miss Mason Harris, daughter of Clark Harris, Esq.

CITY INTELLIGENCE

Messrs. Barringer, Wolfe & Co., moved yesterday into the new store which has just been built for them by Dr. T. J. Moore on Trade street, between McAden's corner and Wittkowsky & Rintel's.

CITY INTELLIGENCE

The lightning rod peddler left last evening, and briny tears bedewed our pillow last night, or rather, at this writing we expected them to.

CITY INTELLIGENCE

Some of the members of the German musical society were out serenading last night. They sing most beautifully. The voices are fine and the time kept is perfect.

CITY INTELLIGENCE

Ben Johnson (what's in a name?) and Laura Sharpe, both colored, were before His Honor the Mayor yesterday, for an offence. He fined the woman $5 and dismissed both.

Grange Pic Nic

There will be a picnic and speaking at Linwood, Davidson county, on the 12th inst., under the auspices of Linwood Grange, No. 279, Patrons of Husbandry. The senior proprietor of the Oasway in receipt of an invitation to be present and deliver an address on the occasion, and, thanking the Grange for the compliment bestowed, promises to comply if possible.

McMurray & Davis

From the extensive advertisement of McMurray & Davis, it will be seen that they are now receiving one of the largest stocks ever brought to the city for the wholesale trade. Mr. J. W. McMurray, of the firm, has been in the northern markets for several weeks, and will in a few days be able to present a stock which will compare favorably with any in the State.

Building a Trestle

The building of the trestle for the Carolina Central Railway, over Sugar Creek, near Phifer's mill, about a mile and a half from the city, began yesterday, under the direction of Mr. J. W. Lippard. This will be a two-story trestle, and so soon as it is completed, which will be in a very short time, all the material being prepared, the iron will be laid across it, ready in progress of construction now over the creek 11 miles south of here.

Proceedings of the Board of Aldermen

The Board met in special session on September 1st, 1874.

Present, His Honor, the Mayor, and Aldermen Howell, Grier, Heister, Johnson, Walker, Horah, Creswell, R. F. Davidson and Vogel.

Proceedings of the Board of Aldermen

The Mayor announced that the meeting was called to consider a proposition from Col. Fremont, Chief Engineer C. C. Railway, which was read and presented by the Clerk, in substance, as follows, viz: That the city grant to said company, for 30 years the right of way for cars, running from the warehouse of said company, through Tryon, part of Trade and College streets, to the depot of the N. C. and S. C. Railroads. The company to also have the privilege to run trucks through other streets, to carry freight from the Railroad depots, for merchants and others, and also to carry passengers. Such privilege, it was claimed, would result in great convenience and benefit to the city. The company proposed, as the motive power for said cars.

Proceedings of the Board of Aldermen

Mr. Howell was opposed to steam being used through the streets.

Mr. R. F. Davidson suggested that the plan might do good benefit to the city; it would injure the business of parties existing in the city, and the further discussion it was ordered, on motion of Mr. Grier, that the question be referred to a committee of six (Aldermen and citizens), to consider and report to the next meeting of the Board.

Proceedings of the Board of Aldermen

The Mayor appointed the following gentlemen to act as the committee referred to: Messrs. R. F. Davidson, Howell, Creswell, H. W. Guion, T. H. Brem and W. B. Myers.

The committee appointed to examine and locate the bounds of the Eastern end of Trade street, reported through Mr. R. F. Davidson, fixing the line to be the present front fence of J. W. McMurray and W. H. Housh's lots, and continuing that line to east boundary street. The committee recommended that Mr. J. W. McMurray be required to move back his front fence from this stone corner adjoining said boundary street.

Proceedings of the Board of Aldermen

Mr. Howell said he differed with the other gentlemen of the committee, and thought the street should remain as it stands, located by survey, and heretofore adopted by the city, and he presented a paper, urging his view of the subject, signed by various citizens living and owning property on the street in question.

Mr. Davidson explained that the committee made the report as a compromise measure, and that, as it considered, he considered the plan submitted, as decidedly the best that could be adopted.

Rev. Dr. Chas. Phillips

This eminent divine of our sister State of North Carolina, has been occupying the pulpit of Rev. Dr. T. D. Witherspoon—Tubbs-street church—for the past three Sabbaths. Dr. Phillips is a man of rich culture, ripe experience, and brings to the discussion of scriptural texts, a depth of thought, a power of logic, and a richness of illustration rarely surpassed. The earnestness of his manner displays the consciousness that he is charged with the "great commission" to preach the word of life to dying men. Among his many excellences as a preacher of the Gospel, is the absence of all attempts at intellectual display, oratorical effort—the mere sounding brass and tinkling cymbal. His words are words of soberness and truth, speaking ever of that life which is hid with Christ in God. Among the truly powerful sermons preached by him during his sojourn in our midst, was one upon this text: "If an that I am," which will long be remembered by all who were privileged to hear it.—Petersburg Index and Appeal.

An Important Case

On to-morrow, before Judge G. W. Brooks, of the U. S. District Court, will be heard a very important case. Certain first mortgage creditors of the Atlantic, Tennessee & Ohio Railroad having obtained a decree of foreclosure and sale against the said railroad, and being about to sell the same, the trustees for the second mortgages tendered the first mortgages, the amount of their debt, and demanded an assignment of the decree to them, on the ground that a sale at this time would prove ruinous to the interest of the second mortgages, and that all the first mortgages were entitled to their debt and costs. This demand was refused, whereupon the second mortgages applied by a bill in equity for a decree subrogating them, upon the payment of the debt, to all the rights of the first mortgages, and for an injunction to forbid the sale until this motion for an injunction can be heard. As above stated, Judge Brooks will hear the motion for the injunction at Chamber to-morrow. Messrs. Jones & Johnston, of Charlotte, appear for the complainants, and H. W. Guion, of the same city, will appear for the defendants.—Raleigh Sentinel, 1st.

Shoemakers on a Strike

There was a strike yesterday among the white shoemakers in the factory of Sample & Alexander, in this city. Their dissatisfaction grew out of the presence in the factory as workmen, of three or four negroes, and on Tuesday night the white men addressed a note to the proprietors, asking that the negroes be removed, and threatening to stop work unless their demand was acceded to. They received a note in reply, stating that, so soon as practicable the negroes would be discharged, that they preferred a force composed entirely of whites, but for the present they considered the services of the negroes as indispensable.

Shoemakers on a Strike

Yesterday morning, upon going to the factory and finding the negroes there as usual, the men turned and walked out, refusing to work alongside with them. Later in the day a conference was held between the men and their employers, and a compromise effected. The matter was satisfactorily adjusted, and part of the men returned to work yesterday afternoon; the others will return this morning.

The Carolina Central Railway

We might have added to our article in Sunday's issue, relative to the new freight cars being constantly received by the above company—a statement, the truth of which, we presume, is hardly generally known, and which is highly creditable to the officials of said railway. We refer to the fact that the entire number of new freight cars needed by the railway company, were contracted for with the Cape Fear Building Company, and are being built at the works of this latter company at Abbotsham, on the line of the Carolina Central Railway. Of the entire lot of eighty-five contracted for, about thirty were turned out in the month of August alone, and the balance will be completed in a few days. These cars, we are informed, are built in a stylish and substantial manner that would do credit to the oldest and best car-building establishment in the United States. In addition to these freight cars, the same company has contracted with the Carolina Central to build three mail cars, now nearly ready for delivery, which, from present indications, will prove equally as reputable to the manufacturer.

Arrested for Stealing Clothes

A negro named Dick McClure, was arrested yesterday evening about sun down for stealing a pair of pants, pair of shoes and a shirt from a negro about 8 miles below town. He was taken before Justice Martin, where the victim of the theft identified him as the stolen goods. Dick was jailed to wait until Judge Schenck comes along on his fall circuit.

State vs David Vance

In our report yesterday of the disposition made of this case, a slight error occurred. The following is the statement of Mayor Davidson, who sat on the case, regarding its present status. It is an extract from a note from him to us yesterday:

"When the case was returned before me Capt. Burwell appeared as counsel for Vance and asked me if I would try a final jurisdiction of the case. I told him I would not until I heard the testimony. When the testimony was examined, it was decided in Vance's favor, showing very clearly that Hamilton, the colored man, was the aggressor. I told Capt. Burwell I would not decide the matter then but would continue it until I heard the result of the wound inflicted on Hamilton. This is the way the case stands—continued."

Stealing Lard

Elijah Poole, colored, was registered at the calaboose last night for stealing lard from Messrs. W. N. Prather & Co., in whose employ he has been. He is the dumpy little darkey, so well known to our people. He will have a hearing this morning.

Personal

J. T. Sloan, Jr., a promising young lawyer of Columbia, was registered yesterday at the Central Hotel.

Dr. T. J. Moore left the city last evening for Statesville, where he is billed for a temperance address to-day. He will extend his visit to the mountains, and will be absent about three weeks.

Capt. R. A. Shotwell, Gen. J. A. Young, and Col. Chas. R. Jones, of this city, will be the speakers at the Grange picnic at Caldwell Church to-day.
