Protracted Meeting.

The series of meeting which have been begun in Tryon Street M E Church, bid fair to result in much good. Almost unprecedentedly large congregations attend the services every night, and the spiritual interest among the congregation is very great. Many persons have already given public syldence of penitence, and the serious-ness is increasing. As yet, Rev. Mr. Carraway, the pastor, is conducting the meeting alone, but he expects assistance soon.

The meeting at the Baptist Church has not yet closed. Services are being held nightly by Rev. Messrs. Stowe and Thompson. I begaringsate using a the circ asset

The Stockholders of the Air Line Road met in Atlanta on Tuesday, the 22d inst. The meeting was a brief one. It was adjourned the next day, subject to the call of the President.

The New Jail.

The building committee of the new jail have changed the location of the same. It was thought not advisable to build on the rear end of the lot where the present jail stands, for the reason that a secure foundation could not be found, except by considerable draining. The committee, therefore, purchased a lot on Mint street, in rear of the property of Mr. Sidney Reading, and there the jail will be built. Ground has been broken, and the work will go right ahead.

Negotiations for a Pastor. We understand that the congregation of Hopewell Presbyterian Church, in this county, is negotiating for the pastoral services of Rev. E. F. Correspondence between the officers of the church, and Mr. Flournoy, has been in progress for some time, and there is a probability that he may be induced to ac cede to the wishes of Hopewell congregation, and accept the pastoral charge of the church.
