

TELEGRAPHIC.

LOUISIANA.

New York, Sept. 29.—A New Orleans special says the final meeting of the conference committee took place at seven o'clock yesterday evening, when the "personnel" of the respective representatives was settled. The discussion during the evening turned upon the status of the two parties. The Conservatives were willing to admit violence on their part, provided the Republicans admit their intention to commit frauds. Much time was exhausted in the demand of the Conservatives for amnesty for the recent outbreaks. The Republicans said that a majority on this point was entirely beyond their power. The Republicans requested a cessation of any attempt at intimidation on election day or the dissolution of all armed organizations which might overawe colored voters at elections. At 11 o'clock it was announced officially that a peaceful election had been guaranteed by the Conservatives. At midnight a compromise was finally agreed upon. A delay of twenty days was allowed for the arrangement of the returning board as far as the Republicans are concerned. The Conservative members have been named already.

NEW YORK.

New York, Sept. 29.—Mr. Leevy, captain of the Irish International Rugby Team, publishes a letter which shows his disappointment that his and his compatriots' efforts have been unavailing.

I have done more for the party of the Irish Republicans to throw it down than any American Rutherford on the same terms upon which the match was shot at Creedmoor, the return match to be the same as the return match was which was shot at Dublin June 1873. The team to consist of not more than eight or less than six men at the option of the Americans, J. Bigbie of the Irish team, with a view to test the superiority of the breach loading over the muzzle loading rifles, they say that Saturday October 3d, a match shall be shot at Creedmoor on the following conditions: four or five men on each side to fire one hundred shots in all at 1000 yards, each man to have in addition two lightning shots, I, and my friends to use muzzle loaders and the opposite party breach loaders. No shooting to be permitted during the shooting by either side.

ELECTRIC SPARKS.

The shooting match at Creedmoor, Long Island, Saturday, was won by the Irish team in two scores.

The Treasury at Washington will sell half a million of gold each Thursday during October.

A dispatch from Pittsburgh says the striking miners are burning shanties to prevent Italian substitutes sheltering.

Captain Semmes, executive officer of the Pensacola navy yard, is convalescent from yellow fever.

NEW YORK.

New York, September 28.—A New Orleans special says the conference committee on the part of the Democrats decided last evening to accept the proposition of the Kellogg party in relation to the Board of State Canvassers, which is that the Democrats shall be allowed a representation of two on the Board.

TELEGRAPHIC MARKETS.

New York, Sept. 29.—Gold opened 93.

Cotton—Futures dull; Oct 15 1-16.

Nov 15, Dec 15 1-16.

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 29.—Cotton quiet unchanged, uplands 71; Orleans 81; sales 14,000 bales; speculations 3,000.

TRAGEDY AND COMEDY.

A Remarkable Story from Alabama—Congressman Sloss and His Wife Each Try to Kill the Other of Their Daughters.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., 26, 1874.

I have just received information of a remarkable sequel to the attempted killing of George F. Long by Congressman Sloss, at Tuscaloosa, Ala., early in the summer. Mr. Long, it will be remembered, had been paying his addresses to a daughter of Mr. Sloss, and according to general report, was her accepted suitor; but, being distasteful to the young lady's parents on account of looseness of recklessness of habits, had been forbidden the house and the lady's society. No sooner was this done than Long began to defame the lady's character, asserting in public, on numerous occasions, that she was unchaste. Informed of this on his return from Washington after the adjournment of Congress, Sloss proceeded to hunt up Long, and while laying in wait for him in a store on the principal thoroughfare, discharged the contents of a double-barrelled shotgun, heavily loaded with buckshot, at the tradesman as he passed by on the outside. Long was pierced with thirteen of the missiles, and was carried to his farther's house as a dying man, while Sloss surrendered himself to the authorities, by whom he was immediately, or soon after, released on his own recognition. Singular to relate, however, Long recovered in course of time.

And now for the sequel of the tragedy. Since the shooting, Miss Sloss, for whom and her father public sympathy has been unqualified, has lived very quietly at home, but movements on her part of late inspired her mother to keep a close watch on her, and it may be said that since the recovery of Long she has been a prisoner. On Wednesday, she complained of cold feet, and said to her mother she would go down stairs and get some stimulant, as she feared a chill was coming on. As she did not return within a reasonable time her mother followed to learn the cause of delay, and found she had left the house; also that Long had been lurking about the premises. Seizing a pair of pistols she started into the town in pursuit, and after some time arrived at a magistrate's office, but, in failing to be too late for a marriage ceremony. In the midst of a group of Long's friends stood Long and his daughter receiving the congratulations of many on such occasions. Enraged at the scene, Mrs. Sloss flew at Long and attempted to shoot him, but was admonished by the spectators, who advised her that she was too late, that the pair were man and wife, now, and violent conduct on her part would only tend to make matters worse. After further persuasion she accepted the situation with as good as grace as her feelings would permit, and returned home, while Long and the daughter proceeded to the home of the bridegroom's father.

Congressman Sloss, who is making a canvass of his district for re-election, was absent at the time of this occurrence, but has been advised, and is expected to return daily and make things lively again in Tuscaloosa. Long seems to have many lives. In several encounters previous to his shooting by Sloss he was desperately wounded and given up for dead, and on one occasion, while on a railroad train, going at twenty miles an hour, fell between two cars, and, being caught in some way, was dragged, bounding over the crossings, for nearly a mile before being discovered and extricated in a badly battered and apparently dying condition. At the present time he carries in his body bullet enough for a campaign, and is obliged every week or so to submit to an operation on his head, where he was wounded by Sloss.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Harmless Malady.

It is alleged by various editions of the newspaper that H. Webster, Stomach Bitters, has converted by the utility of their efforts to complete with the standard tonic of the W. Sterne & Company, that it contains alcohol. The allegation is true. A pure, and save strong, obtained in a sound non-alcoholic wine is one of its ingredients.—It lack of the stimulating effect of ether, and the compound is instead of animal, but it is a good, strong, and pleasant drink, and is a safe and healthful beverage.

I have done more for the party of the Irish Republicans to throw it down than any American Rutherford on the same terms upon which the match was shot at Dublin June 1873. The team to consist of not more than eight or less than six men at the option of the Americans, J. Bigbie of the Irish team, with a view to test the superiority of the breach loading over the muzzle loading rifles, they say that Saturday October 3d, a match shall be shot at Creedmoor on the following conditions: four or five men on each side to fire one hundred shots in all at 1000 yards, each man to have in addition two lightning shots, I, and my friends to use muzzle loaders and the opposite party breach loaders. No shooting to be permitted during the shooting by either side.

ELECTRIC SPARKS.

The shooting match at Creedmoor, Long Island, Saturday, was won by the Irish team in two scores.

The Treasury at Washington will sell half a million of gold each Thursday during October.

A dispatch from Pittsburgh says the striking miners are burning shanties to prevent Italian substitutes sheltering.

Captain Semmes, executive officer of the Pensacola navy yard, is convalescent from yellow fever.

NEW YORK.

New York, Sept. 29.—Mr. Leevy, captain of the Irish International Rugby Team, publishes a letter which shows his disappointment that his and his compatriots' efforts have been unavailing.

I have done more for the party of the Irish Republicans to throw it down than any American Rutherford on the same terms upon which the match was shot at Dublin June 1873. The team to consist of not more than eight or less than six men at the option of the Americans, J. Bigbie of the Irish team, with a view to test the superiority of the breach loading over the muzzle loading rifles, they say that Saturday October 3d, a match shall be shot at Creedmoor on the following conditions: four or five men on each side to fire one hundred shots in all at 1000 yards, each man to have in addition two lightning shots, I, and my friends to use muzzle loaders and the opposite party breach loaders. No shooting to be permitted during the shooting by either side.

ELECTRIC SPARKS.

The shooting match at Creedmoor, Long Island, Saturday, was won by the Irish team in two scores.

The Treasury at Washington will sell half a million of gold each Thursday during October.

A dispatch from Pittsburgh says the striking miners are burning shanties to prevent Italian substitutes sheltering.

Captain Semmes, executive officer of the Pensacola navy yard, is convalescent from yellow fever.

NEW YORK.

New York, September 28.—A New Orleans special says the conference committee on the part of the Democrats decided last evening to accept the proposition of the Kellogg party in relation to the Board of State Canvassers, which is that the Democrats shall be allowed a representation of two on the Board.

TELEGRAPHIC MARKETS.

New York, Sept. 29.—Gold opened 93.

Cotton—Futures dull; Oct 15 1-16.

Nov 15, Dec 15 1-16.

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 29.—Cotton quiet unchanged, uplands 71; Orleans 81; sales 14,000 bales; speculations 3,000.

TRAGEDY AND COMEDY.

A Remarkable Story from Alabama—Congressman Sloss and His Wife Each Try to Kill the Other of Their Daughters.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., 26, 1874.

I have just received information of a remarkable sequel to the attempted killing of George F. Long by Congressman Sloss, at Tuscaloosa, Ala., early in the summer. Mr. Long, it will be remembered, had been paying his addresses to a daughter of Mr. Sloss, and according to general report, was her accepted suitor; but, being distasteful to the young lady's parents on account of looseness of recklessness of habits, had been forbidden the house and the lady's society. No sooner was this done than Long began to defame the lady's character, asserting in public, on numerous occasions, that she was unchaste. Informed of this on his return from Washington after the adjournment of Congress, Sloss proceeded to hunt up Long, and while laying in wait for him in a store on the principal thoroughfare, discharged the contents of a double-barrelled shotgun, heavily loaded with buckshot, at the tradesman as he passed by on the outside. Long was pierced with thirteen of the missiles, and was carried to his farther's house as a dying man, while Sloss surrendered himself to the authorities, by whom he was immediately, or soon after, released on his own recognition. Singular to relate, however, Long recovered in course of time.

And now for the sequel of the tragedy. Since the shooting, Miss Sloss, for whom and her father public sympathy has been unqualified, has lived very quietly at home, but movements on her part of late inspired her mother to keep a close watch on her, and it may be said that since the recovery of Long she has been a prisoner. On Wednesday, she complained of cold feet, and said to her mother she would go down stairs and get some stimulant, as she feared a chill was coming on. As she did not return within a reasonable time her mother followed to learn the cause of delay, and found she had left the house; also that Long had been lurking about the premises. Seizing a pair of pistols she started into the town in pursuit, and after some time arrived at a magistrate's office, but, in failing to be too late for a marriage ceremony. In the midst of a group of Long's friends stood Long and his daughter receiving the congratulations of many on such occasions. Enraged at the scene, Mrs. Sloss flew at Long and attempted to shoot him, but was admonished by the spectators, who advised her that she was too late, that the pair were man and wife, now, and violent conduct on her part would only tend to make matters worse. After further persuasion she accepted the situation with as good as grace as her feelings would permit, and returned home, while Long and the daughter proceeded to the home of the bridegroom's father.

Congressman Sloss, who is making a canvass of his district for re-election, was absent at the time of this occurrence, but has been advised, and is expected to return daily and make things lively again in Tuscaloosa. Long seems to have many lives. In several encounters previous to his shooting by Sloss he was desperately wounded and given up for dead, and on one occasion, while on a railroad train, going at twenty miles an hour, fell between two cars, and, being caught in some way, was dragged, bounding over the crossings, for nearly a mile before being discovered and extricated in a badly battered and apparently dying condition. At the present time he carries in his body bullet enough for a campaign, and is obliged every week or so to submit to an operation on his head, where he was wounded by Sloss.

FLOUR! FLOUR!!

A NOTHER car load of the "Linwood Flour," including 20 barrels of the finest flour ever made in this market.—TRY IT! TRY IT!

R. B. ALEXANDER.

JUST RECEIVED.

"We die citronen blüthen"

Waltz by Steiner.

THE LATEST and only a few copies.

Come and buy them some.

PHIFER & STEELE.

see 26.

GOING NORTH.

ENTRANT CIGARIES, for 12 cents a box, at

PUREFOY'S

June 11.

200 BARRELS OF FLOUR,

4,000 lbs Tennessee Ham, on sale

wholesale and retail at

A. H. CRESWELL'S

Notice to Shippers.

THE PIEDMONT AIR LINE, with its Rail and water connections, affords unparalleled facilities for the quick and safe transportation of freight to and from Northern Cities.

Shippers can Choose the Following Routes:

By Rail to the Ports of RICHMOND, NORFOLK, or PORTSMOUTH, and thence by first-class lines of Steamers, to Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York and Boston.

THIS is the only line to Portsmouth of unbroken gauge, and, therefore, the only one which has no transfer.

ATLANTA DEPARTMENT.

RATES ALWAY AS LOW AND TIME QUICKE THAN ANY OTHER LINE.

Arrive at Richmond 22 p.m. in 11.04

J. A. WILSON, Agent.

GOING SOUTH.

STATIONS MAIL EXP.

Leave Charlotte 7:45 p.m. 8:05 a.m.

Air-Line Jct. 8:15 " 8:50

" Salisbury 8:44 " 8:52

" " Dobsonboro" 8:45 " 8:53

" " Danville 8:45 " 8:56

" " Dundee 8:45 " 8:58

" " Burkeville 8:45 " 8:58

Arrive at Richmond 22 p.m. in 11.04

J. C. S. HOLTON & CO.

GOING EAST.

STATIONS MAIL EXP.

Leave Greensboro 2:55 p.m. 3:11 a.m.

Arrive Sparta 4:10 " 4:16

Reidsville 4:10 " 4:51

Arrive Goldsboro 10:54 p.m. 11:30 p.m.

Express 11:30 p.m. 12:00 a.m.

Arrive at Charlotte 1:30 a.m. 2:00 a.m.

Arrive at Greensboro 2:30 a.m. 3:00 a.m.

Arrive at Winston-Salem 3:30 a.m. 4:00 a.m.

Arrive at Greensboro 10:00 p.m. 11:30 p.m.

Arrive at Greensboro 11:30 p.m. 12:00 a.m.

Arrive at Greensboro 12:00 a.m. 1:00 a.m.

Arrive at Greensboro 1:00 a.m. 2:00 a.m.

Arrive at Greensboro 2:00 a.m. 3:00 a.m.

Arrive at Greensboro 3:00 a.m. 4:00 a.m.

Arrive at Greensboro 4:00 a.m. 5:00 a.m.

Arrive at Greensboro 5:00 a.m. 6:00 a.m.

Arr