Goldsmith Maid-Some Particulars of Her Early Life.

The "Maid" was a wayward child .-From the date of her foalery on the form of John B. Decker, Wantage Township, Sussex County, N. Y., in the spring of 1857, to the age of six years, she distinguished herself in many ways, but neveras a trotter. She was under-sized, nervous, and fretful, and utterly refused heavy farm work. Mr. Decker, her owner, says he never got any work out of her but twice, one half-day in plowing corn and one-half im Western North Carolina. is 135x85, has been completely remodeled, and will, by the 5th of September, contain hitched to a harrow, but after a short IN future he will keep a large stock of State, but in the Southern States. We feel distance she reared backward and entangled both of her hind legs in the cross-piece of the harrow and so injured those members, that when she goes out for her morning walks, it is said she still shows signs of stiffness from behind, caused by this fall in early life. From the time she wassix months old until Mr. Decker sold her, she was used as a race horse, though without her owner's knowledge. The boys on the farm, of course, as boys do, were anxious to know which was the speediest.

His stock in the General Grocery line is horse, and at an early day they found it was the "Maid." And so, after the old man" had gone to bed, they would take her out of the pasture or specialties stable whenever a race could be made up, and run her on the road after be brought to run with her, so that ies, call and see Black if you want the worth finally none but the uniformed from a of your money. distance could be found to bet against her. On their way they met a Mr. Tompkins who knew the little mare, and bought her of them for $360. The two men also knew her and believed that she could be made a trotter, but were willing to make $100 by their morning's bargain. The next day Tompkins sold her to Alden Goldsmith, a good judge of horseflesh, of Blooming Grove, Ingrain, Three Ply and Brussel's Carpeting, Orange county, N. Y., for $600. The case of Wm. Webb vs. R. & D. R. R. Co., and the N. C. R. R. Co., was called at the Orange Court, on Thursday. The R. & D. R. R. Co., by their counsel, Judge Marshall, of Virginia, and Captain Ashe, moved to remove the case to the Federal Court, on a pe-tition under the act of Congress of 1866—providing for the removal of causes from State to Federal Courts in cases where one of the defendants is a citizen of another State and the action is brought to enjoin such non-resident | The only Reliable Gift Distribution in the defendant. The motion to remove was opposed by Governor Graham. Hon. W. N. H. Smith and Hon. Jos. B. Batchelor on the grounds that the R. & D. R. R. Co., is not a citizen of any State within the meaning of the act; 2nd, that the motion for removal must be based on an affidavit that such defendant cannot obtain justice in the Court because of local preju-dice—as the act of 1866 had been amended to that effect by the act of 1867. And 3rd, because under the act of 1866, the removal can not be made in any case where by allowing it the 11 right of the plaintiff to proceed to judgment against the other defendant would be affected or rendered nugato-

His Honor, Judge Kerr, after considerable argument, decided that the One Prize $5,000 in Silver I two last objections were good, and he denied the motion to remove. The counsel stating that Colonel Buford TEN PRIZES $100 in President of the R. & D. R. R. Co.,
