CITY BULLETIN.
Quite a number of doves of wild pigeons passed over the city yesterday, flying southward. They were passing, at intervals, all day long.
Every year, the health of Charlotte is improving. Physicians tell us that there is scarcely a case of sickness, which can be called sickness, in the whole limits of the city.
We have been enjoying a genuine Indian summer in this section, almost without intermission since the first of October. The season has lasted longer than any year for a decade past.
A raid was made on the premises of Gen John A. Young, a night or two ago. The thief secured a lady's dress, a coffee mill, a bed quilt and seven ducks, and made off with them.
The next meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association of Charlotte, will be held on Tuesday evening next, at 8 o'clock, in the parlor attached to the dental office of Drs. Alexander & Bland.
The Fair being over, and there being no immediate prospect of amusements ahead, we are on the ragged edge of despair concerning locals. Won't somebody do something?
Eat dinner about 2 o'clock, and turn around and then sit down to work and by that time you have to light the gas or a lamp.
Eight or ten bales of cotton; indeed the whole load excepting two bales, were tumbled off a dray on Trade street last evening about dark, causing one of the negroes on the dray to have a foot painfully sprained.
A man named D. C. Pharr, drunk and disorderly, was cutting up a large and varied assortment of antics on College street yesterday afternoon. He was harassed by the police and put in the lock-up, and now he don't cut up as many antics as he did.
The Board of Aldermen gave permission to the Carolina Central Railway Company to run its track through A street, under certain conditions and not across it, as we said yesterday. It is proposed to run the track alongside that of the North Carolina Railroad, through the city.
In our advertising columns, will be found the card of Messrs. Hall & Patterson, of Hickory. These gentlemen are young, energetic, and mean business. They live in the garden spot on North Carolina, and the commission merchants of Charlotte will do well to correspond with them.

Second Crop of the Year.
H. B. Williams, Esq., of this city, had in his garden, strawberry vines, which have borne twice this year. The second crop is just now ripening, and we were shown yesterday, several ripe ones, a green one, and some blossoms. The first crop is as sweet as those of the first crop. This is indeed quite remarkable.

The Fair of the Carolinas.
Most of the visitors at the Charlotte Fair this year, seemed to have gone there to enjoy themselves, rather than to see the exhibition, and to all such, we think it was a grand success. There must, necessarily, be so much sameness in the description of what is on exhibition at Agricultural Fairs, that we shall not inflict on our readers, an extended account of this one, having exhausted our descriptive powers on the State and Salisbury Fairs. The attendance on Thursday was very large, probably eight or ten thousand people on the grounds. There were more fast horses, and the racing was perhaps finer, than at any previous Fair. The articles in Floral Hall, were very creditable, but, then, the ladies, always perform their part. As was evinced at the State and Salisbury Fairs, the farmers seem to have taken little or no interest in the exhibition, consequently, the show of stocks and agricultural products, generally, was not such as might have been expected at the headquarters of the best farmers of the State, which Charlotte undoubtedly is. In fact, the farmers all over the State, seem to have lost all interest in the agricultural feature of these exhibitions, for what reason, we are unable to say.—Piedmont Press.

The Air-Line Railroad and its Difficulties.
The cloud under which this great thoroughfare seems at present to rest, is the cause of a good deal of interest, and how the difficulties are to be adjusted, is a question which meets with considerable discussion. In order to get some idea of the probable result of the litigation, we called yesterday upon Hon. R. Y. McAden, one of the Vice Presidents of the company—a gentleman interested not only as an officer, but as a large stockholder in the company. Mr. McAden does not attach very great importance to the late seizure of the road. Col. Buford, the President, Mr. Roberts, the Vice President of the Pennsylvania Central, and Mr. Howard, the attorney of the last named company, have gone to Atlanta, to investigate the late movement upon the road, and to use their efforts to untangle the web which has been thrown around it, and it is probable they will be, in a measure, successful. The foreclosure of the mortgage will be fought to the last ditch, and the Pennsylvania Central will, if necessary, contest the case as far as the Supreme Court of the United States. Mr. McAden thinks that the Pennsylvania Central will fight the case to the bitter end, and prevent, if possible through any human agency, the foreclosure of the mortgage.
We are led to hope that the stockholders will not lose all the money which they invested in this enterprise. A lengthy litigation, we think, is likely to follow upon the heels of the late seizure, and the road, we suppose, will be thrown into the hands of a receiver, while the property is in dispute.
In regard to the present management of the company, the Atlanta Herald of Wednesday, has the following:
"Day before yesterday afternoon, when Mr. Garner took possession, he closed the office of Mr. Wellford, who has been acting as Managing Director, and when he came, Mr. Garner refused him admission. He therefore broke the door open.
"Yesterday morning, Mr. Garner had Mr. Wellford's things removed from the office, and denied him admission on any circumstances. Mr. Garner remains at the office in the depot all the time, and is quietly running the road as if nothing had happened.
"The men on the road have gone to work with renewed vigor, believing they will receive their wages at an early day."

Who Commits the Crimes.
There are now 28 negroes in jail in this city, awaiting trial at the next term of Mecklenburg Court, which begins next Monday week. There are not more than two or three white men for trial. And so it is all the time. Nearly all the offences against the law are committed by negroes, while the whites pay the taxes and foot the bills of these vagabonds while they are in the county jail, and then pay for their transportation to the Penitentiary. But the Southern whites are great barbarians, and the life and property of Republicans are not safe among them.

Change of the Markets.
A change will take place on Monday next, 16th inst., in the schedule of the Carolina Central Railway. On and after that day, the train going west will leave Charlotte at 8 A. M. instead of 3 P. M., as now; and returning, arrive at 4:30 P. M. instead of at 10 A. M.

Hymenial.
WILSON-WITHERSPOON.—Married, on the evening of the 11th inst., at the residence of Mrs. Hamilton Witherspoon, in Sumner county, S. C., by the Rev. W. J. McKay, Mr. Geo. E. Wilson, of Charlotte, N. C., and Miss Bessie Witherspoon.
The young couple arrived at the home of the groom, in this city, by special train over the Charlotte, Columbia & Augusta Railroad, yesterday morning about 9 o'clock. The relatives and friends of this pair have reason to rejoice over their nuptials. Miss Witherspoon is quite well known in Charlotte, and on previous visits here has shown as a bright star in society; her true womanly character, accomplishments and refined manners, added to her great personal beauty, have won for her no little of love and admiration.
Mr. Wilson is a young gentleman of intellectual culture and fine accomplishments. He is a young lawyer of decided promise, and has already more than once acquitted himself with credit when he measured arms with some of the brightest lights of the Charlotte bar.
If the gods have any particularly choice gifts for newly married pairs, we invoke them upon this couple. May calm and sunshine ever hallow their clasped hands, and may they see no cloud without a silver lining.
This evening at 8:30 o'clock, a reception of the friends of the families of the bride and groom, will be held at the residence of Hon. J. H. Wilson, the father of the latter.

The Sunny South.
The first number of this weekly journal, published in Atlanta, Ga., by the Southern Publishing Company, is on our table. We pronounce it one of the handsomest sheets in the whole country. The type is clear and good, and the general appearance very attractive. It has a beautiful head, upon which it is announced that the journal is devoted to literature, romance, science, education, temperance and southern progress. The present number contains several wood cuts, which are well executed. Its contents are varied and attractive, consisting of original stories, poems, essays, anecdotes, etc. The Sunny South is owned and edited by Mr. John H. Seals.

Gaston Court.
In session this week, Judge Schenck was confined to his room all day Wednesday by sickness, and there was no court in consequence. The criminal docket was cleared by Tuesday except of one case. The case of John Moore, for the homicide of his brother-in-law, a man named McGinnis, near Cherryville, some months ago, a full report of which case was published in the OBSERVER at the time, was moved to Mecklenburg upon the affidavit of defendant that he could obtain justice in Gaston. Moore's daughter Ella, was indicted as accessory to the crime, and will be tried at the same time. The trial was set for Thursday of the first week of court. Hons. Z. B. Vance and Plato Durham and B. C. Cobb, Esq., are counsel for the defendants.
Several Charlotte people were at Gaston Court. The Charlotte lawyers in attendance were: Gen R. D. Johnston, Col John E. Brown, Gov Vance and J. H. Wilson, Esq.

Becomes a Resident of Raleigh.
Our friend Johnstone Jones, Esq., until recently editor of the OBSERVER, left this city last evening to become a resident of Raleigh. He has accepted the position of political editor of the State Agricultural Journal. We regret exceedingly to lose Mr. Jones from Charlotte, and know that we express the sentiments of the community in saying this. He is a gentleman of fine talent and a young editor who has already taken a stand among the leading journalists of the State. We hope, and believe, that he will add to his list of friends in Raleigh, until he has as many as he leaves in Charlotte. In parting with Mr. Jones, we do so with regret and our very best wishes for his success in all his undertakings, go out with him.

Cape Fear Agricultural and Mechanical Fair.
We learn from Col. S. L. Fremont, President, that the following Vice Presidents for Mecklenburg county, have been appointed in compliance with a resolution of the Directors: Col. John L. Brown, Col. W. R. Myers, and J. Turner Tate, Esq.—Wilmington Star.

Public Lecture.
It will be observed by a correspondence published elsewhere in this paper, that Mr. Ben. Z. Dutton, the editor of Phos and Phosicks, Atlanta, will lecture at the Court-House this evening at 8 o'clock. What his subject will be has not yet been divulged, but we are assured that the lecture will be well worth the price of admission, 25 cents. Mr. Dutton is a humorist of no mean order, and we feel confident that all who go will be well entertained. The proceeds will be devoted to some charitable object in all probability the City Graded School (no warmer one could be found), and this should be an additional inducement to the public to attend the lecture.

Personal.
Dr. Chas H Roberts, President of the Carolina Central Railway Company, and Col S L Fremont, Superintendent of the same, both arrived at the Central Hotel last evening.
W H Willard, Esq., President of the Raleigh National Bank, was registered yesterday at the Central.
The C. M. I. at the Columbia Fair.
The Columbia Phoenix, of yesterday says: "The cadets of the Carolina Military Institute, under the command of Col J. P. Thomas, Superintendent, arrived by yesterday's Charlotte afternoon train, and were received at the Fair Grounds in appropriate addresses by Gen. Gary and Major Woodward, President of the Society, to which Col Thomas replied in acknowledgement of the courtesy. These youthful scholars and embryo soldiers went through the exercises of drilling in a highly satisfactory and beautiful manner, reflecting credit on their assiduity and on the skill of their instructors."
Col. Thomas returned last evening with the cadets, of whom there were 90, and academic exercises will be resumed at once.

PUBLIC LECTURE.
MR. M. Z. DUTTON, EDITOR PHUNN & PHACKS.
Dear Sir: We the undersigned citizens of Charlotte, respectfully request that you deliver a lecture on Fun and Pains, or any other subject you may deem proper, before you bid farewell to our city, feeling, as we do, that your genial countenance and congenial smiles will drive away gloom, and beautifully tinge the clouds of sorrow, with a misgiving lining.
Very respectfully,
H B Williams, G W Chalk,
W F Purdie, H A Brown,
W F Culbertson, J Brookfield,
Jno A Keith, W N Prather,
G A Kiser, J S M Davidson,
G C Mayer, B R Grey,

T W Allison, H G McWhirter,
J Lindy, J Bloom,
Jas G Leary, W G Peaty,
J B Magill, Geo Lister,
W C Bell, W M Cowell,
and many others.
Messrs. WILLIAMS, PERDUE AND OTHERS,
Gentlemen: In reply to your polite note of the 12th inst., I will say that when it is in my power to dispense gloom, and brighten hopes, I am ever ready to respond, and will accept your invitation, providing that the proceeds be turned over to either the Sheriff of the County, or Mayor of the City, and be appropriated to charitable purposes.
Therefore, I would designate the Court House as the place for the lecture, and fix a date evening, Nov. 13th, at 8 o'clock P. M., the time.
Your obedient servant,
nov13-14. BEN. Z. DUTTON.

THE SUN.
WEEKLY, AND DAILY FOR 1875.
The approach of the Presidential election gives unusual importance to the events and developments of 1875. We shall endeavor to describe them fully, faithfully, and fearlessly.
THE WEEKLY SUN has now attained a circulation of over thirty thousand copies. Its readers are found in every State and Territory, and its quality is well known to the public. We shall not only endeavor to keep it up to the old standard, but to improve and add to its variety and power.
THE WEEKLY SUN will continue to be a thorough newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in it, condensed when unimportant, at full length when of moment, and always, we trust, treated in a clear, interesting and instructive manner.
It is our aim to make the WEEKLY SUN the best family newspaper in the world. It will be full of entertaining and appropriate reading of every sort, but will print nothing to offend the most scrupulous and delicate taste. It will always contain the most interesting stories and romances of the day, carefully selected and legibly printed. The Agricultural Department, a prominent feature in the WEEKLY SUN, and its articles will always be found fresh and useful to the farmer.
The number of men independent in politics is increasing, and the WEEKLY SUN is their paper especially. It belongs to no party, and obeys no dictation contending for principle, and for the election of the best men. It exposes the corruption that disgraces the country and threatens the overthrow of republican institutions. It has no fear of knives, and seeks no favors from their supporters.
The markets of every kind and the fashions are regularly reported in its columns. The price of the WEEKLY SUN is one dollar a year for a sheet of eight pages, and fifty-six cts. As this barely pays the expense of paper and printing, we are not able to make any discount or allow any premium to friends who may make special efforts to extend its circulation. Under the new law, which requires payment of postage in advance, one dollar a year, with twenty cents the cost of prepaid postage added, is the rate of subscription. It is not necessary to get up a club in order to have the WEEKLY SUN at this rate. Any one who sends one dollar and twenty cents will get the paper, post-paid, for a year.
We have no circulating agents.
THE WEEKLY SUN—Eight pages, fifty-six columns. Only $1.20 a year, postage prepaid. No discounts from this rate.
THE DAILY SUN—A large four-page newspaper of twenty-eight columns. Daily circulation over 120,000. All the news for 2 cents. Subscription, postage prepaid 50 cents a month, or $4.50 a year. Clubs of 10 or over a discount of 50 per cent.
Address: "THE SUN," New York City, nov13-14.

BUCKWHEAT FLOUR.
Fourteen hundred lbs. Extra New Hulled Buckwheat, rec'd today.
J. S. M. DAVIDSON, City Grocer, Trade Street, nov13-14.

HOUSE AND LOT FOR SALE.
As agents for Mr. William Johnston, we offer for sale, privately, the House and Lot on Graham Street, opposite Col. E. A. Osborne's residence, lately occupied by him. The Dwelling contains six rooms, a good garden, well water, &c., and is situated in a good part of the city.
Apply to ALEXANDER, SEIGLE & CO., nov12-14.

GOVERNOR BROGDEN.
Like other mortals, desires to live on the fat of the land, and to take this method to inform him that we have a large stock of goods in our line, and would notify him that he HAS APPOINTED
no Saleman in Charlotte, to look after his interests here. Under these circumstances, we desire to state to him, and our citizens generally, that on Thursday, November 20th, and at all other times, we will keep a full stock of choice Bananas, Oranges, Lemons, and Northern Apples, and a large supply of Cigars and Tobacco, suitable for Thanksgiving Day, at the White Front, opposite the Court House, nov12-14.

PUBLIC SALE.
On Tuesday, the 1st day of December, (being Tuesday of Court week) at my house in Statesville, I will offer for sale to the highest bidder, a lot of valuable Household and Kitchen Furniture.
A good work or saddle horse, one nearly new one or two horse wagon, with both shafts and tongue, a patent feed cutter, a lot of
FARMING UTENSILS.
And many other articles not necessary to enumerate.
At the same time and place, if not sold privately, I will offer for sale to the highest bidder, a rare bargain, in a House and Lot, within the suburbs of Statesville. The Dwelling House is a new two-story building, containing six rooms, passage ways, well arranged pantry, porches in front, piazza in the rear, with large and commodious basement, under the L, with a good cellar under the main part of the building. The dwelling, barn, &c., are all new, and are situated within three hundred yards of the Court House, and the centre of town. Only a few hundred yards from Simonton Female College, and within a short distance of Statesville Male Academy, within hearing of the bells of the Presbyterian, Methodist and Episcopal churches.
The premises include a well improved lot, and land enough for a small farm, with a well of water in the yard, but satisfactory arrangements will be made with a bona fide purchaser on the payment of part of the purchase money. On the Dwelling House, there is a policy of insurance against fire, for twelve hundred dollars, which does not expire until February, 1876, and which will be transferred to the purchaser, without extra charge.
My reasons for selling are that, having bought THE CHARLOTTE OBSERVER, I desire to change my residence.
