NO PAPER TO-MORROW.
Thanksgiving days come like an oasis in the broad desert of daily journalism, where the weary traveler can rest under the shade of labors performed, and calmly look back over that part of the journey which has already been traveled, and as leisurely meditate on the distance yet to be journeyed over.
In the absence of one editor for the past week the one at the wheel has had to do more than double duty, and a day of rest will be grateful to him. The printers too who have worked early and late that our readers should be able to get the Observer at the same time that they take their coffee at breakfast, demand a little relaxation, and we unhesitatingly accord them one day for this purpose, and as we write this we secretly bless somebody for inviting Thanksgiving days, and thank our Republican President and Governor for ordering their observance.
CITY BULLETIN.
Moonlight nights now.
The "Little Workers" will have a Festival Friday night at Mr. Parrott's store.
Eighty-five arrivals at the Central yesterday and today still not happy.
Telegrams to this city yesterday announcing the appointment of Mr. John B. Peck as the new Mayor of Transportation on the Air-Line Railroad under the new regime.
The newspapers who have nothing else to talk about, are predicting a cold winter. When we look at our wood-pile, we get dreadfully alarmed, lest them prognostications may prove true.
We heard a young lawyer complaining the other day that the older lawyers were getting all the legal business, but he consoled himself with the thought that his time was coming as he would "soon be bald-headed."
Religious Notice.
St. Peter's (Catholic) Church open for service to-day (Thanksgiving day) at 11 A. M.
The Burger Family.
It will please our people to know that letters received in this city yesterday, inform us that the Swiss Bell Ringers are heading this way, with the finest company which they have ever brought to Charlotte.

Negligent.
Letters addressed to the following named persons were dropped into the Post Office yesterday without having the necessary pictures of the "greatest government the world ever saw" affixed thereon:
Mrs. J. T. Lowrey, Norcross, Ga.; Messrs. Twitty Bros., Spartanburg, S. C.; Mr. A. Blakely, Wadesboro, N. C.; Mr. W. F. Bryant, Fayette Depot, S. C.; W. P. Swarringer, Lancaster, C. H. & C.
"Two Dollars and a Half."
Says the Wilmington Journal, will carry visitors to the Fair from all points along the Carolina Central Road from Shelby to Wilmington and return. These rates are as liberal as could be asked; and we trust the occasion will be improved by our up-country cousins, to pay a visit to their low-country cousins, and to cultivate those ties of amity and intercourse which shall hereafter bind these widely separated regions.
Child Burnt.
On yesterday a negro man named Anderson McDonald, who resides a mile or so from the city on the Roswell's Ferry road had an infant daughter burnt to death in his cradle. It seems that the child had been left in charge of a nurse, who in turn had placed the child in its cradle, and left the house. After being absent for an hour or two she returned to find that by some means, the cradle or the bed clothing had accidentally caught fire, and the child was burnt to a crisp.
The Convention Question.
The question of the call of a convention of the people of North Carolina, to alter or amend the present constitution of the State, was not one of the issues before the people at their last election, but it was sprung immediately after it became known that the Conservative party had carried the elections by a very heavy majority, and has thus far elicited quite a discussion among the newspapers of the State, and the politicians. Except in one or two communities, the people have not spoken on the subject. We have been in favor of a convention all the time, and our notions on that subject have undergone no change, provided the people are willing to take the responsibility. There is no question about the calling of a convention, except as a question of expediency. The Conservatives have a majority in the State, and an overwhelming majority in the Legislature. If a convention shall be called, it must be called by that party, and will be held directly responsible for everything it does. We have got into power because of the corruption of our political enemies, and we have gained that power by promising to the people, honesty of government, and retrenchment, economy and reform in all its branches. If we shall fall in with the people's expectations, we shall come before them two years from now with rather bad grace. We merely make these suggestions by way of caution. We are individually and personally in favor of a convention, and believe it would be better to have one than not, if we can do so, and keep perfect harmony with our ranks. In talking with a number of our people during Court this week, we find quite a feeling against the calling of a convention, and we are satisfied that such a course will produce discord in the Conservative ranks. In the minds of some there seems to be an indefinable dread that any convention called now would tamper with the homestead provision of our present constitution, and they are opposed to the calling of any convention where there is a probability that we may lose what we have gained.

We hope the Legislature will act very cautiously about this matter. If the members, in their wisdom, shall see proper to call the Convention, we shall favor it.

City Taxes.
In another column we publish an advertisement by the city Marshal, calling upon the citizens of Charlotte for the Taxes long since due. We are assured that he means business, and the sooner delinquents walk up to the Captain's office and settle, the sooner a weighty and perhaps troublesome matter will be understood that the city is badly behind in meeting the ordinary expenses of the city government. This ought not to be in the most prosperous city in the State. We have been informed that the police even have not been paid off.
Revenue Seizure.
Special Agent, T. D. McAlpine, and Deputy Marshal, Hodges, of the United States Internal Revenue service, seized a lot of un-stamped tobacco in Salisbury yesterday. Report says they found the tobacco packed in flour barrels, which were in the smoke house of Mr. T. J. Foster. Mr. F. was arrested and brought before U. S. Commissioner, F. W. Abrams, for preliminary examination charged with an attempt to defraud the U. S. Government. He waived an examination and gave bond for his appearance at Court. We understand that Mr. F. claims that he knew nothing of the tobacco; was not the owner thereof and that the tobacco was placed in his smoke house, by some person unknown to him, and the officers of government informed of its whereabouts with a view of getting him into trouble. We heard of the affair about dark last night and were not able to get any further particulars.
A Spicy Editorial.
Of all the places, we wot of, Danbury must be a perfect elysium for newspapers. We judge so after reading the following in the last Danbury Reporter, published as editorial. The fact that we have read it repeatedly for the past two decades, doesn't make it lose any of its force:
THE WAY SUGS GOT HIS BOTTLE FILLED.—Sugs passing a place a few days since, where they kept liquor to sell by the quart, being very dry, and not having the money to get a drink, fell on the following plan, he had two empty bottles in his pocket, so he stopped at the branch and filled one of the bottles with water, then went strolling up to the dram shop and handed the empty bottle to the bar-keeper to fill with his best, crammed it into his pocket and told the bar-keeper that he would pay him the next time he passed. No says he pay me now, or give back that whiskey, Sugs hauled out the bottle of water and the exasperated "Tapster" gurgled it into the large mouthed jug from which he had taken it, and Sugs went on his way rejoicing and as soon as out of sight had a good time drinking off it.

Personal.
We had a pleasant call yesterday from Mr. E. B. Murray, editor of the Anderson (S. C.) Conservator. He is in the city in the interests of his paper.
W. L. Springs, Esq., of Philadelphia, Pa., formerly a resident of this city, is now on a visit to his relatives here. He is the father of the young man who edits the Mount Airy Watchman with some ability.
Capt. A. P. Pope, Col. S. L. Fremont and Capt. V. Q. Johnson, all railroad men, were registered at the Central last night, and the arrivals in the legal profession was augmented by Col. Jno. F. Hoke, and B. C. Cobb, Esq., of Lincolnton. The high regard which railroad men and lawyers have for the Observer, makes us feel perfectly safe in their presence.
We were pleased to receive a call yesterday evening, from Hon. R. B. Taft, late Lieut. Governor of Vermont. He is a specimen of the "Green Mountain Boys." We think we would rather like them. He is on his way to attend the meeting of the grand assembly of the Knight Templars which is held this year in New Orleans. Mr. Taft expressed himself as being much pleased with our country, and said he had never been South of Washington before. Everything relating to the country, or our people was entirely different from any opinion which he had ever formed.
He had learned in the geographies that ours was a land of "tar, pitch and turpentine," and was surprised to see our cotton fields and oak forests. He was agreeably surprised to see the tone and temper of the people towards Northern men. Verily, we are not the cannibals and barbarians which we are sometimes represented to be.
Another Suggestion.
A few days ago we took occasion to suggest the necessity of a petition to the Legislature praying for the establishment of a criminal court in Charlotte, having concurrent jurisdiction with our Superior Court. The county of Mecklenburg is one of the largest, wealthiest and most populous in the State, and while its citizens are not necessarily disposed to encourage litigation, and infractions of the law, experience teaches us that a large amount of business is generally with the best possible management left over, from one term to another. Under the judicial management, or regime of the late incumbent, our temple of justice, was a mockery, and civil suitors particularly were left without either the trial of their cases, or the privileges of appeal to any other Court. During the present week a good many cases have been called, even on the State, docket, and the cases continued for want of witnesses, prosecutors, etc. These cases will of course go to swell up the docket in the fall. It has been suggested that instead of asking for a special Court, it would be a better policy to petition for a special act of the Legislature requiring the Judge of the Superior Court for this district to hold one additional Court during the year, and this plan seems to be least objectionable.

The constitution says that a court shall be held at least twice a year in every county. No objections would be raised to sessions of the Superior Court three times a year, if the business before the Court will justify it.
However, it may be premature in us to discuss this question in advance of any expression of the will of the people, on a subject in which they are more directly interested than we can possibly be.

ANNABEL LEE.
BY EDGAR A. POPE.
It was many and many a year ago,
In a kingdom by the sea,
That a maiden there lived whom you may
know,
By the name of Annabel Lee;
And this maiden she lived with no other thought
Than to love and be loved by me.
I was a child and she was a child
In this kingdom by the sea;
But we loved with a love that was more than love—
I and my Annabel Lee;
With a love that the winged seraphs of heaven
Coveted her and me.
And this was the reason that, long ago,
This kingdom by the sea,
A wind blew out of a chill, a chill,
We no longer lived here;
So that her highborn kinsmen came
And bore her away from me,
To shut her up in a sepulchre,
In this kingdom by the sea.
The one that holds her here in heaven
Wears an angel's face and sighs,
Yes! this was the reason (as all men
know)
In this kingdom by the sea,
That the wind came out of a cloud by night,
Chilling and killing my Annabel Lee.
But our love it was stronger by far than the love
Of those who were older than we—
And neither the angels in heaven above,
Nor the deamons down under the sea,
Can ever dissever my soul from the soul
Of the beautiful Annabel Lee.
For the moon never beams without bringing me
dreams
Of the beautiful Annabel Lee;
And so, all the night long, I lie down by the side
Of my darling—my darling—my life and
my soul—
In the sepulchre there by the sea,
In her tomb by the sounding sea.

A Card to Sensible People.
Rational render, if the aspect of the weather was uncertain would you be foolish enough to venture out without an overcoat or an umbrella. Have the forecast, then, to protect yourself at this dangerous season with something more important than either of these articles. Strengthen your stomach and nervous system, regulate your liver and your bowels' tone all your organs and cheer your animal spirits with that agreeable cordial, tonic and alterative, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It shall you so early escape the diseases which fasten u on the feeble and delicate, "safter and bestroger," says the prover; but "Be strong that you may not sicker," is the wiser maxim, - and all of strengthening preparations this is the safest, the surest, the most general. As a remedy, as well as an antidote, for dyspepsia, fever and a ue, and liver disease, it is no combination of vegetable species at present in vogue, which even approaches it in efficacy.
Anticipate the chilly, the elements of insupportable diseases are abroad in this raw, damp, mephitic winter air. Will you defend yourself against them or not, good reader? That is the question. A bottle or two of the great defensive medicine of the age, Hostetter's Bitters, will strengthen and brace your bodily powers so that you shall be able to stand up to them. The morbid matter which was retained in preparation through your pores in summer finds no such free egress now. A powerful counteracting agent is therefore needed, and you have it in Hostetter's Bitters. They neutralize the mephitic miasm from disease originates, and regulate all the secretory organs. Nothing can be more harmless or more healthful, nothing so potent to prevent or cure biliousness, dyspepsia, fever and ague, constipation and general debility, of this wonderful cure.

TO THE WHOLESALE TRADE.
JUDGING the future by the past, we enter with confidence upon this our new enterprise of separating our Wholesale from our Retail Trade, by having a separate and distinct House for the sale of new goods, and of a character not heretofore enjoyed.
It must be obvious to every buyer that a strictly Wholesale House, organized and adapted for that Trade only, with a corps of experienced Wholesale Salesmen, with a Stock carefully selected for that Trade only, and moreover, the avoidance of coming in contact with retail buyers, which we and you all have heretofore found to be so irksome, as it frequently happens that the retail buyer is your very neighbor, (perhaps your own customer) such a house, we are assured, must and will command itself to the trade.
Four years ago we advertised that we intended to make Charlotte a wholesale mart and our "The Wholesale House." We now have the proud satisfaction of seeing it an accomplished fact.
We now call your attention to the fact that we have converted our superb store into an exclusive Wholesale House, where you can find all lines of goods necessary for a country store, to-wit: Dry-goods, Clothing, B. O. Shoes, Hats, Notions, Groceries, Etc., and we have always been our motto, we obtain also in that line to deal in large quantities, and to sell generally, at the lowest prices, and to our country customers, in that house, by every conveyance, "Salesmen" and "Retailers" all are experienced, able, and obliging.
We will make the Military branch a specialty.

Koopmann & Rothschild.
The only house in Charlotte dealing exclusively in
MILLINERY
AND FANCY GOODS.
This fact alone will attract all our citizens, and persons from elsewhere, who desire to make purchases in our line.
We intend to make one of the LONG EMPORIUM of Fashion, and hope to offer such inducements to our customers in the way of prices, quality and style of goods that none shall go away elsewhere than well pleased with their purchases.
We offer to the Wholesale and Retail trade of the surrounding country a great variety of Millinery, Fancy Goods,
WHITE GOODS AND NOTIONS.
Straw, Velvet and Fall Hats, from the modest Cottage Bonnet to the most elaborate diadem. A great variety of the most desirable fabrics, OSTRICH FEATHERS and TRIPS, of which we keep on hand so many different shades that it would really puzzle a very astute or orthodox house to say from whom "came all the many colored plumage for which apparently, the world has been ransacked to furnish a new garniture for our fair ones.
A large stock of Artificial Flowers
imitating nearly every FLORAL CREATION IN THE WORLD, and the most daring counterfeits of Nature.

Gros Grain and Fancy Ribbons,
All widths and shades imaginable.
Turquoise, Florence, Silk and Valour.
Black and White Organs and Scarfs, Lace,
Collars and Cuffs
Jacketed Edging and Inserting, Veiling,
A large stock of Kid Gloves,
Corsets.
In WHITE GOODS we keep on hand Table cloths, Towels, Jaconet, Cambric, Lawn, Linen, Swiss, Nanosok, and other goods belonging to that line.
We have engaged the services of several experienced Ladies, one recently from Philadelphia in the Millinery Business, and we are now prepared to have Hats and Bonnets trimmed at short notice.
Attentive and competent salesmen are always ready to attend to our customers, and aid them in making selections.

TO THE WHOLESALE TRADE.
JUDGING the future by the past, we enter with confidence upon this our new enterprise of separating our Wholesale from our Retail Trade, by having a separate and distinct House for the sale of new goods, and of a character not heretofore enjoyed.
It must be obvious to every buyer that a strictly Wholesale House, organized and adapted for that Trade only, with a corps of experienced Wholesale Salesmen, with a Stock carefully selected for that Trade only, and moreover, the avoidance of coming in contact with retail buyers, which we and you all have heretofore found to be so irksome, as it frequently happens that the retail buyer is your very neighbor, (perhaps your own customer) such a house, we are assured, must and will command itself to the trade.
Four years ago we advertised that we intended to make Charlotte a wholesale mart and our "The Wholesale House." We now have the proud satisfaction of seeing it an accomplished fact.
We now call your attention to the fact that we have converted our superb store into an exclusive Wholesale House, where you can find all lines of goods necessary for a country store, to-wit: Dry-goods, Clothing, B. O. Shoes, Hats, Notions, Groceries, Etc., and we have always been our motto, we obtain also in that line to deal in large quantities, and to sell generally, at the lowest prices, and to our country customers, in that house, by every conveyance, "Salesmen" and "Retailers" all are experienced, able, and obliging.
We will make the Military branch a specialty.
