A distinguished elergyman of New York speaking of this remedy, characterizes it as one of the special blessings of the nineteenth century. The certainty of its heal-ing effect," said he, "and the immunity from danger whether administered wchildren or to adults, adapt it for the widely popular use it has attained." None would long suffer from lung complaint if they knew how easily they can be cured by this remedy. By its timely use all pulmonary diseases may be arrested, and consumption-the scourge that sweeps away thousands every year-would be checked in its commencement. Persons with a seated cough, which breaks their rest at night, will find, by taking the Expectorant on going to bed, they may be sure of unbroken sleep and refreshing rest. NEW ORLEANS, January 29, 1874.

C P Knight, Esq-No 93, West Lombard Street Baltimore-Dear Sir: It affords me much pleasure to advise you how well satisfied I am with Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint, having used all I bought of you in painting a large cottage (new) at Ocean Springs, Miss., and having found it to cover and work so admirably, and very far superior to ordinary metal paints, and colors not subject to fade, besides being decidedly cheaper. It is my purpose to send you another order for more very soon Yours respectfully, R W RAYNE.
