

HON. F. E. SHOBER.

The Washington correspondent of the Petersburg Index and Appeal says there is a rumor current at the National Capital to the effect that the Hon. F. E. Shober, of this State, is a candidate for the principal clerkship of the House of Representatives, of the Forty-fourth Congress.

Commenting upon this, the Raleigh News says:

"It is true, we sincerely trust that the claims of Mr. Shober will meet with the favorable consideration of the Democratic members-elect to the next House. No fitter selection could be made. Mr. Shober has all the abilities necessary to an efficient and acceptable discharge of the delicate and important duties of the position, while his previous services as a member of Congress gives him intimate acquaintance with its routine requirements. His eminent qualifications for the position would make him a valuable officer, while his pleasant address, courteous and genial manners would make him one of the most popular officers that the House has ever had."

North Carolina deserves some recognition at the hands of the Democracy, since by her splendid victory in August, she gave volume and impetus to the tide of revolution in political affairs, which afterward swept over the land, driving Republican place-holders from power; and the election of Mr. Shober, to the position he seeks, would be hailed with great satisfaction by the party which he has frequently and faithfully served. In the name of the Democracy of North Carolina, we commend his claim to the attention of our political friends in the 4th Congress."

We heartily concur in what the News says about Mr. SHOBER and sincerely trust he may find favor with the new Congress.

STATE NEWS.

Col. J. McLeod Turner has gone to Washington City to spend the recess. Major John H. Hughes, of Newbern, has invented a patent car and house window lock.

Geo. L. Fox, the original Humpty Dumpty, will be in Wilmington next Monday evening.

The General Assembly passed ninety-seven bills up to recess against ninety-six to the same time last year. Two iron wedges in a cypress stump sixteen feet below the surface of the ground were recently found in a swamp in Hyde county.

Asheville Pioneer: On Sunday last, about sunrise, Mr. John Hess, a stage driver on the Old Fort line, fell from the top of the Eagle Hotel stables to the hard ground floor—a distance of sixteen feet—and striking upon his back and shoulders, was seriously, if not fatally injured.

Somebody sent Col. Brown of the National Hotel at Raleigh, two dozen black cats, labeled "24 partridges." The Sentinel says that they were all packed in as snug as sardines and with a lively shine about their eyes as if they rather liked the amusement. Col. Brown at first stirred around like he was right smart excited, but at last in a soft answer to the servant who enquired "what to do with them," and now, everything is lovely and the cats hang high.

Greensboro Patriot: Gov. Vance has accepted an invitation and consented to favor us at an early day with his famous lecture on the "Scattered Nation." This is a treat which we eagerly anticipate, for it is said to be, with all of the distinguished speaker's acknowledged ability, one of his very best efforts. The time is not definitely fixed upon, but when it is due notice will be given.

Wilmington Star: Our old friend, Samson Boone, of Fayetteville, who is on his way to Florida, was in our office yesterday and in course of conversation stated that he was in that State just previous to the last municipal election at Fayetteville, and that he informed his son that he must leave for home in time to vote. His son tried to dissuade him from his purpose, remarking that one vote would not make much difference. Our old friend was of a different opinion, saying he would not risk it. Thus unmoved in his determination to do his duty in this respect—a duty which he has never shirked or neglected, though now between 80 and 90 years of age—he took his departure and arrived in Fayetteville in time to deposit his ballot. The result was the election of Frizzell, the Conservative candidate for Mayor, by one vote.

SOUTH CAROLINA NEWS.

Harry Watkins will play first in the new Opera House at Columbia.

There was an incendiary fire near Columbia on Wednesday night.

An inquest was held a few days ago by Coroner Ruff over the body of Sally Boyd, an aged colored woman found dead in the Horeb neighborhood. The jury come to the conclusion that the old woman froze to death. She is said to be 105 years old.—Wilmington News.

Greenville Enterprise: We are informed that Mr. Granger, a gentleman living on the Abbeville road about 7 miles from town, when going up the hill beyond the creek after passing the residence of the late Wm. Jacobs, was attacked, about an hour by sun, by two negro men, who knocked him off of his wagon, and after beating him severely, robbed him of between forty and fifty dollars.

A Christian Lesson.

This will be a busy week for every body, but principally for that ever-loving, but never complaining, least conscientious, and most important, useful, dutiful and anxious personage in the household, the dear little mother, or it may be, the dear big mother, for many of them are as large as they are good. It will be the mother that will be here, there, and everywhere, and in all places at the same time during the coming week. She will have to be ubiquitous and could she divide herself out or multiply herself into a hundred mothers, yet there would hardly be enough of her to go round, and do everything that will be required at home and abroad, for her little and big ones—up stairs and down stairs, from kitchen to garret, and all over the house. Heaven bless her, what a time she will have, and how weary she will be when Christmas is over and Saturday night comes. But she will be happy too, because her happiness consists in making those around her happy. How selfishly unselfish, and what a perfect type of devotion for the sake of the reflected pleasure it brings to herself through the joy of those for whom she labors! Let us all do our best then to lighten her duties and her heart, and render her Christmas a season of unalloyed enjoyment, and in all our thoughts let her be uppermost, and in all our Christmas presents let her be the first and the choicest.—Richmond Enquirer.

THE COURSE OF TRUE LOVE OF A RAIL.

A Disgraceful Affair.

[From the Utica, N. Y. Herald, Dec. 17.] From a gentleman from this city, who has just returned from Cattaraugus county, we learn the following facts, which we are letting go at low figures, by the newspapers of that vicinity. A respectable business man residing in Courtland county, was engaged to be married to a young lady who resides at Olean, Cattaraugus county. The wedding day was fixed and the guests were assembled at the house of the young lady's parents. The groom was delayed while en route, but he telegraphed to the family to retain the guests until his arrival, about three hours later than the appointed time. This was the basis for the disgraceful scenes that followed. It appeared that a number of young men of Olean were envious of the Courtland man, and did not like the idea of a stranger carrying his intended bride away from them. Upon hearing of the delay on the part of the groom, they got to the depot at the hour for the arrival of the train, met the expectant groom, took him to a saloon or drinking place, induced him to drink drugged liquor, and when he had become sufficiently intoxicated to suit their purposes he was taken to the house of his affianced and presented to the bride, her parents and the guests. This disgraceful trick worked just as the authors intended it should. The bride's parents ordered the groom from the house and the wedding festivities were broken up. Not content with what they had done the conspirators employed five or six negroes to prepare a coat of tar and feathers and give the groom the ride upon a rail. This other party produced a written order in the agent's hand to prove that he had "followed copy." The committee concluded to hush up the affair of the bell. Their agent has been elected mayor of the city. We presume he spells his office "mare."
