

A PARODY.
Tell me, you winged winds,
That round my pathway roar,
Do you not know some spot
Where woman fret no more?
Where woman fret no more?
Where woman fret no more?
Some "holer" in the ground,
Where babies never die,
And cradles are not found?
The loud wind blew the snow into my face,
And snickered as it answered, "Nary place."
Tell me, thou misty deep,
Whose billows round me play,
Know'st thou some favored spot,
Some island far away,
Where weary man can find A place to smoke in peace—
Where crinoline is not,
And hoops are out of place?
The loud winds, sounding a perpetual shout,
Stopped for a while and spluttered, "You git out."
And thou, serenest moon,
That with such holy face
Dost look upon the girls
Who with their hands embrace,
Tell me, in all thy round,
Hast thou not seen some spot
Where muslin is not found,
And calico is not?
Behind a cloud the moon withdrew in woe,
And a voice, sweet but sad, responded,
"Poh!"
Tell me, my secret soul—
O tell me, Hope and Faith—
Is there no resting place
From women, girls, and death?
Is there no happy spot
Where bachelors are blessed—
Where females never go,
And man may rest in peace?
Faith, Hope, and Truth—best booms to mortals given—Waved their bright wands, and answered,
"Yes, in Heaven!"

A NEW PAPER.
THE CHILDREN'S FRIEND will be published every Wednesday, at the Orphan Asylum, in Oxford, N. C. It will enter a field occupied by no other paper, representing no party in politics and all relations; but helping all parties and all sects to unite in promoting the judicious education of the young, and the continuous improvement of the old. It discusses the duties and privileges of parents and teachers, and will defend the rights and denounce the wrongs of children. It will explain how our University lies desolate and our Colleges and Schools are poorly attended, while the State itself seems to be too small to contain the vast throngs which crowd our penitentiary.
It will give special attention to poor orphans and will tell them how to escape their present degradation, how to grow up into wise and virtuous men and women, and how to secure liberal wages and good work.
The object of the paper is to help all our people to be good and do good. Price, one dollar a year, always in advance. A few cash advertisements will be admitted at ten cents a line for the first insertion, and five cents a line for each subsequent insertion. The same advertisement will not be inserted more than once unless the paper can not afford to sing any one song forever.
The first number will appear on Wednesday the sixth of January, 1875. All friends of the young are invited to forward subscriptions at once. Address,
THE CHILDREN'S FRIEND,
Oxford, N. C.
THE LAST CALL.
Unless your city tax is paid by the 15th of January, it will be compelled to levy and sell your property to make the same. The city is pressed for money, and the Board of Aldermen say I must collect it, peaceably if you will, forcibly if I must.
J. R. ERWIN,
City Marshal.

NORTH CAROLINA
State Life Insurance CO.
Commenced Business in March, 1873;
HAS HAD AN
Unprecedentedly Successful Career!
WHY?
Because it is essentially a Home Institution, appreciated by Home People; invests every Dollar of Capital (which is paid up—$200,000) and every Dollar of Premium received in the State to foster and protect Home enterprises.
Has loaned to Policy Holders in Charlotte at low rates of interest, ten times the gross premiums received in Charlotte, and guarantees to invest all premiums received here in like manner.
Equal in responsibility and good management to any Life Company in the world.
Issues every desirable form of Policy at as low rates as any first-class company.
No useless restriction imposed upon residence or travel.
Policies non-forfeitable after two and three annual payments.
No withdrawal of Agencies from a section when once established, subjecting Policy Holders to the inconvenience of re-mitting premiums to New York or elsewhere by 12 o'clock of the day fixed, or forfeit their policy and lose all the previous payments.
The time has come for citizens of North Carolina to encourage Home Institutions, and we recommend this Company as eminently worthy of patronage.

TAKE
SIMMONS'
LEVER
REGULATOR.
THE SYMPTOMS OF LIVER COMPLAINT ARE UNEASINESS AND PAIN IN the side. Sometimes the pain is in the shoulder, and is mistaken for rheumatism.
The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness, bowels in general constive, sometimes alternating with lax. The head is troubled with pain, and dull, heavy sensation, considerable loss of memory, accompanied with painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. Often complaining of weakness, debility, and low spirits. Sometimes many of the above symptoms attend the disease, and at other times very few of them; but the Liver is generally the organ most involved.
It is warranted not to contain a single particle of Mercury, or any injurious mineral substance, but is PURELY VEGETABLE,
containing those Southern Roots and Herbs, which an all-wise Providence has placed in countries where Liver Diseases most prevail.
It will cure all Diseases caused by Derangement of the Liver and Bowels.
SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR.
—OR—MEDICINE.
Is eminently a Family Medicine; and by being kept ready for immediate resort will save many an hour of suffering and many a dollar in time and doctor's bills.
After over Forty Years' trial it is still recommended to the world as the best medicine I have ever used for that class of diseases it purports to cure.—H. F. Thigpen, President of City Bank.
"Simmons' Liver Regulator has proved a good and efficacious medicine."—C. A.
Nutting,
Druggist.
"We have been acquainted with Dr. Simmons' Liver Medicine for more than twenty years, and twenty years, and know it to be the best Liver Regulator offered to the public."—M. R. Lyon and H. L. Lyon, Bellefontaine, Ga.
"I was cured by Simmons' Liver Regulator, after having suffered several years with Chills and Fever."—R. F. Anderson,
The Clergy.
"I have been dyspeptic for years; began the Regulator two years ago; it has acted like a charm in my case."—Rev. J. C.
Holmes,
Ladies Indorsement.
"I have given your medicine a thorough trial, and in no case has it failed to give full satisfaction."—Ellen Meacham, Chattahoochee, Fla.
Sheriff Bibb County.
"I have used your Regulator with successful effect in Bilious Colic and Dyspepsia.
It is an excellent remedy, and certainly a blessing."—C. Masterson, Bibb County, Ga.
My Wife.
"My wife and self have used the Regulator for 2 years, and testify to its great virtues."— Rev. J. R. Felder, Perry, Ga.
"I think Simmons' Liver Regulator one of the best medicines ever made for the Liver. My wife, and many others, have used it with wonderful effect."—E. K.
Sparks, Albany, Ga.
M. D.
"I have used the Regulator in my family, and also in my regular practice, and have found it a most valuable and satisfactory medicine, and believe if it was used by the profession it would be of service in very many cases. I know very much of its component parts, and can certify its medicinal qualities are perfectly harmless."—B. F.
Griggs, M. D., Macon, Ga.

REPEATING COMPOUND
MANUFACTURED BY
E. L. KING & SONS,
COLUMBIA, S. C.
IT HAVING BEEN REPORTED BY some that this Preparation is the same as Simmons' Liver Regulator, we deem it right to correct this supposition. Although C. A. Simmons was former Proprietor of both Preparations, he assured us that SIM-MONS' REPEATING COMPOUND is his latest improvement in Medical Science, and that it has no connection whatever with former preparations, but that it is, far superior, in every respect, to any Liver Medicine to which his name was ever attached. It being composed solely of Vegetable Ingredients.—
The trial of one bottle will satisfy the most incredulous. Price, 25 Cents per Bottle.
