Fast Work.

Mr. W. W. Robinson, as contractor, put a force of four hands at work, Friday morning. building a two-story frame house, with four rooms in it, for Mr. W. M. Matthews. Yesterday morning he increased the force by the addition of two apprentices, and by evening the building was framed, raised M, by the Rev. W. M. Hunter. Sunday and a good deal of the weather boarding put on. This is pretty swift work.

Edwin Adams.

It gives us great pleasure to beable to say with certainty, that Edwin Adams, the celebrated tragedian, will appear at the Charlotte Opera House on Tuesday evening as "Enoch Arden." This is his specialty, and the finest dramatic critics say that no living actor equals him in it. It is hardly necessary, however, to speak to an intelligent public, of Adams' reputation as an artist-a reputation which he has gained before the finest audiences of the United States; and we will be content with making the following extract from a recent number of the St. Louis Republican :

"We have perhaps said enough heretofore of Mr. Adams, but we cannot refrain from again calling attention to his exquisit delineation hour or two can be spent pleasantly at it the pastor, Rey. E. H. Gov. Vance is one of the most gifted humorists we have ever heard, and kept his hearers convulsed in laughter. Often and suddenly he would give utterance of some beautiful passages of eloquence. Another charm of his lecture was the number of anecdotes he had interwoven therein, each one of which brought down the house. Among other things Gov. Vance said the masses like to be courted, and do not intend to drop into any man's mouth like a ripe plun without the requisite amount of shaking

The politician would know nothing of the wants of his constituents, unless they came together often. The courtier has only one to please, the demagogue many, and hence much the more difficult task. He alluded the negro as a most accomplished courtier. cient Athens were man Demagogues all the world over have been in favor of popular liberty. Whilst Rome had thrown not by these, but by the Cosars. The greatest demagogue in the world was Mary Anthony, but be his sins what they may, he never recon tructed anybody, never stole a railroad nor overthrew a legislature. In alluding to the arts of the demagogue, said every man has his hobby, and can be flattered. The skill of the demagogue is in finding this weak spot . It does not require much skill to steer clear of the rocks when they are above water. Personal.

We had a call last night from Mr. J. W Spaulding, the gentlemanly advance agent of Edwin Adams. The company will reach Charlotte Tuesday evening on a special train from Columbia. They use their own scenery and machinery; and one car is necessary to carry this. The plat of the Opera House will be open at Tiddy's book store to morrow morning, and there will be a perfect rush for reserved seats.

At a late hour last night, the bills of this company were posted over the city.

The DeCastro Troupe Last Evening. The crowd at the Opera House last evening was smaller even than on the evening previous, but it seemed to be well pleased In the tricks of sleight-of-hand there was little change from Friday evening's programme. The character songs of Jeppe, were different and well rendered. He changes his dress and his voice with as much quickness as any one we ever saw ; he sings and acts finely, and, all in all, fills his position well. Miss Fannie sings very well indeed. There was a great deal of pathos in her singing, in character, of "Please Buy My Last Paper." As a sleight-of-hand and combination entertainment, this is quite a success and an

A Horse in a Bar-Room.

Several persons near the corner of Trade and Church streets vesterday morning, saw the novel sight of a horse emerging very quietly and deliberately from an underground bar room. Though he gave no evidence of being under the influence of "the rosy," it was very plain that all was not well with him, as he was cut and scratched in several places. This led to the conclusion that he had been in a bar-room, fight, but this was not the case, and in justice to the horse we will tell what was the mat-

I have a new issue to present to the voting and tax paying population of our growing city. It is this; compel every real estate owner in the city to work well, and keep in good order the side walk, and streets in front of and around his property, with heavy penalvisit Charlotte on their return from the South, and hold a series of meetings in our given time. In compensation for said work, all taxes upon real estate to cease. In the event of failure or refusal on the part of property owners to comply, then in addition to penalty, the city fathers to have said work done and collect the amount of cost by sale of said realty or otherwise. I hope some one will elaborate the ideas above presented, and make improvements or suggestions thereon, as it is a notorious fact that our side walks and streets are a disgrace to our city. Should no one else, by your consent, I will attempt it if I find the New CURRENT.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Anticipate the Enemy.

Rational reader, if the aspect of the weather was uncertain, you would not be foolish enough to venture out without an overcoa or an umbrella Have the forecast, then, to protect yourself at this dangerous season with something more important than either of these articles. Strengthen your stomach and nervous system, regulate your liver and your bowels, tone all your organs and cheer your animal spirits with that agreeable cor-dial, tonic and alterative, Hostetter's Stome ach Bitters. So shall you surely escape the diseases which fasten upon the feeble and debilitated. "Suffer and be strong," says the proverb ; but "Be strong that you may not suffer" is the wiser maxim-and of all strengthening preparations this is the safest, the surest, the most genial. As a remedy, as well as an antidote, for dyspersia, fever and ague, and liver disease, there is no combination of vegetable specifics at present known which even approaches it in efficacy. Anticipate the enemy. The elements of in numberable diseases are affoat in this raw damp, mephitic winter air. Will you defend yourself against them or not good reader? That is the question. A bottle or two of the great defensive medicine of the age, Hostetter's Bitters, will so strengthen and brace up your bodily powers as to enable them to "langh a strength or "The able them to "laugh a siege to scorn."
