French President pro tem of the Senate—Chairmanship of Committees —Pinchback's Case, and Morton and Merrimon on the Floor—Nominations and Confirmations.

Washington, 9,—Senator Booth, from California, is here. The Republicans caucused to-day. French was chosen President pro tem of the Sen-ate and approved the revision of the standing committees reported by the sub-committee. The Senate on Thurs day, will determine the question of Sergant-at-arms, as between French, the present incumbent, and Charles Kennedy of New York, who contest-ed the place with French in '69. They will then consider whether it will be expedient to make changes in other offices. The Democrats have been acorded the chairmanship of the committee on unenrolled bills, making the ut-committees of the House it cleased om 7 to 9, upon each of which the comporate have 3 members.
