LOCAL DOTS.

There were no cases for trial in the Mayor's Court yesterday, nobody did anything, and there wasn't any news in the city.

The question of the municipal election is warming up, now you hear us. It is being discussed almost as much as the Centennial, and the fight judging from all appearances now, will be an exceedingly lively one.

"What a b--- whopper tree it must a been that plank come out of" was the remark of a countryman, as he looked at the grain sifter of the yellow safe in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court.

Telegraph on the Carolina Central.

The Western Union Telegraph Company have their poles distributed along the line of the Carolina Central Railroad, from Charlotte to Shelby, and a force will go to work to-day, putting them up. It is thought that, within 30 days, telegraphic communication will be established to Shelby.

Marriage.

Last night in the Baptist Church, of this city, Mr. James Davis was united in marriage to Mrs. Marion Gleason, widow of the late James B. Gleason, Esq. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. H. Griffith, in the presence of a large assemblage, the church being so crowded that many were unable to gain admission.

Catholic Church.

Yesterday and last night were duly celebrated in St. Peter's Catholic Church of this city. The church was tastefully decorated, and was visited at intervals by many persons. This morning the flowers will all be removed and the church draped in mourning, in commemoration of the sufferings and passion of the Saviour of the world.

We Understand Now.

We see from the Daily News, that there is a sausage factory in Greenville, S. C., and that, on Wednesday last, 800 pounds of sausage were shipped from it. This reminds us that we have never heard or read of any body in Greenville being bitten by a dog.
 It also causes us to form a conjecture, which amounts to a conviction, concerning the probable fate of a box full of pups which we saw at the Air Line Depot a few days ago, marked to Greenville.

Good Friday.

This day is known throughout the Christian world, as Good Friday, and is celebrated in an especial manner by several denominations of Christians, by means of the churches, however with so much solemnity as by the Catholic. In this church on Good Friday there is no mass celebrated, but solemn services are held called the Mass of the Presentified. The adoration of the crucifix then takes place, and the Saviour is represented as being in the sepulchre. The Society is hung with emblems of mourning, and the services are exceedingly solemn.

Spelling Matches.

Are the rage now in the North and West, and it is high time to make a move to inaugurate them here. In St. Louis, Baltimore and other cities they are taking precedence over most other methods of social enjoyment, and the novelty of the thing produces an enthusiasm wherever it is tried. In several places these spelling matches have been instituted, charges made for admittance, and the proceeds applied to some benevolent object. In every case people have flocked to witness the amusing scene.

The class may be large or small, and may comprise persons of every age. The procedures school boys may stand by sides with the aged grandfather, the disparity of ages only serving to render the exercise more attractive. Charlotte is usually well upon everything new, and we would like to see her indulge in the luxury of a spelling match. If there is not a Col. Sellers would say, "millions in it," there certainly would be "a quantity of it," and that is half the existence of many of us.

Items from Wilkes County—Casualty and Crime.

From a private letter received by a gentleman in this city yesterday, from a resident of Wilkesboro, we are permitted to glean two painful items of news. The letter bears date of the 23d inst., and states that, a day or two before this, a dreadful catastrophe occurred in the family of William Church, of the county named. It seems that he was engaged at work a short distance from his home, and that his wife went to carry him his supper, locking three children, aged respectively, 4, 6 and 8 years, in the house, the lock (a padlock) being on the outside.
 When she returned at 10 o'clock, all had been totally destroyed by fire. The children were burned to ashes and none of them were recognizable.

On Saturday last, as we learn from the same letter, John Ochsman shot John Ray, in the same county. The wounded man lingered until Sunday, and died. Immediately after the shooting, Ochsman mounted a horse and rode away, and has not since been heard of. There is no evidence of any malice or any quarrel between the parties, and the cause for the murder is altogether unaccountable.

THE CENTENNIAL.

The Meeting Yesterday—Programme &c.
 Pursuant to notice a majority of the general committee of arrangement, consisting of all the committees heretofore appointed, for a proper observance of the approaching Centennial Celebration, met at the Court House on Thursday, to hear suggestions from the Executive Committee, and to determine definitely upon the way and manner in which said celebration shall be carried out.
 Dr. Jos. Graham chairman, cc officio being absent, Capt. S. B. Alexander, was called to the chair, and T. W. Dewey, W. J. Yates, and Charles R. Jones were appointed secretaries.

Upon a call of the roll of the different committees, a majority were found to be present, and the meeting thereupon permanently organized, with the officers as above stated.

On motion T. W. Dewey was instructed to purchase a book in which shall be recorded the proceedings of each meeting of the Executive Committee.

The various committees were called on for reports. The committee on speakers, through their chairman, Gov. Vance, reported that they had resolved to have two speakers, one from North Carolina and one from Tennessee. As yet no selection had been made.

The committee on subscriptions reported through their chairman, Gen. J. A. Young that they had had two meetings; prepared and distributed a circular, calling upon the people to aid in furnishing means to make the celebration what it ought to be. On motion this committee, and the Finance committee, were merged and made the committee of Ways and Means, for including the chairman, to constitute a quorum.

The Press committee, W. J. Yates, chairman, reported that they had had an informal meeting, but had declined to do any thing until a definite programme had been adopted, as their action was largely dependent on that.

The committee on Fire-works, and military companies, J. H. Orr, chairman, reported that they had had one meeting, but that action had been deferred until after the adoption of the programme. On motion of Col. H. C.
 Jones this committee take charge of and arrange the music for the occasion. Adopted.

The committee to canvass the county reported through Col. H. C. Jones, their chairman, that little had been done, but that his committee would go vigorously to work, after the adoption of the programme.

Many of the county auxiliary committees reported through their respective chairmen that they were very enthusiastic on the subject, and would respond liberally to aid in defraying the expenses whenever called on. These committees like most of the others were waiting until the adoption of a programme.

Rev. W. P. Williams, as chairman of the auxiliary committee from Dewees Township after offering an apology for the other gentlemen of the committee, Rev. Dr. Phillips and H. P. Helper Esq., reported that little had as yet been done, as they were waiting for instructions from the executive committee. He pledged his township to do as much as any other township in the county. Mr Williams in a few brief, but pointed remarks, referred in forcible and eloquent terms to the importance of a proper observance of the approaching centennial.

Some discussion having arisen in regard to the duties of the auxiliary township committees, Gen. J. A. Young, moved that the name of the first gentleman in each of these committees, be recognized as the chairman of said committee, and that such one of these subordinate committees be authorized to so enlarge or contract the number of their respective committees, so as to accomplish the best result to their own satisfaction, discretion and judgment, the end being to proportion the people to a sense of their duty in the due observance of the day, and to raise contributions to carry out the programme.

The executive committee submitted the following as the programme to be observed on centennial day, which was ratified and adopted after some discussion, participated in by Col. H. C. Jones, Gov. Z. B. Vance, Col.
 Wm. Johnston, Gen. D. H. Hill, J. P. Alexander, R. I. McDowell, Chas. R. Jones, W. M.
 Shipp, Dr. T. J. Moore, and Gen. Barringer, PROGRAMME.

One hundred guns, at sunrise, and ringing of city bells, under charge of the Artillery Committee.

To march at 10 o'clock a. m., Grand procession through the principal streets of the city, under charge of Chief Marshal and thirty Assistant Marshals, as follows:

- Military Companies.
- Fire Companies.
- Masonic Lodges.
- Odd Fellows.
- Knight of Pythias.
- Grand Templars.
- Granges.
- County Organizations.
- Other Associations of city, county, State and citizens.
- Press Organizations.
- Various Centennial Committees.
- Accompanied by various bands of music, and their own special banners, emblems and insignia.

 arrive at the speaking grounds at 12 o'clock.
 M. After the various companies and organizations, Ac., have been arranged by Chief Marshal and Assistants, the "Centennial" will be opened with prayer by the Chaplain, Rev. Robt. Hall Morrison, D. D., after which reading of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence followed—followed by address by ——. After the address there will be, at 3 o'clock P. M., a grand barbecue, after which,

 Military and Fire Company display.

At night, at 7 o'clock P. M., Grand Torch Light Procession, with Chinese lanterns, emblems, transparencies, &c., &c., after which, addresses will be delivered from stand in Independence Square, on the site of the original Declaration of May, 20, 1775. Corners of Trade and Tryon streets. There will be general illuminations of the houses on principal streets.

The celebration to conclude with Grand Pyrotechnic Display, consisting of beautiful emblems, figures, mottoes, &c., &c., appropriate to the occasion, under charge of the Artillery Committee.

The Chief Marshal, with thirty Assistant Marshals, to be hereafter announced.
 Approved and adopted by Central Executive Committee, March 24, 1875.

Dr. Jos. GRAHAM,
 Chair. Ex. Com.
 Thos. W. Dewey,
 Sec. Ex. Com.
 Col. Wm. Johnston, act as Chairman in absence of Chairman.

MARCH 25, 75, ratified and adopted by General Committee of Arrangements.

In Memoriam.

As all Charlotte knows, Bright Dewey passed in his checks last Saturday, and was gathered to his fathers. The object which has incurred "the deep damnation of his taking off," was a monster mastiff which, for or without cause as the case may be, re-seized him by the nape of the neck, shook him until he was as limp as a dish-rag, then flung him over his right shoulder and left him to perish miserably on the highway. Among Bright's numerous friends was one whose attachment for him was peculiarly warm; the nuses took up their abode with this friend, and inspire, by their presence, he offers the following wall. Listen to it: I am sad and lonely without the dog,
 And know not which way to go,
 For he was the joy and pride of my heart,
 And I loved him, I loved him so!
 When a bright and beautiful spring is come,
 And gone are the ice (?) and snow (?)
 I will make him a grave in a quiet spot, Where the evening zephyrs blow.

Action for Enticing Away an Employee.

Yesterday, a civil suit was tried before Justice W. F. Davidson, on an indictment under the act of Assembly making it a misdemeanor to entice an employe from the service of his employer. The defendant was subjected to have "violated the law, and a fine of $100 was placed upon him. The matter was afterwards compromised, however, and the fine remitted.

CITY GOVERNMENT—CONDITION OF THE STREETS, &c.

MESSRS. EDITORS: In Tuesday's issue, the question of the Mayor's salary seems to be brought prominently forward, and the question as to who shall be the next Mayor?
 I suggest a new departure, to enter at once on the business that caused me to take pen in hand. We all agree that the improvements of the streets is that which claims our first attention, and how to do it, and how to provide the means, I suggest, 1st. To commence and form the road bed in proper form at the Air Line Depot; grade down all humps, fill up all hollows, and low places, and let all passing wagons and other vehicles pass over all the surface as it is levelled, so that it may become equally hard, fit to receive the mellee or broken stones, when being spread evenly all over the surface to take up all rock work found in the streets, and have it all broken up to a proper size; all soft stone to be carefully picked out and thrown to one side, so that all the broken stone be evenly hard, that may be spread on the road bed; as far as I have been able to estimate or collect information, the expense will be within $3,000.

I now proceed to show how to do all this work and not to burden the citizens: For the last two or three years, the amount of labor spent on the streets in this city is within $3,000 each year!

The amount paid in salaries to Mayor, Marshal, and Treasurer, including Marshal's fees, Office rent, fire wood, &c., &c., is the rise of $5,000. Since the surrender, in salaries alone, as above, we have paid over $25,000, and what have we received in return? Absolutely nothing. Now, I think it is time to stop paying these salaries, and apply the money to a more useful purpose.

A New Platform. In electing the Mayor, he is to serve for the term as allowed by law.
 The electors must elect a marshal to serve without salary; also a clerk and treasurer to serve without salary; the $3,000 thus saved to be applied to making a permanent new road bed through the city, the new work to be done under contract, or by hands employed by the overseer, the work to be separate from the regular city hands or city work, as at present done.

More about the City Finances.
 MESSRS. EDITORS: The City Treasurer promises, between this and the day of the election, to give the public a statement of receipts and disbursements; and also of the debts of the city past due and not due. This information will be looked for with interest.

In the mean time, will the Clerk and Treasurer of the Board of Aldermen give the public a list of salaries promised to be paid the City Officials, from the Mayor down to the Street Superintendent, including PAY OF City Surveyor &c.
 And oblige
