FORT MILL, May 10th 1875. A Swindler.

MESSES, EDITORS; We have been visited by one of the above tribe. A man calling himself F. Ray, hailing from Augusta, Ga and on the 3d inst., he went to Rock Hill Con business," and passed off for a tohacco dealer, and from report, has left that pl for "parts unknown." By borrowing "change" from a good many of the young men, buying paints, making bills for a few days, he managed to carry from our town about $150.00. He is about twenty-five years old, has dark hair, red complexion, shows the sign of intemperance, has a "had look," and is dressed in "broadcloth," unpaid for,

All such swindlers should be published, arrested and brought to justice. And we send this, Mr. Editor, to your valuable and widely circulated paper, hoping that it may be seen by some where he now is, and they, thereby, be saved from being swindled as
