Advices received in this city yesterday inform us that the Hon. M. C. Kerr, of Indiana, will arrive in this city this evening on the C., C. & A. Railroad, on his return from Florida, and will probably remain here until after the Centennial. Mr Kerr is one of the most prominent Democratic members of the 44th Congress, and is not only a prominent candidate for Speakership of the next House of Representatives, but his name has been favorably mentioned in connection with the Democratic candidacy for President of the United States.
