Spring chickens sold from wagons, yesterwill have a picnic, on Wednesday, 23rd inst., at Woodlawn, Gaston county. When Mr L Drucker, who died night before last, first came to Charlotte, long years ago, people came from the country to "see Right Rev Jas Gibbons, Catholic Bishop of Richmond, will preach at St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church, of this city, on Sunday, 11th July.

Col D G Maxwell, claims to have cotton in bloom, at his Centennial farm, near Sugar Creek Church, but he don't tell everybody that the blooms are on dog fennel which grows among the cotton.

Mr. W. C. Maffitt and bride, nee Miss Lottie Jenkins, returned yesterday morning on the Air Line train, after an absence of more than two weeks, which time they spent with the friends and relatives of the groom, in Atlanta, Ga. We cordially welcome them back to the city.

To Speak in Warrenton,

We see from the Gazette, that Rev J B Boone, of this city, is to address the people of Warrenton to-morrow night, on the subjest of establishing a Peabody school in that town. Says the Gazette: "Mr. Boone is Superintendent of the Graded School in Charlotte, and is considered one of the best teachers in the Ftate."

Printer's Picnic.

We see that the Charlotte printers are making great preparation to have a picnic, on the 4th of July. Now, gentlemen, we wish you all success and a merry time, but be sure that you don't get on a bust .- Shelby

Now did you ever! Sobriety is a characteristic of the craft, and we thought everybody knew it. The very idea of a printer "getting on a bust," is perfectly preposterous.

Bridge Over Buffalo Creek.

The Shelby Banner speaking of the big bridge over Buffalo Creek, on the Western Division of the Carolina Central Railroad, says: "The Railroad bridge across Buffalo is now being built. Twenty hands commenced work on it last Thursday. They expect to have eveything about it completed and leave by the 16th of next month. The prospect of the road running to our town in a very short time is good. We think we can welcome the train to our city in less than two months."

Another Unfortunate.

"Woman's inhumanity to man, Makes countless thousands mourn,"

So said a young knight of the "Mortar and Pestle" last evening, as he gracefully seated himself on a case of Stomach Bitters and crossed his propellers, "tailor fashion." Whence comes this sadness?" asked the OBSERVER'S sympathetic scribe, ever ready to pestow a pint of doubled refined oil of consolation, where it would "do the most good." This morning at 3 o'clock," said the knight, "I was aroused from my slumbers, by some one rapping-loudly tapping-on the door, and in rushed a sable dam-sell of 92 summers, and begged for 5 cents worth of by opodeldoc-quick. I handed it to her and she stepped down and out with a great deal of celerity, murmuring as she meandered, I'll pay you in the mornin'. Now if you have seen her, I hope you will advise her, to pank up with the green or I'll certainly advertise her" As ye local hadn't seen her and wanted another advertisement, he quietly sighed his sympathy and slid off.

Garvin Pardoned.

Our readers remember the fact of the shoot ing of Kistler by Garvin, in this city, more than two months ago. Garyin was tried at the last term of court, and sentenced to six months imprisonment. His wife has been devoted to him and has recently circulated a petition for signature, asking the Governor | Stock of Spring and Summer Goods, com to pardon him, A few nights ago Mrs Garvin went to Raleigh, and held a personal interview with Governor Brogden. Yesterday morning she returned home, bearing with her a pardon from His Excellency. Sheriff Alexander accordingly released the prisoner last night, and he immediately left the city.

Without intending to go into the merits of this case, we express the opinion that the sentence was very light, and that the Governor "strained" the "quality of mercy" in interfering.

The Picule Yesterday.

The members of Tryon Street Methodist to Limestone Springs, S. C. They left on the Air Line train, at 7 o'clock in the morning and returned at about the same hour in the evening. The party arrived at their stopping place about 11 o'clock A. M., and lowest. walked over to the springs, a distance of about three quarters of a mile. Here they spent the time allotted them, with strolling around, and amusing themselves in divers manners. Some time after dinner they were called upon to leave, and the 400 who comprised the party, retraced their steps. We would have something more to say about the picnic, but a full report has been promised us by one who was present, and whose pen is more vigorous and facile than ours.

The Cotton Reports.

Complaint was entered yesterday by a buyket prices in THE OBSERVER were really in excess of the actual price.

Our reports are made by averaging the reports of the cotton buyers of Charlotte and are nearer correct than they have ever been before. The best grade was quoted Saturday SECOND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—Services morning at 143. This is strict middling, Buyers of cotton who rely upon the rereports in this paper, which we think [they may safely do, must be well enough posted to know how to grade and classify their purchases, before they blame us. We still contend that our reports are as near correct as they could well be under the galloping decline which the market has experienced for the last two weeks.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

[ADVERTISEMENT.] Mr. Barnes Rises to Explain.

EDITOR OBSERVER: I noticed in Saturday's issue of the Statesyille American, an article stigmatizing me as a party concerned in an alleged fraud. It is charged in this paper, that I was the real proprietor of a troupe, known as the New York Minstrels, who were advertised to perform in the town, and who, owing to the smallness of the audience were unable to comply with their engagement.

In addition to this it indulges in some scurrilous slang, stating that I am a man of bad repute, and had deserted my associates (as it calls them), when it was found no money could be made.

I denounce this as both slanderous and false. My connection with the troupe was not of a business character. I advanced money to the real proprietor, Mr Anderson, whom I knew, and finding that it could only be obtained, when they had realized it from their performances; I simply went along to secure the debt due me. I have the receipt for my hotel bill, which I paid the morning I left. What I state I am prepared to prove by authority. I would be glad if you would give this communication a place in your paper. Yours, &c.,

BENNETT BARNES. I am the real proprietor of the New York Minstrels, and state that Mr Barnes' explanation is true in every respect ISH ANDERSON.

Time, Labor and Money Saved. The attention of the public is called to the wonderful success of the MILL-BOY WASHING MACHINE, patented March 26, 1873. Its simplicity will commend it to all. It performs its work thoroughly, and with more ease than any machine now before the public. There is no friction, neither wear or tear. The most delicate can be washed without injury. It will wash the heaviest as well as the lightest article, in the most thorough manner, with less labor than any other machine, and is an indispensable article to every household. It will enable every family to do their own washing.
