visitor, and should be in every library of the land. The next in our list is SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY, which is one among the leading magazines that has taken no hand in the discussion of politics during the last decade.

ST. NICHOLAS, which to be appreciated must be seen. The little folks, and it is verily a boys and girls magazine, are in an ecstasy of delight upon its monthly visit.

CAROLINA HOUSEHOLD MAGAZINE, published by Julius A. Bonitz, of Goldsboro, of this State, because it is a home production, adopted to home wants, and talks about home affairs.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE, for June has been published by the Leonard Scott Publishing Company, 41 Barclay St., N. Y. We append a brief sketch of the contents.

"Thoughts about British Workmen, Past and Present," is an article which looks back to the beginning of the troubles between employers and employees, and traces their gradual increase.

"The Dilemma, Part II." There is a rumor afloat that this interesting story, which was commenced last month, is by the author of "The Battle of Dorking."

"Bits and Bearing-Rings" is the review of a work of that name by E. F. Flower, on "the cruelty of bearing up a horse's head."

"Any in May" is a sharp criticism on the Spring Exhibition of Pictures at the Royal Academy.

"France and Germany," a letter from Paris, explains the late "scare" the small war cloud that has lately hovered over the continent.

"Banking and Mr. Goschen's Bill," an article on English and Scotch banks and banking operations, and the index, complete the last number of the civil volume.

Cleveland Female Institute - Commencement Exercises. Messrs Editors: With a party of ladies and gentlemen from Charlotte, I arrived at the Springs in time to witness the closing exercises of the Female Seminary at that place.

Woman's Education. The theme was "Woman's Education," and was ably handled by the speaker, who imperceptibly impresses you as a fine specimen of the Southern gentleman, and as a true type of christian manhood.
