BEAUFORT.

And the multitudinous duties connected with the position which we hold, we have up to this time neglected to say a word about our recent trip to this pleasant seaside resort.

We spent a few days very pleasantly there, last week, and we were only one of about four hundred guests, who were each vying with the other to see how much pleasure could be crowded into the limited time that each had allotted to himself.

Foreign Demand for American Manufactures. One of the leading English manufacturers has just paid a compliment to a prominent New England industry. The St. Johnsbury scale manufacturers have just received an order for four of their Patent Iron Frame Truck Scales, and a leading English railroad is now putting in these standard scales.
