City Bulletin.

There was only one interment in Elmwood Cemetery last week, and that a child. The equinox is billed to take place a little more than a month hence. The streets were crowded at all times yesterday, and retail business was lively. Justice F. A. McInch, has his office in the Court House, first floor on the east upon entering. The third term of Mecklenburg Superior Court for this year, begins a week from to-morrow. Whole 'hosts' of negroes thronged Trade street last evening, going out to the camp-meeting near Biddle Institute. Our own population being added to by the negro excursionists from Columbia, progress along the streets was difficult, yesterday evening and last night. Now that Old Sol shows himself more frequently, ye genial smoke spreads himself out on the sunny side of the pavement, and enjoys ye genial sunshine. We were informed about the revival services at the Second Methodist Church, having closed. The interest has not abated, and the meeting will continue, probably for some time yet. A slight which clearly indicates that somebody proposes to do some business during the coming season, was 500 cases of shoes on the curbing, yesterday, in front of the store of Messrs Smith & Forbes. The Wainwright Band (colored) which accompanied the excursionists from Columbia, yesterday, marched through the streets last evening about dark, serenading the inhabitants.

The Temperature.

The following was the range of the thermometer yesterday, at the drug store of W. S. Burwell & Co.: 7 A. M., 75; 8 A. M., 75; 9 A. M., 75; 10 A. M., 75; 11 A. M., 75; 12 M., 75; 1 P. M., 75; 2 P. M., 75; 3 P. M., 75; 4 P. M., 75; 5 P. M., 75; 6 P. M., 75; 7 P. M., 75; 8 P. M., 75; 9 P. M., 75; 10 P. M., 75; 11 P. M., 75; 12 M., 75.

The Churches To-day.

There will be services to-day in all the churches except the Lutheran. The visiting ministers who will occupy pulpits are: Father L. P. O'Connell, who will preach at the Catholic Church, and Rev. J. Wm. Finn, who will preach at the First Presbyterian Church. We have just received from the Daily News Publishing Company, Raleigh, a new pamphlet, entitled "An Attack upon the Legislature of 1874-75, containing Summons, Complaint, Affidavit and Bonds filed by Josiah Turner, Attorney," &c. &c. It is in reference to the bonds of the Raleigh & Augusta Air Line Railroad, which have recently occupied so much of the attention of the Raleigh press.

New Postal Cards.

A circular from the Third Assistant Postmaster-General announces that the Department is prepared to commence the issue of postal cards of the new design. Postmasters will not, under any circumstances, be permitted to redeem or exchange postal cards of the old style or cards that may be misdirected, soiled in printing, or otherwise rendered unfit for use, in the hands of private holders. It will be useless to apply to the department for such exchange for redemption.

German Hop.

We acknowledge the courtesy of an invitation from the committee, Messrs S. Landecker, J. Lowman, A. D. Prince and L. Asell, to attend a hop which will be given to-morrow afternoon, 23d inst., at the German Singing Hall. We wish a pleasant evening for our German friends.

City Taxables.

The amount of taxes on the City Treasurer's book this year, and now in the hands of the City Marshal for collection, is about $32,000. This includes real and personal property and poll-taxes, bonds, solvent credits, &c. This tax will be collected, as before announced, without regard to any suit that may be pending.

Tobacco Detained.

Deputy Collector, F. H. Phelan, on yesterday found 41 boxes of manufactured tobacco, in the North Carolina Railroad Depot in this city, awaiting shipment, and detained it for the reason that the boxes were not properly stamped. The tobacco is from the factory of R. A. Holderby, Ruffin, N. C., and was going South.

Needs Fixing.

The street force was engaged yesterday, on Mint, having just finished up some work on Ninth. While they are going around, the street force people would be glad to have them pay some attention to Trade street, between this railroad and the burnt "Brown House." Great gutters have been washed in the pavement.

Cotton Last Week.

There was much business in the cotton market, all of last week, in Liverpool and New York. The demand here has been only to supply spinners and the market has remained firm. Sales of the week amounted to 105 bales, 25 of which were sold yesterday. The market closed at the figures which prevailed all week.

The Courts.

Mayor's Court.—Isaac Robinson, colored, was yesterday morning for stealing wearing ears, which amusement is quite popular just now. He was fined $10 and cost, in default of which he went back to the calaboose.

Before Justice Davidson.

Fred. Hall, colored, on a writ of habeas corpus, was yesterday before Justice Davidson. He was held in $200, on a writ of habeas corpus, on a writ of habeas corpus, on a writ of habeas corpus.

Attempt to Rob a Stage.

We learn that the store of Messrs. M. C. Despeaks & Co., of Wainwright, S. C., was entered on Friday night by robbers but fortunately Mr. Despeaks, hearing the noise, prepared himself and fired upon them. Several shots were exchanged, without damage to either party. Only a small amount of money was taken from the drawer. Suspicion rests upon three negroes, who were seen about midnight sitting upon the door steps.

The Colored Camp Meeting.

This will be a great day among the darkies, the camp meeting near the Biddle Institute being in progress. Excursionists to the number of 300, arrived in this city yesterday afternoon at 8 o'clock from Columbia, and will remain until this evening. An excursion train will also be in to-day from Lincolnton. Horses and vehicles of all kinds will be in demand to-day, and livery stable men, at least, will find the camp-meeting a "big bonanza."

Personal.

Rev. Father J. B. Bands, of St. Peter's Catholic Church, is absent on a visit to his former home in Connecticut. While gone he will solicit funds for the erection of a new church in this city.

Shooting on the Train.

Yesterday afternoon while the train on the Charlotte, Columbia & Augusta Railroad was coming northward, a drunken man went to a seat occupied by a young man named O'Neil, from Chester, and attempted to take possession of it. The young man objected and hot words ensued, during which both parties drew pistols. O'Neil, however, was the quicker of the two, and fired twice before the other man could get ready, both balls taking effect. The effect of the injury inflicted, we did not learn, as the conductor put the fellow off the train. O'Neil came on to Charlotte.

The Bidders on the New Insurance Building.

As it will be of interest to some of our readers to know who put in bids for the erection of the new insurance building, and the amounts, we present the names and figures below: Joel E. Fry, $28,800; Thos. H. Allen for Cape Fear Building Company, $28,800; S. Redding, $28,800; Thos. Woodruff, $26,174; John Sholar, $33,980; Wm. Challenger, $33,750; Murray & Robinson, $28,800; Josiah Asbury, $34,668; G. W. Forester, $28,400.

New Professor.

We find the following in the Columbia Register, of Friday. Though it is news to us, we suppose the Register speaks by the book, as Col. Thomas was at Columbia at the time the subject appeared: "Major J. Bonham has received the appointment of Assistant Professor of Mathematics and Physics in the Carolina Military Institute at Charlotte, N. C. Major Bonham, who is a son of Governor Bonham, was Professor last year in the University of Georgia. He is a distinguished graduate of the Virginia Military Institute."

It Dropped off Accidentally.

What has become of the live 'Charlotte' (N. C.) Observer?—Portsmouth (Va.) Enterprise. Your name, neighbor, was stricken from our mail books by a mistake of the mailing clerk, and we are glad you called our attention to the matter. This reminds us that the local columns of the Enterprise have been very indifferently filled for some days past, and we are just now finding the explanation of it. Didn't have the Observer to clip his local from.

Vance in Virginia.

We find in the Richmond Dispatch, of Friday an elaborate report of the address of ex-Gov. Vance before the Southern Historical Society, at the Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia, on Wednesday. The address is a patriotic review of the part which North Carolina bore in the late war, the "number and valor of her soldiers and the patriotism of her people." That he should have chosen that subject, is a thing creditable to Gov. Vance's love of State, and we know that the Old North State received ample justice on this occasion from this her affectionate son. We will publish the report in our next issue. On Thursday night Gov. Vance delivered his lecture on "The Scattered Nation," at the Springs.

Rowdiness at the Depot.

Very frequently, at the time the train of the North Carolina Railroad leaves this city at night, the platform is crowded with negroes, who indulge in loud talking and laughing, profanity and other virgarity, to the disgust of the passengers who are in the train waiting for it to leave. It sometimes occurs that the platform is so crowded with these rascals, as to render it difficult for passengers to get to the trains. The nuisance is loud, and justly complained of, by the conductors, who themselves have no authority to abate the nuisance, and who, in taking steps to do so, are at the risk of becoming involved in a difficulty.

Game Between the Colored Clubs of Charlotte and Concord.

The Palmett Nine of colored base ballists of this city, went over to Concord on Friday to play a match game with the Wade and Batcher Nine of that town. Two of their men report having been left in Charlotte and a third as having been crippled, so that they had no chance. They state further that instead of playing the Wade and Batcher Nine, the Haymakers were pitted against them when they went on the ground. At my rate they went the way of the Centennials "when it played the Lone Nine—they got ficked and no mistake. The score stood 62 to 40.

Randoms Express Work.

There has been a revolution in the art of freighting in this city, since Mr. Fred. Kraeger took up his residence here, and some of his work would attract attention anywhere. He has done a good deal of work here, all of which is highly creditable, but his best specimen is in the new residence of Mr. J. E. Holland, in "Sunup," which is just being finished. We will not attempt a description of a la artiste; we would fail if we did, in conveying an intelligent idea of the designs employed, but we have a good enough eye for beauty in anything to distinguish the handsome from the indifferent and to tell the relative beauty of two specimens of art after having seen them.

Freescue Frescoe!

HAVING SECURED THE SERVICES OF MR. F. KRUEGER, (ARTIST), I am now prepared to do FRESCOE PAINTING in the latest and most approved STYLES. I refer to the work already done at the CENTRAL HOTEL, FIRST NATIONAL and MERCHANTS & FARMERS BANKS, and PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH and MASONIC TEMPLE. E. M. ANDREWS.

Saturday Scenes.

When Saturday comes and all the darkies, men, women and children from ten counties, assemble here and sit down on the edges of the pavements and eat pies and watermelons and the children don't have on any clothes hardly, and display their limbs nearly as well as a girl with a pin-belt on, when these things come to pass, we say like they did yesterday, we feel like packing our candle box and fleeing to the mountains of Moab.

For Whomever it May Fit.

As some one has well remarked, many people in the world are like cats; you may stroke them gently for a life time, and they will purr and be satisfied, but stroke them once the wrong way, and the memory of all former consideration is obliterated. Nobody can appreciate the force of this more than a journalist. No matter for how long or how frequently he may lavish compliments upon, or say pleasant words of, some men and their connections, just so soon as he commits one little indiscretion and says something not entirely palatable though harmless of itself, every kind thing that has been said is forgotten, and nothing too unkind or unjust can be said of the poor devil. When we contemplate such a character as this, we would not much blame the Pharisee if he had said "Lord, I thank Thee that I am not as some other men are."

Report of the Auditor of the Air Line Railroad.

A reporter of the Atlanta Constitution has examined the report of Mr. J. M. Patton, auditor of the Air Line Railroad, and says that the statements of the auditor is that, in accordance with his appointment of the 9th of June as special master he visited the cities of Greenville, Charlotte and Richmond in July, Nottens or incumbrances against the Atlanta & Richmond Air Line railway company, were presented to him in either of these places, or in Atlanta, in New York on the 29th of July, complainant's counsel exhibited to him the original deed of trust made to receive the payment of the first mortgage bonds, issued by the Atlanta & Richmond Air Line railway company.
