Seventeenth Sunday after Trinity. The city was as dull yesterday as ditch water.

The melancholy days have quit choking me.—C. M. E.

Matters of current news force us to again omit the Sunday reading to-day.

The carpenters have finished their work at the Second Presbyterian Church. Wall Tuesday next is the time for the equinox to begin, but its rains have preceded it.

Excepting St Mark's Lutheran, all the churches in the city will be open for services to-day.

Now you don't really expect any news on this side this morning, do you? Remember yesterday.

The Board of Aldermen will meet to-morrow night in regular session, at their hall over the Market House.

Gov Vance was, we believe, the only citizen of Charlotte, who attended the opening exercises at Chapel Hill.

You know now what champagne are ripe, for yesterday a country dandy was in town with a string of them around his neck.

The man who had a fire in his shop, yesterday, was the man who was most popular among the old "stiffs" and "bums."

We hear rumors of another new daily being started here. We suppose somebody has just married an heiress.

The Centennial Base Ball Club of this city has disbanded for the present season. They've had glory enough for one summer.

It is understood, we believe, that the officers of the Bank of Mecklenburg have no great objection to its being put into bankruptcy.

This is what they call the "harvest moon," but it can't be seen these nights, so to all intents and purposes it had just as well be any other sort of a moon.

Last week was one of unprecedented quietude in police circles. On only two mornings were there sessions of the police court, and during the week there were not exceeding two arrests by the "cops."

Mr O W Badger has purchased the bar and billiard saloon of Mr O C Horton, on Tryon street, between the First National Bank and the Commercial National and will conduct the establishment in future.

Postponed. The funeral services of little Annie E D Horton, having been postponed on account of the inclemency of the weather, will take place this morning at the residence of the parents at 19 o'clock. The friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend.

Freight Line Agent. Mr W A Moody has been appointed agent of the Great Southern Dispatch Freight Line, with headquarters in this city. Mr M is here now prepared to enter upon his duties. He is a pleasant, polite gentleman, and will no doubt get along well with our people.

The Theatre. Our theatrical season opens this week, with Kit Carson, Jr., at the Charlotte Opera House, on Saturday night. The season promises to be one far surpassing the last in brilliancy.

Remedy for Sore Throat. Take one large pill of red pepp'r, such as are grown for family use; steep it in half a pint of water, adding a little vinegar; boil all together in a thin syrup; use this whenever the throat feels dry or disagreeable. If it be in the dead of night, it will soothe the throat (and not irritate) and warm it up well. If sharper than can be borne in the mouth, put it back near the palate with a spoon, and swallow. Apply outwardly a thin slice of salt pork, warming it up well in a little vinegar and pepper; apply as hot as can be borne on the throat; repeat the bandage that holds the pork over the head, to draw the cold and inflammation up, and not about the neck, as most people do.—E.

Scuppernon Grapes.

Mr A G Call will accept our thanks for a basket of delightful scuppernon grapes presented us last evening.

The Election in Orange.

From railroad passengers who have arrived in the city, we learn that the official majority of Maj W N Patterson, the Conservative candidate for Convention in Orange, is 706 votes.

On the Road Again.

We are glad to see Mr J R Chatham in the city again. He was the engineer of the mail train on the Air-Line Railroad which was wrecked eight weeks ago yesterday, near Central.

Returned Cotton Buyers. Nearly or quite all the cotton buyers from a distance, who resided in Charlotte during the last season, will return again this Fall.

Amusements. Circuses are coming. Mrs Lander is "doing" Europe just now. We look for her.

John Robinson is coming South with his "manager" and "grand moral circus." Stickney and Lowlow and Miss Emma Lake are the acrobatic stars.

Personal. Dr J J Mott, of Statesville, Collector of Internal Revenue for this district, was in the city yesterday.

City Bulletin. Maj A Pope, of the Atlantic Coast Line, arrived last evening and registered at the Central Hotel.

Prof T B Bailey, formerly of Raleigh, passed through this city a day or two ago, on his way to Cave Spring, Ga., where he proposes to establish a school.

Greenville Daily News. We are glad to see the announcement that the Greenville (S C) Daily News, is to be enlarged in a very short time.

Constables Whitley and King. It gives us pleasure to bear testimony to the efficiency of these two officers, who have not long since entered upon their duties as Constables in this township.

Between Cross Fires. The other day we received an anonymous postal card from some illiterate cub telling us that he thought we had about "examined" the pin back question, and advising us to hold up our remarks concerning them.

The Rain. The oldest inhabitants scanneth "memory's walls" to recall a day similar in all its features, to yesterday.

No; we can't do it. In the first place, he who wrote the postal card would be displeased with us and that would be the end of us; in the second place the old gentleman who led us aside the other day and told us that if we continued to shell the style, he never could get his daughter to unpin, wouldn't like it; in the third place the young lady, who says that if we keep on she will pin back till she stops the circulation of her blood just for spite, might die, and then we would be tried for murder.

Nightfall brought no relief to the great gloominess, but added rather to it by its darkness; and, as this is written, the whistling of the wind and the pattering of the rain upon the window panes, give promise of a Sunday as disagreeable as the day preceding it.

Who's Hit? The Statesville Landmark, copies the joke which we recently published about the young newspaper man who went to the camp meeting and stuck his posters up on the church and was about to put one on the pulpit when they stopped him, and adds:

"Who said it was 'ye local' of the Landmark? A fellow can't stand everything. Now, Joseph, you just keep one eye open, and wait for developments."

We have a couple of eyes, neighbor, and they are generally open on working days. Speaking of "developments," reminds us that we have a couple of little "goats" in reserve yet, ready to be trotted out at a moment's notice.

Water Works Again. We refer to this subject again. An acquaintance of ours, who has been in Atlanta lately, speaks of the successful test that had just been made of the waterworks in that city.

The other day when Babington, of the Shelby Aurora, was in the city, he dropped a baby's shoe out of his pocket and a friend who picked it up, gave it to us.
