

SMITH & FORBES' SECOND FALL STOCK, BOOTS AND SHOES. Wholesale and Retail.

WADE & PEGRAM. NEW ARRIVAL 1875. FINE STOCK. Boots and shoes for the fall and winter trade.

Gentlemen's Hand and Machine-Made GAITERS AND BOOTS. To be found in the City. Ladies', Misses', and Children's goods in endless variety.

Burgess Nichols & Co. Wholesale & Retail. Furniture, Bedding, &c.

NEW MEAT MARKET. Supply of Trusses, all grades. A full assortment of Metallic Cases, Caskets and Wood Coffins on hand.

ROSE & JAMISON. Slaughterers. Wholesale & Retail.

TENNESSEE BEEF AND MUTTON. Wilson & Black. D.R.UGGISTS.

THE CITY

SPLENDID autumn weather, the nights are considerably longer than the days, and there was no occasion for the shooting.

Base Ballists Off for Salisbury. The members of the Menckenburg Nine leave this morning on the early train for Salisbury.

Hand Lacerated. J.P. Alexander, Esq. who lives near the city, had his right hand badly lacerated on yesterday, in a cotton gin.

Coronation. In speaking of the representatives of the Alabama Gold Life Insurance Company, in yesterday's issue of the Observer, we said that Judge Pierpont of Alabama would conduct the agency in Charlotte.

Off for Salisbury. About 20 members of the Hornet Fire Company, left last night for Salisbury on the passenger train.

Invited to Participate in a Military Contest. During the Wilmington Fair next month, there will be a reunion of the survivors of the troops who defended Fort Fisher.

Train in the Ditch. The North Carolina train due here at 8:45 P. M., did not arrive last night. Telegrams announced that it ran off on the Richmond & Danville Railroad.

Death of a Little Orphan Girl. A young girl named Little Marie Carrington of Charlotte, was quietly sleeping in her bed last Saturday morning.

The Unravelling of Jackson's Statue. This event will occur at Richmond on Tuesday next, the 29th inst., and will be attended by several persons from this city.

Never too Late for a Wedding. We got to thinking about it yesterday, when we saw people come into church late on Sunday.

Notice. SUNDAY trains have been discontinued on the Western Division of the Carolina Railroad.

THE CITY

Midnight Encounters. With a dog. A bank officer of this city, has been playing the role of butcher.

The Minstrels To-Night. Dupree & Benedict's Minstrel will appear at the Charlotte Opera House to-night.

Special Train for a Director. On Monday afternoon, A. B. Davidson, Esq. of this city, a director of the Charlotte, Columbia & Augusta Railroad, received a telegram from Augusta.

The Courts. Mayor's Court, Benj Grant and Julia Miller, colored Five Pointers, were up for an affray.

Death of a Little Orphan Girl. A young girl named Little Marie Carrington of Charlotte, was quietly sleeping in her bed last Saturday morning.

The Unravelling of Jackson's Statue. This event will occur at Richmond on Tuesday next, the 29th inst., and will be attended by several persons from this city.

Never too Late for a Wedding. We got to thinking about it yesterday, when we saw people come into church late on Sunday.

Notice. SUNDAY trains have been discontinued on the Western Division of the Carolina Railroad.

Notice. SUNDAY trains have been discontinued on the Western Division of the Carolina Railroad.

Notice. SUNDAY trains have been discontinued on the Western Division of the Carolina Railroad.

Notice. SUNDAY trains have been discontinued on the Western Division of the Carolina Railroad.

KOOPMANN & ROTHSCHILD. WILL COMMENCE TO SELL THEIR STOCK OF GOODS AT AUCTION.

OPERA HOUSE. MONDAY, WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY and FRIDAY, OCTOBER 21ST and 22ND.

OPERA HOUSE. THURSDAY and FRIDAY, OCTOBER 21ST and 22ND.

STOP A MOMENT. THE CHEAPEST GOODS FOR CASH IN THE STATE.

WILD DUCKS. FRESH FISH. E. H. WHITE'S.

THIS MORNING. 100 BARRELS OF BACON. 5 CENTS WILL BUY BACON BACON.

BACON BACON. 5 CENTS WILL BUY BACON BACON.