

It is rumored in Paris that the Assembly will be asked to authorize the prosecution of Rouher for his recent speech attacking MacMahon and the constitution. It will be inconsistent to prosecute Rouher and leave Louis Blanc unmolested. The latter made quite as severe an attack on the constitution and government the other day, at the anniversary of the organization of the republic of 1792. Rouher, however, would not have dared to express himself in a hostile manner to the government had he not been assured of the strength of imperialism in France.

CHAS. R. JONES, P. BREVARD McDOWELL, Editors & Proprietors. Thursday, October 28 1875. "Free from the dotting scribbles that fetter our free-born press."

"THE OBSERVER" IS THE ONLY PAPER PUBLISHED IN THE STATE WEST OF RALEIGH WHICH GIVES THE LATEST TELEGRAPHIC DISPATCHES EVERY MORNING. BUSINESS MEN WILL PLEASE MAKE A NOTE OF THIS.

INFLXIBLE RULES. We cannot receive anonymous communications. In all cases we require the writer's name and address, not for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith. We cannot, under any circumstances, return rejected communications, nor can we undertake to preserve manuscripts. Articles written on both sides of a sheet of paper cannot be accepted for publication.

OBSERVATIONS. "Gla-Tyrist" is the fashionable beverage. The French Assembly will begin its everlasting volubility November 4. It has been figured out that we are to have twenty-six snow storms this winter. Rhode Island has only 480 papers out of 73,273 spots, and $19,000,000 in savings banks. A ray of light travels at the rate of 192,000 miles per second. Some deaf mutes at Trieste have been taught to sing. Broom-handles are now painted by machinery in Amsterdam, N. Y. Massachusetts Republican papers deny that Wendell Phillips is a Republican. He only votes the Republican ticket. A railroad postoffice clerk on the route between Boston and Portland was arrested last night. He had upon his person twenty-two letters taken from the day's mail. The total number of Parliamentary elections now on the registers of England and Wales is 2,301,208. The matrimonial newspapers in London are to be suppressed. Green Lake, Colorado, has been stocked with sixty-thousand mountain and salmon trout. They now have another very serious complaint against the unfinished Washington monument. It isn't high enough to kill a man when he jumps off it. Iowa papers estimate their corn crop this year at 89,000,000 bushels, about a bushel apiece for every inhabitant of the United States. Prof. Wise is still fooling around with his balloons. His ambition is to be known as the great inflationist. Josh Billings will have $3,000 worth of comic almanacs to answer for in the next world. He will probably try to throw the blame on his publishers. It was Voltaire who said: "It is more easy to write about money than to have it, and those who have it laugh at those who can only write about it."—Nashville American. Senator West, of Louisiana, is in Washington, spreading reports about a coming Democratic attempt to unseat the State government. This is the season of the year for such reports. Now that Chandler is securely seated in the Cabinet, the country need not be much surprised to see Bristol, Jewell, and Pierpont take their leave, and Blackback, Fred. Douglas, and Antoine, take their places. Some New York bloods have organized a fox-hunting club, with a capital of $10,000. They will tally ho on Long Island, and have already paid $500 for a pack of fox hounds of Irish descent trained in Virginia. John Morrissey is a candidate for senator in the Fourth district in New York. Morrissey is upheld by the anti-Tammany Executive Committee, and says he will vindicate the rights of free and honest labor. Two hundred and sixty-three years ago Sir Henry Walton said, in a letter to a friend: "An ambassador is an honest man sent to lie abroad for the good of the Commonwealth." A darkey, left in charge of a telegraph office while the operator went to dinner, heard some one "call" over the wires, and began shouting at the instrument, "The operator isn't yer!" The noise ceased. Nothing hurts the feelings of a Vassar girl so much as to be told, in the presence of strangers at the breakfast table, that she must "limit herself to thirty pancakes on this occasion." Beecher has squarely acknowledged the truth of Moulton's and Tilden's charges by withdrawing his suits for libel against them. The Rochester Express says that tight trousers are no longer worn. This is not true. A day ago, we saw a man yesterday in tight trousers. It was difficult to tell, though, which was the tighter, the man or the trousers. The Rev. Dr. Eccleston's election as Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church for the Diocese of Iowa, has been confirmed. Twenty-four dioceses have given their consent to it and only three refused. Of the remaining seventeen dioceses it is thought that fifteen at least will vote yes. A San Francisco woman vehemently asserts that a year-old baby with a cup of sirup and a teaspoon will not injure a parrot. She says she has given her bird a will with ten cents worth of tobacco. Sixteen Chinese women were sold at auction in California the other day, only Chinese being allowed to bid. The highest price was eight dollars and one sold for sixty cents. Such a market being allowed in America is a reflection upon our women and a parody on the principles of Americanism.—Sunday Press and Cultivator. If you would like to Billy Wye We would all cry, But the Chinese— Between you and me— Buy up their wives For the rest of their lives. We do but the same With a slight change of name.

We call attention to a very judicious article in another column from the Raleigh News on the recent decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, affecting the operation of the State usury laws on National Banks. This is the highest tribunal in the land and decides that the National Banks of the country are subject only to the penalties prescribed by the National Bank act, for taking usurious interest: a forfeiture of the interest, and that the penalties prescribed for violation of any State usury law by State legislatures are, as far as National Banks are concerned, inoperative and void. This decision vindicates the wisdom of those who opposed our State usury law, as the National Banks will now have a monopoly and individuals will prefer to put their money in the bank rather than incur the trouble and uncertainty incident to loaning it to private parties. The effect of this decision will soon appear. We venture to say the National Bank stock of this city will rise ten or fifteen per cent in value. The people of this community will certainly lose nothing by this decision and we hope and believe business throughout the State will be encouraged by it. The Legislature as soon as it meets can repeal the usury act and then the banks and individuals will be on the same footing.

AN IMPROVEMENT IN TELEGRAPHING.—The following information from the Richmond Dispatch will be hailed with delight by the martyrs to Associated Press Dispatches chronography where soever dispersed: "Yesterday we received our telegrams printed in the plainest and most legible style upon a plan invented by Mr. J. W. Kates, of the Western Union Telegraph office, in this city. It is a most valuable invention. It avoids all the probable errors in transcribing the messages, and gives to printers the greatest facility in putting the message in type." Mr. Kates is a public benefactor.

EX-GOVERNOR WISE.—Ex-Governor Henry A. Wise, of Virginia, visited Worcester county, Md., last week, and argued a will case at Snow Hill, during which, it is said, he declared that he was an "unconquered and unrepentant Confederate." In a public speech at Newtown, in answer to a serenade, he pronounced strongly for hard money, declared his purpose never to take the test oath; believed the cause of the South in the late war just, but declared his love for the stars and stripes, gave some good, sound advice to the farming community; paid a high compliment to the mechanic and working man, and said that one lady was worth ten men.

SOUTH CAROLINA NEWS. G. Errington Elford, of Greenville is dead. Col. Pope is to deliver a series of lectures on James L. Pettigrew, in Greenville. It is reported that Mr. Owen Daly will open the Wheeler house in Columbia next week as a first class hotel. The funeral of Dr. Robert Wilson Gibbs of Columbia took place on last Sunday and was largely attended by a concourse of relatives and friends. The Governor of South Carolina pardoned on last week Jacob B. Lowman convicted at February, 1875 of a fraudulent breach and sentenced to the Penitentiary for one year. $19,000 of second mortgage Greenville Railroad bonds, with coupons since July 1, 1873, will be sold at auction on Wednesday, November 3, at Columbia. Mr. J. T. Forbes, the invention and manufacturer of that handy and ingenious whining machine which is exhibited with much satisfaction on Broad street, some time ago, has been notified that he has been awarded a medal by the Georgia State Fair. News and Courier.

In the Silverton portion of Aiken County the recent heavy frosts have destroyed much of the late cotton crop and early fall vegetables. The cold has been intense, ice having formed in many places. Excepting these drawbacks the farmers seem to be doing pretty well.

Mr. John L. Stall, an employee at the Charlotte Railroad shops, died yesterday, of typhoid fever. He was a young man of excellent character and had, by his exemplary conduct, won many friends. The funeral services will be performed at the Washington Street Methodist Church, this afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

Mr. M. F. Nixon late chief of Police in Columbia and placed under bond for performing the famous Kimbrough diamond piece was surrendered by his bondsmen on Monday. His counsel F. J. Moses Jr. and Lionel J. Noth Esq., have applied for a writ of habeas Corpus to be tried before Chief Justice Moses of the Supreme court.

A couple of gentlemen of our town went out to practice rifle shooting on Saturday last, having some idea of joining a rifle-team. After firing a few rounds, they concluded to examine their target, when lo and behold, a little beyond was the dying carcass of a freedman's horse. Their little amusement only cost them $30 and they have decided not to join the team.—Spartanburg Herald.

Collector Carpenter's officials made a capture on Saturday last of a tobacco wagon from North Carolina, containing twenty boxes of tobacco. Special Deputy John T. Grist made the seizure at Yorkville. He arrested the peddler, John Morton, who was doing business without a license, and confiscated his entire establishment, consisting of two mules, a wagon and the aforementioned tobacco.—Columbia Register.

The coming State Fair will, without the shadow of a doubt, be the best that has taken place in Columbia since the war. Major Woodward, Col. Aiken and the rest of the society have spared no pains in trying to make it a success, and we hope they will succeed. Prominent among the speakers will be in attendance on the 9th of November are Hon. Jeff. Davis, Gov. Hendrix, of Indiana, Gen. Colquitt and Col. Capers of Georgia, besides several other distinguished gentlemen. Let there be a general turnout. Winsboro News.

Perhaps never in the history of this country, not even during the panic, has there been such an enormous and incessant succession of failures in the large commercial and manufacturing cities North as for the past month. The press dispatches from New York and other points, are full of announcements of assignments every night so that we cannot publish half of them. And the trouble is these announcements increase rather than diminish in number day after day. We always feel inclined to heed every telegraphic announcement of this character "Gone Republican." There is no getting round the fact that the Republican party, in the nation as well as in the States, has fostered and encouraged reckless speculation and is responsible for most of the commercial disasters North and the business stagnation everywhere. A gambling party has controlled the government and well nigh made the country a nation of gamblers. Nearly all the business North is conducted on a flimsy foundation. Transactions involving millions are made with a few thousand. Those people "up North" are just commencing to strike bottom. We Southern people struck bottom in '65 and have been ever at stand still or gradually ascending. Yankeeedom has been at the top but she rose too rapidly, her underpinning has become deranged and she is now rapidly descending to that business bottom whence no tradesman returns without being the wiser therefor.

The decision of the U. S. Supreme Court, which is not an unexpected innovation upon the usury law, will have the effect of giving to the National Banks in this State a monopoly of the business of money-lending. The provisions of our usury law, with its tremendous penalties, are not applicable to loans made by them. The mild penalty inflicted by the National Bank Act has never had the effect of restricting them to the rigorous State usury laws, and so the banks will have a monopoly. Individuals will prefer to place their money in the banks, as a safer investment than loans to others, and the banks will loan it out to needy borrowers at such rates as they may choose to ask. This is the evil that should have been guarded against by the framers of the law and that will need correction at the hands of the Legislature of 1877.

The English papers say the main issue on which the Chinese and the British governments are at issue are these: First. That the authorities in Peking refuse to punish the officials who conspired at, or permitted, the murder of Mr. Margery; and next, that they decline to publish in the Gazette copies of the treaties between China and foreign nations. If they punish the murder-abetting officials it will be disagreeable to Birmingham, as showing that foreigners must not be interfered with, and the publication of treaties with foreign powers would be to proclaim the downfall of Chinese supremacy. If Minister Li Hung-Chung continues to resist on these points, the British minister will leave China, and the British forces in Chinese waters will begin hostilities. It now amounts to twenty-one ships, with 112 guns, and over 2000 officers and men. It can speedily and extensively be reinforced with ships from the Japanese waters and India, as well as with several regiments of infantry, cavalry and artillery. It is thought that, at the last moment, Minister Li Hung-Chung will concede all that England demands.

OUTRAGES.—One reason why the cry of "Ku-Klux" has lost its magic at the North is because a dreadful plague is at their own doors. The Philadelphia Chronicle says: "Nameless outrages upon little girls have become so frequent as to render it absolutely unsafe for parents to allow their children out of their sight, especially in the Eastern States. It is impossible to go good for the fiends who perpetrate these brutal outrages, and to that conclusion people are beginning to come. Roasting or flaying alive would scarcely be too severe a punishment for the brutal scoundrels, and if some of them are subjected to that kind of treatment one of these days the public need not be surprised."

It has been known for some time that Chief Engineer Coleman had made an important discovery, by which he could shorten this road some 7 1/2 miles, and thus save an immense sum to the company, as the shortening of distance will be made in the most difficult, or mountain section of the road. The board of directors met at Dr. McAbey's on last Wednesday, and after due consideration of the new route, formally adopted it. We are glad to announce that the prospects for an early completion of the road are very bright, and it will not be long before the Spartanburg & Asheville Railroad will be numbered among the accomplished facts.—Carolina Spartan.

The work on the great suspension bridge which is to unite Brooklyn with New York seems to be dragging terribly. It was commenced in January, 1870, and was to be completed in six years, at a cost of $10,000,000. The engineer, however, says it will take until July, 1879, to finish it, and it will cost not less than $16,000,000. There is considerable ill-feeling in Brooklyn because New York has not paid her share of the expenses thus far. The bridge is to be 5,988 feet long, and 85 feet wide. After its completion many of the ferry-boat lines will have to vacate the East river.

Raleigh Sentinel: The Weldon Fair opened today with bright prospects for a complete success. Entries yesterday were larger than heretofore, and visitors pouring in from every direction. The races promise to afford particularly fine sport; up to yesterday forty horses having entered. Our city will be largely represented, and the presence of some of our belles will tend to the occasion a charm and grace which it would not otherwise have.

G. S. H. APPELEGET ARCHITECT, AND AGENT FOR ALL KINDS Iron Fences of Building, Galvanized Cornices, Iron Fences, Crestings, AND ALL KINDS GALVANIZED WORK. Which he will sell cheaper than any person. Office hours from 9 to 12 m., and 2 to 9 p. m. G. S. H. APPELEGET, wishes to inform the public at large, that he is prepared to furnish Plans of all kinds of buildings with working drawings in full, which will be found much plainer than those of any other man in the State, he being a practical builder, having an experience of 15 years in three of the largest cities of the United States. He can answer any question or give any information in regard to the construction of any part of the building, as he is fully qualified to go and do the work himself. With 15 years as a builder and 14 as an Architect, he knows just what is necessary for a mechanic to get along with, and with this experience you will at once see that he has a pretty good knowledge of the business. You can judge for yourself as to whether a man is an Architect without being a practical builder. Some in this State claim to be Architects when they have no knowledge of the business and can only be called draughtsmen, and need some one to instruct them at all times should they undertake a job. For the last six years he has been employed in this State, and has done all the best buildings, with only a few exceptions in Raleigh, Goldsboro and Greensboro, and almost all over the State, where persons can see his work. In Charlotte he would call attention to S. P. Smith's Iron Front Building, and Sims & Dowd's Store, and a number of the private residences here.

He refers to all who have employed him as Architect and Superintendent, as to his ability. He can furnish if any desire them, the name of parties and buildings, but cannot do so here for the want of room. He can show as many fine buildings as any other man of his age, and will take pleasure in doing so. Any person visiting Charlotte is invited to call and examine his drawings, which he has at least 500. He guarantees to have 50 to 1 of any other person in the State. All are invited to examine them whether they are going to build or not. The ladies are specially invited. mal15
