ITS USES AND ABUSES.

EFITOR SENTINEL: - The alarming use of the pardoning power, by the gov-ernors of this State since the war, is a subject which ought to engage the at-tention and thought of the good men of the State everywhere. We venture the assertion that Governor Brogden has, during his brief term, pardoned more persons convicted of crime, than dent to advancing age. We have not the the record at hand, but we believe Governor Brogden pardoned not less than one hundred and twenty convicts. Governor Caldwell, from Nov. 1873, to ly 1, 1874, seven months, pardened
