THE CITY. CHARLOTTE, N. C., December 20th, 1875. On and after this date, mails will open and close in this office as follows:

THE CITY. The oyster business ain't much just now. Judge Schenck opens Chambers Court in this city to-morrow.

THE CITY. The stock market goes into effect in this township to-morrow. Stock owners would do well to bear this in mind to-day.

THE CITY. A dense fog hung over the city last night, and the dampness could almost be felt soaking in through the pores of one's skin.

THE CITY. The accident on the North Carolina Railroad yesterday, delayed the mail train coming South so that it did not arrive until near 12 last night.

THE CITY. We are experiencing the traditional "calm after a storm." Since last Saturday there has not been a ripple upon the placid bosom of the city.

THE CITY. Our dealers have replenished their stocks for the New Year trade, and the usual holiday supply of presents are again on hand, notwithstanding Christmas has just passed.

THE CITY. Watch Night will be observed in Tryon Street Methodist Church. Services will commence this evening at 10 o'clock and continue until 12 o'clock.

THE CITY. The drain running across Fifth street, between Tryon and Church, and near the corner of the latter, has caved in, and the street is well impassable for wagons, in consequence. It needs immediate attention.

Acknowledgments. We make our acknowledgments to the committee of arrangements—Messrs Julius Henner, H Kluppelberg and J Braun—for an invitation to attend a ball to be given this evening by the members of the German Singing Club, at their hall on Tryon Street.

Removal. Messrs T Coleman & Son, will remove their stock of groceries and provisions from their present stand on College street, on the 1st of January, to the stand on Trade street, now occupied by C S Holton & Co., who will remove two doors higher up, on the same street.

Matrimonial. The festivities of the merry Christmas tide with the ministrations of Santa Claus, seem to have put the thinny old "god of roasts" completely in the shade.

Death of Hon Burton Craige. We are pained to learn that Hon Burton Craige, of Salisbury, died on yesterday morning at 4.30 o'clock, at the residence of his son-in-law, A B Young, Esq., in Concord, where he has been lying sick for two or three weeks past.

Suture of Crooked. On yesterday, Deputy Collector Marshal Taylor and Deputy Collector T. D. McAlpine seized a barrel of crooked whiskey which they found in the dwelling house of Mr Wiley Rudisill, just beyond the Fair Grounds and about a mile from the city.

Darky's Vision. John Henderson, colored (many of our citizens know him) had a vision lately, and on Christmas Day he was attending a love feast at a Methodist Church in the country when he was called upon to give in his experience.

Personal. Col E H Liles, the bold and original editor of the Wadesboro Herald, was in the city yesterday.

Personal. Col John B Peck, the Master of Transportation of the Air Line Railroad, was registered at the Hotel Hamilton on Monday.

The Hop Last Night. The hop which was given last night at the Central Hotel, under the auspices of the Charlotte Hop Club, was a delightful event in every sense, as was unanimously voted.

The Alderman Case. Mr J T Alderman, the conductor on the Carolina Central Railroad, who went to Atlanta to extricate his brother, A M Alderman, from trouble in which he was involved in connection with the theft of $1,500 from Wooten's Express, arrived in this city yesterday morning.

Great Mulberry Sellers. We feel especially interested in Mr Raymond having a fine house on Monday night. It is very certain that the people of Charlotte will not have the opportunity this season of seeing a finer piece of acting than he will give us.

Comment on the Charlotte Riot. The Raleigh News offers the following sensible comments upon the riot which took place in this city on Christmas Day:

The Old Year. With to-day ends the old year; a year fraught with so many joys and sorrows, so many pleasures realized and hopes frustrated.

The Courts. There was no session of the Mayor's Court yesterday morning, by reason of the fact that there were no cases on the docket for trial.
