Cardinal McCloskey on the Religious Question-Failure.

NEW YORK, Jan. 14 -Cardinal Mc Closkey addressed the Catholic Union, alluding to the discussion in relation to the bitle in the public schools. He said: "If this persecution which appears to be threatened is to come, let it come; they would emerge from it better Catholics than ever." This trouble, he said, was not going to be a religious but political trouble. The Protestants had lighted the fire and expected that the Catholics would supply the fuel. He urged them not to him pleasure to yield to his colleagues, throw faggots on the fire but as cau- or to other gentlemen on each side of tion and advice, entreated them that the House, but that he felt that neithshould the struggle come, to be true er the peace of the country nor the to each other and the church, and harmony of the House required any

OBSERVER OFFICE CHARLOTTE, N. C., Jan. 15, 1876. The Cotton Market,

The Liv-roool cotton market for all grades fell off yesterday fully a 1 16 d, and Boston and New Yark, as well as all the principal cotton ports quickly ollowed. The market co. s quently weakened here from } to for how g ad soni, and the market closed Good grades maintain the prices of the past week. This dec ine it is thought is caused by the heavy receipts for the past two weeks, added to the duil state of trade throughout the country. The r-ceips for the past two weeks are now 1.5 600 bales in excess of the same period for lest year at all the port; while the receipts at all the ports since the first of September-the beginning of the the cotton year-are now something over 300 (0) bales in excess of the same period last year.
