CITY BULLETIN.

dec21 tf

Old Boreas turned himself loose, yesterday, and ripped and tore through the streets from morning till night.

Laborers began, on yesterday, laying the cement floor in the court room. Mr C A Frazier has the contract to do the painting, and as soon as the floor is dry enough to walk on, will begin the work.

"The "younger set" of young ladies, (or more properly speaking, the little girls, if that term were admissible in this day and generation), are making preparations to have a leap year hop, some time during next week. So we are informed by one of the 'younger set" of boys.

The Baleigh News spoke, the other day, of a gentleman looking all over that place for Commissioner of Deeds for South Carolins, and not being able to find one. Send down here; we've got one and will lend him to you for a day or two.

College Street Dog Fight.

The most exciting event on the streets, resterday, was a dog fight. This was on College, between Trade and Fourth, and 29 people gathered so closely around the contestants, that they hardly had room to fight. The stump-tailed yaller dog was the favorite in the pool, and those who banked on him other places, our members of Congress will got their money back.

Another Temperance Leture.

We are informed that on Tuesday, Daniel Booth in Charlotte. Black, brother of Ephraim Black, the depot going from Cherryville to his home four miles distant, riding on top of a wagon load man hit the ground, head-foremost, and had the whole of his forehead crushed in. He lived but an hour.

More About Our Machine Shops. Capt Wilkes, the proprietor of the Meckenburg Iron Works, asks us to say that we did his establishment injustice, unintentionally, by stating that his shops were unable to repair steam engines, &c., at short notice. He has been doing much of the engine repeirs on the different roads leading to the city, for a number of years; and since his removal to his new location, his facilities are very much increased.

Country Chairs on the Market.

A whole wagon load of country split-bottom chairs was brought to the city for sale, yesterday morning, and when the wagon stopped in the middle of the street, every man in sight, who had anything of a mathematical turn of mind, got out his pencil and note book and began to figure on how long the west end of a pair of pants would last, with one of those chairs in a family. The highest estimate placed the time at four hours.

Sudden Death.

Mrs Anna Kerr, of Morning Star Township in this county, died suddenly some time during Wednesday night or yesterday morning. She retired on Wednesday night, seemingly in as good health as usual, and when the family rose, yesterday morning, and summoned her to breakfast, she was found in bed a corpse. Her death is supposed to have been caused by heart disease. The deceased was the mother of John T. Kerr. who, until very recently, was a resident of this city.

The Magician To-Night.

Signor Blitz, the magician and ventriloquist, is advertised to appear at the Charlotte Opera House to-night, in his feats of magic, ventriloquism, sleight-of-hand, &c. He is favorably spoken of by the press of cities which he has recently visited. The performances of his educated birds are said to be quite wonderful. He gives a Chromo to every person who attend the performance, and presents of different values are also given out. The price of admission is 35 cents.

The Courts.

There was no session of the Mayor's Court yesterday morning, there being no wicked ones with cases to be heard. There was only one criminal trial before any of the Magistrates: Mose Welch, colored, was in Justice Davidson's court, for stealing a hog from Nelson Kirkpatrick, and the evidence being strong enough to warrant his binding over, the court fixed bail at $50. Being unable to give this, the patriarch's namesake reposes peacefully in the hotel de Farrow. All the other business before the Magistrates was of a civil nature.

Destructive Pire in Bladen.

The Wilmington Star, of Wednesday, says: "The dwelling, kitchen and smoke cap, but the material points bearing upon house at Owen Hill, Bladen county, belonging to Mrs H W Guion, of Charlotte, and occupied by Mr John A Williams, Jr., were entirely destroyed by fire on Sunday morn- of Postmaster McDonald and placed it in ing. The origin of the fire is unknown, the hands of Special Deputy Marshal G W Mr Williams left home on Saturday morning, carefully putting out all the fires in the house and leaving a negro woman and children in a house in the yard . When the fire was first discovered, about o'dlock A. M., and the heat so great as to prevent saving anything. The cooking stove and meat were saved from the kitchen and smoke house. Mr Williams loses all his clothing and furniture.

The house, one of the mostly in the county, was formerly the residence of Goy Owen, and the propesty of his daughter, Mrs Guion. Its loss will cause a feeling of sympathy in a large circle of friends."

An Honest Servant.

While in this city on Tuesday night last, Platt D Walker, Esq., of Rockingham, lost, at the Central Hotel, a costly diamend ring, and one which he valued, too, more for its associations than for its real worth. Most diligent search was made in his room, and everywhere else where it was thought the ring could possibly have been lost, but to no purpose, and Mr Walker left for home on Wednesday morning, leaving instructions for the ring to be advertised. On the evening of that day, Aleck, the well-known office servant at the hotel, instituted another search and found the ring in the passage, near the door of the room which had been occupied on the night previous by Mr Walker. He immediately carried it to the office of the hotel, and ere this time, Mr Walker is in possession of his ring again.

Such honesty as this is as rare as it is com mendable, and we have no doubt that Aleck will be properly rewarded.

The U. S. Mint in Charlotte.

ington night before last, whither he has been to consult with the North Carolina members of Congress, in regard to the reestablishment of the United States Mint, in this city. He informs us that he found them unanimously in favor of re-establishing this important enterprise, but that just at present, there is no probability that Congress will continue it as a mint; but after hearing the opinions of the people here, through Col. Johnston, as their delegate, Dr. Linderman, director of the U. S. Mint, will recommend that the mint be continued as an assay office, which recommendation, it is thought, will carry it through Congress. If this be done, the chances are that in a few years the mint will be fully reestablished.

Col. Johnston thinks that Dr. Linderman's recommendation, to continue it as an assay office, will be authority for Congress to act upon; and in the event of the establishment of mints for the further coinage of silver at urge that the mint here be utilized for that had been adduced, connecting R E McDonald, Esq., postmaster of this city, with the No 63, and that his arrest was imminent. It is well known that a boy named John Hood, was arrested for this crime a short time before Christmas, and released on bond, he has been in jail here. His cell mates were Jackson & Reid-the box trick men-and these allege that they heard the boy talking in his sleep and begging of Mr McDonald to comply with his promises and relieve him of his difficulties. These men communicated this information to outside parties from jail by giving a bond in $500, and he thereupon went to the office of Commissioner J L Bailey, who had carried the papers releasing him to the jail, and made an affidavit setting forth that Mr McDonald, in September last, had approached him and told him that he had some work which he wanted him to do; that the postmaster then revealed to him the plan for robbing the box of the Erie City Iron Works' branch house, and for that purpose gave him a lock box key; that, in pursuance of an understanding, he al ways deposited the letters which he took from the box, in a certain spot in rear of the postoffice, and that this system continued until his apprehension, in December last. The affiant further says, that when he was first released on bail, Mr McDonald gave him money and advised him to leave the city, and that with this money, and acting upon this advice, he went from here to Columbia, and thence to Charleston, on to say that Mr McDonald promised to see him out of any trouble in which he might become involved by reason of this transaction, &c., &c.

Miss Adelaide Phillips did not escape so well, because she chose to visit us instead of our down-east neighbors. We don't blame the Review for feeling badly at the manner in which the first-clase companies are neglecting its place, but we are surprised that it should show its chagrin so plainly. Our ill-humored contemporray is mistaken badly about Booth having relieved Charlotte of all its surplus greenbacks. This will be proved a mistake when Daly's fine Fifth Avenue Company (it also gives Wilmington the go by,) shall stop with us next week.

Arrest of Postmaster McDonald-He is Charged with Complicity in the Robbery of a Post Office Lock Box.

In consequence of this affidavit, Commissioner Bailey issued a warrant for the arrest Taylor. Last evening after dark, the officer encountered Mr McDonald standing on the corner of Trade and Tryon sts. in front of the store of Walter Brem & Martin, and served the process upon him. He was taken to the office of the Commissioner, where he was represented by Maj C Dowd, who argued that the evidence was too flimsy. The Comheld the defendant to bail in the sum of one. Moore Dying.

A telegram received in this city last even-Messrs, T. C. Fuller, Thos. Ruffin, and Jas. A. Gilmer, and Jas. A. Graham, were conducting the prosecution.

A gentleman who arrived in this city last night at 9:15, gives us the particulars of the shooting. Our informant was direct from the Company Shops, and had his information from a gentleman who had just left Capt. Moore's bed-side. It is stated that Capt. Moore was walking along the road in front of Mr. Swepson's house, when the latter fired at him from behind a door with a Spencer rifle; this ball did not take effect, and, changing his position, he fired again this time from a window. The ball passed through a plank on the fence, struck Capt. Moore's arm, went into his side and entering his back, cut the spinal cord. He was carried to his residence, where he lies, at last accounts, in the condition mentioned above-Mr. Swepson surrendered himself to the Sheriff.

The patrons and friends of the Institute, are cordially invited to attend these exer-

The exercises of the two literary societies, which took place in the hall of the Carolina Military Institute last evening, were highly complimentary to that Institution, and reflected credit upon the Superintendent and Professors, who have it in charge. The audience, though not large, was sufficiently so to cheer and encourage the young participants of the evening. Cadets F J Ahrens, of North Carolina, of the Calliopean, and W H Campbell, of South Carolina, of the Polytechnic Societies, introduced the declaimers of the societies over which they respectively presided in the following order: Declaimers-Cadets R G Thomas, N C; J P Caldwell, S C; W C Browning, S C; A W Gilchrist, Fla.

All of the above named young gentlemen, delivered their orations with a marked emphasis and distinction, and we may add to deliver the lecture before the two societies, was prevented from so doingt by indisposition, and the speaker of the evening was W W Flemming, Esq., of this city. He gave as his reason for not giving the subject of his lecture, that he had only had about eight hours for its preparation, and it was consequently too young to be christened with a name. He impressed upon the members of the societies the importance of obedience and moral training, for they did more than anything else to win in the great-battle of life. Courtesy, and gentlemanly bear ing and forbearance, should be a practice of their lives. It required less courage to fight, than to acknowledge you have been in the wrong. He urged upon them the import ance of being natural in conversation, as well as all things else. To him, the prattle of a little infant, was the most elequent language in the world, because so artless and greeted the speaker, it is evident that the audience was well pleased and highly enterfained. We hope to see a large crowd at the commencement exercises of institution this evening, and let us by our presence add both pleasure and encouragement to in signactors and students.

The Y. M. C. A. Meetings.

The religious meetings under the auspices of Messrs Hall and McConnaughey, who have been sent South on a mission tour by the International Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association, took place yesterday and last night, according to the pro gramme published vesterday morning. At 8 o'clock a. m., a union prayer meeting was held at the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Chapel. There was quite a good attendance and addresses were delivered by Mr. Hall, Mr McConnaughey and others. Short,sil ent and voluntary prayers were offered by a number of persons, and the meeting was full of interest and feeling.

At 4 o'clock p. m., Mr. Hall gave a Bible

Reading at Tryon Street M. E. Church, to a much larger assemblage than was to have been expected. After the singing of four or five hymns, one of which was Mr Sankey's celebrated "Ninety and Nine," which was rendered with excellent effect by Mr. Hail, and after prayer by Rey P J Carraway, and Mr H., the latter made a few remarks concerning the importance of christian work, and gave out to different persons, the passages of scriptures found in the following. verses, all of which bear upon this subject Matthew 13.33; Galatians 6.10; John 4.35] Matthew 9.37: Second Corinthians 6.1; First Corinthians 3.9; Matthew 26.7; Mark 18.34 Mark 6.34; Matthew 25.14; Matthew 25.31 Ecclesiastes 9.10; John 9.4; First Corinthians 15.58; Acts 10.38, Luke 6.40; John 17.4; Acts 9.6; Isaiah 6.8; Psalm 126.6; John 4.36; Daniel 123; James 5.20; Second Corinthians 8,9. It will be interesting to the bible reader to look out these different passages, As each several verse was read by the person to whom it had been assigned, Mr Hall made some appropriate comment, and quite a little address followed each passage. The reverend gentleman has a very clear and forcible manner of expressing himself, and his instructions being given in conversational manner, were rendered all the more atwith much profit, it is hoped, the exercises were closed with prayer by Mr McContary Institute, takes place at the In. naughey, the singing of a hymn, and the the year, the office in Springs' building, at

A union gospel meeting was held last evening at 7.30 o'clock, at the Second Presbyterian Church, which was well filled, by a much interested audience. The services were opened by singing, and a prayer by &c. caise."—By Cadet Wm W Trenholm, of Rev W M Hunter. Several persons in the ed. congregation had preferred written requests for prayer for themselves or for some dear relative and these were particularly remembered. Mr McConnaughey read a portion of the 18th chapter of Second Samuel, wherein is told the story of David's grief for Absalom, and offered a few well-considered remarks on the circumstance. Another hymn, and Mr Hall delivered an address. He contended that there too little activity and ento stir them up to renewed activity in the christian work. There is one point particularly to which we shall refer when we have more room; at present we must condense. The lecture was a very excellent one, and was well-received. Mr Hall is an earnest These Goods must be sold, as we do not speaker, and his words carry much weight with them.
