Death of R. F. Simonton, Esq., of States-

We are very much pained to announce he death of R. F. Simonton, Esq., of Statesville. He died on Sunday morning at 8 o'clock, at the Arlington House, in Danville, Va. He passed through this city about ten days ago, on his way to Richmond, on business, and was taken very sick at Danville. Pronounced a Fraud.

A statement is going the rounds of the press, to the effect that Belle Boyd, the Confederate spy, is now living in St. Louis, a lady, wife and mother, and that the woman who was traveling around in this section last Fall, and who made two failures to get up an audience here, is a "great big fraud," beyond all shadow of doubt. We feel about as much interest in this matter as we do in who struck Billy Patterson.

Warning.

We see by exchanges reports o' a swindle practiced by a peddler selling sewing silk He shows boxes of a dozen spools of silk, purporting to contain each 400 to 500 yards, offering to measure them. When the purchase is examined each spool bought proves to contain only 100 yards of sewing silk, the price of which in the stores is ten cents, but which, sold under false pretences, costs the buyer very considerably more. The Sabbath and Sabbath Services.

Last Sunday was perhaps the most charming day of the present season. The sun was gloriously bright, and the balmiest of breezes fanned our cheeks. All nature looked bright and beautiful, and the yery earth seemed to smile under the genial and fructifying sunshine. It is not wonderfully strange, when the character of the day is remembered, that the streets should have been crowded from morning till night, and that almost everybody in town should have turned out to church. They were all open-a circumstance which has not occurred before in a filled with attentive congregations.

There were two visiting ministers in the city: Rev J B Haskell preached morning and evening in St. Mark's Lutheran Church, and Rev J K Mendenhall preached in the morning at the Baptist Church. Mr Haskell is the gentleman who was recently called to the pastorate of the Lutheran Church of this city, out declined the call. He is a divine at the time of his death. The meeting was highly successful, and the hearts of the members of the Association are very much encouraged, In the churches not mentioned, the usual order of exercises prevailed.

Fertilizers.

We call to the attention of our farmer readers, that Gen Thos F. Drayton is selling in this city, Sardy's Ammoniated Soluble Pacific Phosphe-Peruvian Guanos, and Dis solved Bone Phosphate. These well known fertilizers, after ten years' practical test burn, and she had to sit up and freeze during | throughout the South, have gained for themselves a high reputation, and proved to be highly profitable fertilizers for cotton, corn and other crops, particularly adapted to the Southern climate and soil. Gen Drayton sells them at reasonable cash and time prices and solicits a call from farmers.

of American Independence. By James D McCabe, Author of "A Manual of General History," "The Great Republic, Etc. There has long been a great and universally-felt want of a History of the United States suitable for general use. This want is now being supplied by The National Publishing Co., of Philadelphia, who have issued a handsome volume, styled "The Centennial History of the United States," by James D McCabe, a well-known historical writer. This work will, undoubtedly, take rank as the Standard History of the United States, It is no dry mass of details—no bombastic effort to inflame the national pride, but is a clear, vivid and brilliant narrative of the terious race, the first occupant of our coun-
