The Fayetteville Wide Awake says that wo brothers, named William and George Gales, became involved in a drunken quarrel, growing out of the efforts of the former to take the latter home. A scuffle ensued and William received a severe gash in the face by a knife in the hand of his brother. Find-ing his endeavors to take the knife above Stenhouse, Macaulay & 10., at the reaway from George futile he summon- tail store of ed Mr. Jones, a watchman around Beaver Creek, and a man of good repute, to his assistance, and the two succeeded in depriving the enraged man of his weapon, after which he turned on Jones and running his hand in his pocket as if to draw another knife swore he would kill him. Jones then ran, pursued by Gales, until he reached his dwelling, when he confronted Gales and told him to follow him to follow him no farther. Gales did follow and Jones took down a gun from a rack and shot him in the left breast killing him instantly; after which gave him.

Some in this State claim to be Architects when they have no knowledge of the business and can only be called draftsmen, and need some one to instruct them at all times should they undertake a job. For the last six years he has been employed in this State, and has done all the best buildings, with only a few ex-ceptions in Raleigh, Goldsboro and Greens-boro, and almost all over the State, where persons can see his work.

In Charlotte he would call attention to 8

He can show as many fine buildings as any other man of his age, and will take pleasure in doing so, Any person visiting charlotte is invited to call and examine his drawings, which he has at least 500. He guarantees to have 50 to 1 of any other peron in the State. All are invited to examine them whether they are going to build or not. The ladies are specially invited.
