The Courts.

Superior Court .- This body was engaged all day yesterday upon the civil suit of A M Sloan vs. RI McDowell: the plaintiff brings suit to recover a claim amounting to | hold and Kitchen Furniture: $1,000, to which the defendant sets up a counter-claim of about $40,000. Mesars Wilson & Son appeared for the plaintiff and Messrs Vance & Burwell and W W Flemming for the defendant. The day's session from 91 o'clock in the morning until 5 in the afternoon, was consumed in the taking of testimony and the arguments of counsel in this case, and at the conclusion of these, the jury retired, under His Honor's charge, and after half an hour's absence brought in a verdict for the defendant, finding all the issues in his favor. Court adjourned upon the retirement of the jury, to meet this morning at 91 o'clock, when the criminal docket will be resumed.

Before Justice Davidson .- Isaac Jenkins, colored, for assault and battery upon his wife, found guilty and fined $5 and cost. There was no session of the Mayor's Court tral and North Carolina Railroads. People around that powder, and walked light and, thought about that dynamite affair.

One Good Effect.

The Methodist Services.

It is noticed that since the Market House has been closed, there is none of that crowd of dirty, drunken and blasphemous negroes hanging around that locality. This class formerly caused ladies to shun that side of the street, particularly after dark, and to this extent, if no further, the closing of the Market House has been a public benefit.
