WASHINGTON, D. C., March 15, '76.

MR. S. A. HUDSON:

Dear Sir :- Yours has been received. I am glad that you think favorable of the movement, and hope you will bring your friends and the colored THE PUBLIC SUMMONED TO THE people together and organize to combat corruption in the coming election. Colored men all over the country are rising in their dignity to repeal the unjust aspersions cast upon them by the leaders of the Republican party, and they are now prepared to do battle against corruption in high places. Will against corruption in high places. Will the people of your section give them a helping hand by voting to put down this corrupt administration that has so disgraced the country? I hope they will, and by so doing secure for them-selves the good wishes of the good people with whom they must live and whose interests are identical with
